Advance your career in government finance, management, and public policy at the New York State Division of the Budget (DOB)! DOB develops, negotiates, and implements one of the largest government budgets in the country, which provides the fiscal roadmap for State programs, policies, and services.

We are seeking motivated analysts and critical thinkers to join our team. DOB analysts rely on their skills for creative problem solving, attention to detail, and comprehensive communication to respond to emerging challenges, identify and develop solutions, and ensure the fiscal health of the State.

The Health Unit oversees the Medicaid Managed Care, Medicaid Managed Long-Term Care, Nursing Homes, New York State of Health Exchange, aspects of the Affordable Care Act, Minimum Wage, Supportive Housing, Home and Community Based Long-Term Care, the Medicaid State Global Cap, Federal Medicaid Spending, other State Agency Medicaid spending, non-Medicaid components of the Department of Health (DOH), the State Office of the Aging and the Office of the Medicaid Inspector General budgets and assists in budget development and coordination, appropriations, and various other assignments involving different aspects of health care finance.

This position in the Health Unit will also offer the candidate a unique opportunity to conduct research and develop recommendations related to health care financing and the State's health care reform agenda.

Responsibilities

Budget and Policy Analysts at DOB are typically involved in:

- Developing in-depth knowledge of program areas, including detailed analysis of broader trends (e.g. trends in the policy area, budgetary and spending trends, economic trends and implications, etc.), potential impacts on program operations, and collaborating with counterparts to understand agency and program operations, issues, and challenges.
- Managing the State's Financial Plan including by projecting and monitoring spending trends, identifying challenges, and working with counterparts to mitigate fiscal risks.
- Analyzing, developing, and defending budget and policy recommendations followed by the continuation of implementing innovative and strategic health care reforms.
- Coordinating various projects within the DOB and among impacted agencies including Local Grants Management, Not-for-Profit advisory groups, and the Interagency Task Forces.
- Evaluating and participating in the development of programmatic and policy solutions aimed at addressing care and financing needs for vulnerable populations within the State.
- Considering programmatic implications of legislation and developing related cost estimates, including timing of the effects on the Financial Plan.
- Working with staff from the Governor's Office, the Legislature, the DOH and other units within DOB.

Qualifications

- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively with diverse stakeholders.
- Fluency in Excel formulas and functions, and other Microsoft applications.
- Strong written, visual, and verbal communication skills.
- Ability to prepare, analyze, and effectively present fiscal information.
- Demonstrates initiative in formulating constructive recommendations on issues.
- Has an interest in health care finance.

The ideal candidate will have analytic ability and a willingness to learn. Key skills for this role include objectivity, flexibility, and adaptability. Mandatory overtime may be required.
