

2008 AND 2009 ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

Subdivision 1 of section 43 of section 1 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1968, constituting the New York state urban development corporation act, as amended by section 57 of part BB of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, reads as follows:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the dormitory authority and the corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for various economic development and regional initiatives, the upstate regional blueprint fund, the downstate revitalization fund, the upstate agricultural economic fund, the New York state capital assistance program, the New York state economic development assistance program and other state costs associated with such projects. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed one billion two hundred sixty-nine million four hundred fifty thousand dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the dormitory authority and the corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the dormitory authority and the corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.
