

BUDGET AND POLICY ANALYST

Housing, Human Services and Intergovernmental Relations

Salary: $56,655 - $67,119

Reference #EX-HI-06

Advance your career in government finance, management, and public policy at the New York State Division of the Budget (DOB)! DOB develops, negotiates, and implements one of the largest government budgets in the country, which provides the fiscal roadmap for State programs, policies, and services.

We are seeking motivated analysts and critical thinkers to join our team. DOB analysts rely on their skills for creative problem solving, attention to detail, and comprehensive communication to respond to emerging challenges, identify and develop solutions, and ensure the fiscal health of the State.

This position will be part of the team responsible for budget development and execution for various aspects of the Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA), which is responsible for oversight of the State's Public Assistance program, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, the Child Support Program, the State Supplemental Security Income Program, the Home Energy Assistance Program, the emergency homeless shelter system, and various refugee, homelessness prevention, and supportive housing programs.

Responsibilities

Budget and Policy Analysts at DOB are typically involved in:

- Developing in-depth knowledge of program areas, including detailed analysis of broader trends (e.g trends in the policy area, budgetary and spending trends, economic trends and implications, etc.), potential impacts on program operations, and collaborating with counterparts to understand agency and program operations, issues, and challenges.
- Drafting recommendations and materials to guide decision-making, including articulating nuanced issues, illustrating trends and projections, and synthesizing data.
- Managing the State's Financial Plan including by projecting and monitoring spending trends, identifying challenges, and working with counterparts to mitigate fiscal risks.
- Developing and analyzing proposals for programmatic improvements in agency and program operations, including reviewing and developing proposals for operational efficiencies.

Qualifications

Minimum qualifications for our title series can be found on our Salaries and Career Paths page. Candidates for this position should demonstrate the following:

- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively with diverse stakeholders.
- Fluency in Excel formulas and functions, and other Microsoft applications.

- Strong written, visual, and verbal communication skills.
- The ability to handle multiple competing assignments at a time.

The ideal candidate will have analytic ability and a willingness to learn. Key skills for this role include objectivity, flexibility, and adaptability. Mandatory overtime may be required.
