

COUNCIL ON THE ARTS

MISSION

The primary responsibility for oversight and administration of the State's artistic and cultural resources is assigned to three existing entities — the Council on the Arts, the Empire State Plaza Performing Arts Center Corporation and the New York State Theatre Institute. The 2002-03 Executive Budget proposes the establishment of the New York Institute for Cultural Education to administer a variety of statewide cultural education programs and important cultural institutions. Working together, these agencies expand access to the performing and fine arts, preserve the State's cultural resources and promote greater public awareness of New York's rich cultural heritage.

ORGANIZATION AND STAFFING

The Council on the Arts is headed by a Chair and a Vice Chair and consists of 20 members nominated for 5-year terms by the Governor with confirmation by the Senate. The Council's staff, headed by an Executive Director, is organized into an Administrative Division and a Program Division, both located in New York City. The Council has expertise in several major artistic disciplines (including dance, theater and music) and provides advisory services and financial assistance to New York's arts community. During 2002-03, the Council on the Arts will have a workforce of 55 for the review, processing and administration of arts grants and loans to nonprofit organizations.

The Empire State Plaza Performing Arts Center Corporation (the "Egg") was established in 1979 as a public benefit corporation to administer a performing arts center in Albany that offers a diverse array of cultural and artistic programming. An 18-member Board of Directors — consisting of the Commissioner of General Services and members appointed by the Governor, leaders of the Legislature, as well as the Mayor and County Executive of Albany — provides policy direction for the Corporation and appoints its Executive Director. The Chair of the Board is selected by the Governor. The Corporation has a full-time staff of eight.

The New York State Theatre Institute (NYSTI) was established in 1974 and reconstituted in 1992 as a public benefit corporation to provide educational theater experiences for children and families across the State. The Governor appoints the Chair of the Board of Directors whose 15 members are selected by the Governor and legislative leaders. The Chief Executive Officer of the Institute is its Producing Artistic Director, who is appointed by the Board. The Institute's staff of 29 is based in Troy, where its office, production and instructional facilities are located.

To promote increased recognition and visibility of the important cultural programs administered by the State Museum, the State Library and the State Archives, a transfer of these functions from the State Education Department (SED) is recommended to establish a new entity — the New York Institute for Cultural Education (NYICE) — which will have as its sole focus the promotion of New York's cultural resources. The 2002-03 Executive Budget proposes to implement this functional transfer by July 1, 2002 and provides for the related transfer of programs, facilities and staff.

A 15-member Board will oversee this new Institute with members nominated for 5-year terms by the Governor, legislative leaders and the Board of Regents. The Chair of the Board will be designated by the Governor from among its members; and the Institute's Chief Executive Officer will be appointed by the Board. The operations of NYICE will be funded primarily by increasing an existing surcharge from $5 to $20 for the recording, indexing and certifying of documents by county clerks.

FISCAL BACKGROUND AND BUDGET HIGHLIGHTS

Most (97 percent) of the funding for the Council on the Arts is provided by the State's General Fund. Federal grants from the National Endowment for the Arts are projected to represent approximately 2 percent of 2002-03 disbursements. One Fiduciary Fund account provides funding for short-term loans to arts organizations for acquisition of expensive musical instruments and for capital improvements. A second Fiduciary Fund, established in 1999-2000, enables the Council to receive and expend funds available through donations and gifts.

Grants to not-for-profit arts organizations represent nearly 88 percent of the projected expenditures of the Council. The remainder is used for the administration of grant programs and the statewide advocacy, promotion and development of artistic and cultural programs.

The 2002-03 Executive Budget includes funding of: $5.3 million for administration of the Council's programs; and $44 million for arts grants which will support general arts grants, decentralization grants and the Empire State Partnership initiative.

Funding of $567,000 is provided for the Egg and $1.6 million for NYSTI. Receipts from ticket sales, private donations, and sales and lease of products and facilities will supplement State funds provided to these organizations.

The Executive Budget provides $26 million from dedicated revenues for NYICE, representing nine months' funding for the new Institute for the period of July 1, 2002 to March 31, 2003. Separate transitional funding is provided in SED to support these cultural education programs until the date of their transfer to NYICE on July 1, 2002.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Council on the Arts. Since April 1995, the Council has distributed approximately 16,000 grants totaling over $240 million to more than 1,300 cultural organizations. Grant awards to nonprofit arts organizations are approved through a multi-step review process which ensures fair and equitable treatment of all applicants. Program audits are also conducted to promote accountability by monitoring program quality and contractual compliance.

The Council receives approximately 2,800 requests for funding each year from organizations throughout the State including symphony orchestras, museums, dance companies, theaters and libraries. To recognize program excellence and promote regional diversity, the Council devotes half of its State grant funding to organizations that have recognized standing in the field, and guarantees that each county receives a minimum base grant tied to its population.

Performing Arts Center Corporation (the "Egg"). During the 2000-01 season, the Egg presented 56 events generating a total audience of 37,570. The facility was in use over 300 days, serving an additional 31,000 individuals attending performances, meetings, arts classes and other events sponsored by a variety of civic, social, corporate and educational organizations.

New York State Theatre Institute. More than 65,000 children, teachers and parents attended NYSTI's 6 productions in 2000-01 in Troy and 31,000 children were served throughout New York State with a tour of NYSTI's production of A Tale of Cinderella to New York City, Syracuse, Buffalo and Staten Island. The Institute certified 90 high school units and 160 college credits to 65 high school seniors and college students who participated in its internship program. The Institute received the National American Alliance for Theater and Education award for artistic achievement in 1999 and an Audie Award in 2000 for its production of Sherlock's Secret Life.

The New York Institute for Cultural Education. In its new role to oversee the administration of a variety of statewide cultural education programs and important cultural institutions, NYICE will:

- Provide effective leadership for the development of the State's cultural resources in partnership with local governments, nonprofit organizations and the private sector;
- Ensure a steady, predictable revenue stream for the operations of the State's key cultural institutions;
- Transform the State Museum into a more vibrant and attractive resource to showcase New York's heritage using state-of-the-art technology; and
- Increase the opportunities for the State Library and the State Archives to emerge as world-class cultural information centers.
