"Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, funds from this appropriation shall not be used or spent for personal services or non-personal services to process or implement the payment of travel reimbursement expenses for public officials, as defined herein, in travel status on or after April 1, 2015, unless such conditions as defined herein are satisfied. Under no circumstances may this appropriation be used or spent for personal services or non-personal services to process or implement the payment of expenses for public officials greater than travel reimbursement expenses. This shall not apply to payments for actual transportation expenses as permitted under guidelines and rules by the state comptroller for legislators going to and from Albany but shall apply to travel reimbursement expenses sought by public officials, as defined herein.

For the purposes of this appropriation, "public official" shall mean the governor, lieutenant governor, comptroller, attorney general and each member of the state legislature.

For the purposes of this appropriation and notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, "travel reimbursement expenses" shall mean those reasonable and necessary travel expenses for lodging, meals and incidental that are actually incurred by the public official while in travel status in the performance of his or her duties and for which receipts and other appropriate documentation are submitted which shall be reimbursed at the same rate as such receipted expenses are otherwise allowed state employees by the state comptroller while in travel status in the performance of their duties.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, funds from this appropriation shall not be used or spent for personal services or non-personal services to process or implement the payment of travel reimbursement expenses to a public official until such time as the state comptroller has been informed in writing by the joint commission on public ethics that:

The public official has filed a written statement with the joint commission on public ethics covering the period January 1, 2015 through June 30, 2015, and on a quarterly basis, the accuracy of which has been attested by such public official:

I. If the public official practices law, is licensed by the department of state as a real estate broker or agent or practices a profession licensed by the department of education, or works as a member or employee of a firm required to register pursuant to section one-e of the legislative law as a lobbyist, a description of the services rendered for which compensation was paid including a general description of the principal subject areas of matters undertaken by such individual or principal duties performed and the source of such income or compensation described with particularity;

II. If the public official personally provides services to any person or entity, or works as a member or employee of a partnership or corporation that provides such services (referred to hereinafter as a "firm"), for each client or customer from whom the public official or his or her firm received payment for such services in excess of $5,000, and for each client or customer who was referred to the firm by the public official from whom the public official or the firm received payment in excess of $5,000, information specifying: (a) each such client or customer; (b) the services actually provided by such public official or firm to each such client or customer and the fee received; and if applicable, (c) whether such services were rendered in direct connection with:

(i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly;
(ii) A contract in an amount totaling $50,000 or more from the state or any state agency for services, materials, or property;
(iii) A grant of $25,000 or more from the state or any state agency;
(iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative; or
(v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a ministerial matter before a state agency.

For purposes of this appropriation, "referred to the firm" shall have the same meaning as described in Section 73-a of the public officers law. Information is not required about clients or customers receiving medical or dental services, mental health services, residential real estate brokering services, or insurance brokering services from the public official or his or her firm. The public official need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, surrogate court and estate planning work, or domestic relations matters.

Upon the state comptroller's receipt in writing by the joint committee on public ethics of confirmation that a public official has filed a written statement with the joint commission on public ethics covering the period January 1, 2015 through June 30, 2015, as prescribed herein, funds from this appropriation may be used or spent for personal services or non-personal services to process or implement the payment of travel reimbursement expenses to a public official until such time that the deadline for a subsequent quarterly filing has passed and the comptroller has not been informed in writing by the joint committee on public ethics that a public official has filed a written statement with the joint commission on public ethics (which for the purposes of this appropriation shall be October 15, 2015 for the July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015 reporting period and January 15, 2016 for the October 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015 reporting period), at which time funds from this appropriation may not be used or spent for personal services or non-personal services to process or implement the payment of travel reimbursement expenses until such time as the state comptroller has been informed in writing by the joint commission on public ethics that the public official has filed such written statement, as prescribed herein.

Provided further that for the purposes of this appropriation, the joint commission on public ethics shall promptly inform the state comptroller in writing upon receipt of such public official's submission, as prescribed herein.

Provided further that for the purposes of this appropriation, when payment of travel reimbursement expenses is withheld from a public official pursuant to the provisions set forth herein, upon the state comptroller’s receipt of written notification from the joint commission on public ethics as prescribed herein, such payment shall resume and an amount equal to the accrued, withheld and unpaid travel reimbursement expenses shall be promptly paid to the public official.

The foregoing provisions are defined as the "Ethics Disclosure Requirements."

the Act in full force and effect as it existed on December 8, 2014, with the following amendments to sections two, three, four, eight, and seventeen of the Act: authorized state entities may also use the alternative delivery method referred to as design-build contracts for capital projects related to buildings as well as to any projects undertaken by an authorized state entity in agreement with another party; "authorized state entity” shall mean any state agency as such term is defined in section 160 of the state finance law and any state authority as such term is defined in section 2 of the public authorities law, including the office of general services; in addition to other laws notwithstanding, the Act also notwithstands the provisions of sections 1678, 1680 and 1680-a of the public authorities law, sections 407-a and 6281 of the education law, sections 8 and 9 of the public buildings law, authorized state entity that requires a contractor to prepare separate specifications in accordance with section 135 of the state finance law shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of such law; for all capital projects using a design-build contract that are estimated to cost in excess of $50 million, a project labor agreement, as defined in section 222 of the labor law, shall be included in the request for proposals for the capital project unless, based upon a feasibility study examining the potential cost saving and efficiencies of a project labor agreement, the authorized state entity cannot determine that a project labor agreement would result in labor cost savings of at least five percent and that its interest in obtaining the best work at the lowest possible price, preventing favoritism, fraud and corruption, and other considerations such as the impact delay, the possibility of cost savings advantages, and any history of labor unrest, are best met by requiring a project labor agreement; and any contract awarded pursuant to the Act shall be deemed to be awarded pursuant to a competitive procurement for purposes of public authorities law section
