(3) a value computed by subtracting from eighty hundredths the product obtained by multiplying the combined wealth ratio by thirty-nine hundredths; or

(4) a value computed by subtracting from fifty-one hundredths the product obtained by multiplying the combined wealth ratio by twenty-two hundredths, provided, however, that for the purpose of computing the state sharing ratio for total foundation aid, the tier four value shall not be computed [by subtracting from fifty-one hundredths the product obtained by multiplying the combined wealth ratio by one hundred seventy-three thousandths] and such values shall be computed using the combined wealth ratio for total foundation aid in place of the combined wealth ratio, and, for high need school districts, as determined pursuant to clause (c) of subparagraph two of paragraph c of subdivision six of this section for the school aid computer listing produced by the commissioner in support of the enacted budget for the two thousand seven--two thousand eight school year and entitled "SA0708", such values shall be multiplied by one hundred five percent.

§ 18. Subdivision 1 of section 3602 of the education law is amended by adding a new paragraph hh to read as follows:

hh. Operating amount per pupil. The operating amount per pupil shall equal the remainder when the expected minimum local contribution is subtracted from the product of the adjusted cost amount, the regional cost index, and the pupil need index.

(i) The adjusted cost amount shall reflect the average per pupil cost of general education instruction in successful school districts, as determined by a statistical analysis of the costs of special education and general education in successful school districts, provided that the adjusted cost amount shall be adjusted annually to reflect the percentage increase in the consumer price index.

(ii) The regional cost index shall reflect an analysis of labor market costs based on median salaries in professional occupations that require similar credentials to those of positions in the education field, but not including those occupations in the education field, provided that the regional cost indices for the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen school year and thereafter shall be as follows:

(iii) The pupil need index shall equal the sum of one plus the extraordinary needs percent, provided, however, that the pupil need index shall not be less than one nor more than two. The extraordinary needs percent shall be calculated pursuant to paragraph w of subdivision one of this section.

(iv) The expected minimum local contribution shall equal the lesser of (1) the product of (A) the quotient arrived at when the selected actual valuation is divided by total wealth foundation pupil units, multiplied by (B) the product of the local tax factor, multiplied by the income wealth index, or (2) the product of (A) the product of the adjusted cost amount, the regional cost index, and the pupil need index, multiplied by (B) the positive difference, if any, of one minus the state sharing ratio for total foundation aid. The local tax factor shall be established by May first of each year by determining the product, computed to ten decimal places without rounding, of ninety percent multiplied by the quotient of the sum of the statewide average tax rate as computed by the commissioner for the current year in accordance with the provisions of paragraph e of this subdivision plus the statewide average tax rate computed by the commissioner for the base year in accordance with such provisions plus the statewide average tax rate computed by the commissioner for the year prior to the base year in accordance with such provisions, divided by three. The income wealth index shall be calculated pursuant to paragraph d of subdivision three of this section, provided, however, that for the purposes of computing the expected minimum local contribution the income wealth index shall not be less than zero nor more than two hundred percent (2.0). The selected actual valuation shall be calculated pursuant to paragraph c of this subdivision.
Total wealth foundation pupil units shall be calculated pursuant to paragraph h of subdivision two of this section.

law, as amended by section 9 of part A of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

school year and thereafter, school districts which provided any half-day kindergarten programs or had no kindergarten programs in the nineteen hundred ninety-six--ninety-seven school year and in the base year, and which have not received an apportionment pursuant to this paragraph in any prior school year, shall be eligible for aid equal to the product of the district's [selected foundation aid calculated pursuant to subdivision four] operating amount per pupil pursuant to paragraph hh of subdivision one of this section multiplied by the positive difference resulting when the full day kindergarten enrollment of children attending programs in the district in the base year is subtracted from such enrollment in the current year.

§ 20. Paragraph c of subdivision 15 of section 3602 of the education law, as amended by section 16 of part B of chapter 57 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

c. In addition to any other aid computed under this section, such school district shall be eligible to receive, for each excess transfer pupil, an amount equal to the [selected foundation aid for such district computed pursuant to subdivision four] operating amount per pupil pursuant to paragraph hh of subdivision one of this section.

§ 21. Subdivision 4 of section 3602 of the education law, as amended by section 5-a of part A of chapter 56 of the laws of 2015, the opening paragraph, subparagraph 1 of paragraph a, clause (ii) of subparagraph 2 of paragraph b and paragraph d as amended and paragraph b-2 as amended by section 7 of part A of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, paragraph e as added by section 8 of part A of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

4. Total foundation aid. [In addition to any other apportionment pursuant to this chapter, a school district, other than a special act school district as defined in subdivision eight of section four thousand one of this chapter, shall be eligible for total foundation aid equal to the product of total aidable foundation pupil units multiplied by the district's selected foundation aid, which shall be the greater of five hundred dollars ($500) or foundation formula aid, provided, however that for the two thousand seven--two thousand eight through two thousand eight--two thousand nine school years, no school district shall receive total foundation aid in excess of the sum of the total foundation aid base for aid payable in the two thousand seven--two thousand eight school year computed pursuant to subparagraph (i) of paragraph j of subdivision one of this section, plus the phase-in foundation increase computed pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision, and provided further that for the two thousand twelve--two thousand thirteen school year, no school district shall receive total foundation aid in excess of the sum of the total foundation aid base for aid payable in the two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve school year computed pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph j of subdivision one of this section, plus the phase-in foundation increase computed pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision, and provided further that for the two thousand thirteen--two thousand fourteen school year and thereafter, no school district shall receive total foundation aid in excess of the sum of the total foundation aid base computed pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of seventeen school year, no eligible school districts shall receive total foundation aid in excess of the sum of the total foundation aid base computed pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph j of subdivision one of this section plus the sum of (A) the phase-in foundation increase, (B) the executive foundation increase with a minimum increase pursuant to paragraph b-2 of this subdivision, and (C) an amount equal to "COMMU-NITY SCHOOLS AID" in the computer listing produced by the commissioner in support of the executive budget request for the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen school year and entitled "BT161-7", where (1) "eligible school district" shall be defined as a district with (a) an unrestricted aid increase of less than seven percent (0.07) and (b) a three year average free and reduced price lunch percent greater than fifteen percent (0.15), and (2) "unrestricted aid increase" shall mean the quotient arrived at when dividing (a) the sum of the executive foundation aid increase plus the gap elimination adjustment for the base year, by (b) the difference of foundation aid for the base year less the gap elimination adjustment for the base year, and (3) "executive foundation increase" shall mean the difference of (a) the amounts set forth for each school district as "FOUNDATION AID" under the heading "2016-17 ESTIMATED AIDS" in the school aid computer listing produced by the commissioner in support of the executive budget request for the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen school year and entitled "BT161-7" less (b) the amounts set forth for each school district as "FOUNDATION AID" under the heading "2015-16 BASE YEAR AIDS" in such computer listing and provided further that total foundation aid shall not be less than the product of the total foundation aid base computed pursuant to paragraph j of subdivision one of this section and the due-minimum percent which shall be, for the two thousand twelve--two thousand thirteen school year, one hundred and six-tenths percent (1.006) and for the two thousand thirteen--two thousand fourteen school year for city school districts of those cities having populations in excess of one hundred twenty-five thousand and less than one million inhabitants one hundred and one and one hundred and seventy-six thousandths percent (1.01176), and for all other districts one hundred and three-tenths percent (1.003), and for the two thousand fourteen--two thousand fifteen school year one hundred and eighty-five hundredths percent (1.0085), and for the two thousand fifteen--two thousand sixteen school year, one hundred thirty-seven hundredths percent (1.0037), subject to allocation pursuant to the provisions of subdivision eighteen of this section and any provisions of a chapter of the laws of New York as described therein, nor more than the product of such total foundation aid base and one hundred fifteen percent, provided, however, that for the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen school year such maximum shall be no more than the sum of (i) the product of such total foundation aid base and one hundred fifteen percent plus (ii) the executive foundation increase and plus (iii) "COMMUNITY SCHOOLS AID" in the computer listing produced by the commissioner in support of the executive budget request for the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen school year and entitled "BT161-7" and provided further that for the two thousand nine-two thousand ten through two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve school years, each school district shall receive total foundation aid in an amount equal to the amount apportioned to such school district for the two thousand eight--two thousand nine school year pursuant to this subdivision. Total aidable foundation pupil units shall be calculated pursuant to paragraph g of subdivision two of this section.]

a. For the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen school year, districts shall be eligible for foundation aid equal to the sum of: (1) the base increase, plus (2) the community schools increase, plus (3) the foundation aid base, as defined pursuant to paragraph j of subdivision one of this section. For the two thousand eighteen--two thousand nineteen school year and thereafter, districts shall be eligible for foundation aid equal to the amount of foundation aid such district received in the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen school year.

1. The base increase shall be equal to the greater of the foundation aid per pupil increase or the scaled per pupil increase. The base increase shall not exceed the product of fifteen percent multiplied by the foundation aid base and shall not be less than the due minimum increase.

(i) The foundation aid per pupil increase shall be equal to the product of the selected per pupil foundation aid increase as defined herein multiplied by the selected total aidable foundation pupil units computed pursuant to paragraph g of subdivision two of this section.

(A) The selected per pupil foundation aid increase shall be equal to the per pupil foundation increase as defined herein less the selected local share, with a minimum of five hundred dollars ($500) multiplied by the per pupil foundation increase factor, rounded to two decimals.

(B) The per pupil foundation increase factor for the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen school year shall be equal to one and two hundred twenty-seven thousandths percent (0.01227).

(C) The per pupil foundation increase shall be equal to the product of
(i) the product of the adjusted cost amount, the regional cost index as set forth in paragraph hh of subdivision one of this section and the pupil need index computed to two decimals without rounding, multiplied by (ii) the per pupil foundation increase factor.

(D) The selected local share shall be equal to the lesser of (a) the product of the per pupil foundation increase and the value computed by subtracting from one the state sharing ratio for total foundation aid computed pursuant to paragraph g of subdivision three of this section, rounded to two decimals or (b) the product of the quotient arrived at when dividing the selected actual valuation by total wealth foundation pupil units, multiplied by the product of the income wealth index multiplied by the local tax factor multiplied by the per pupil foundation increase factor, provided, however, that the income wealth index shall not be less than zero nor exceed two hundred percent (2.0).

(ii) The scaled per pupil increase shall be equal to the product of one hundred ninety-five dollars ($195) multiplied by the scaled per pupil ratio, multiplied by the base year public school district enrollment as computed pursuant to subparagraph two of paragraph n of subdision one of this section. The scaled per pupil ratio shall be the value computed by subtracting from two the product of two and fifteen hundredths (2.15) multiplied by the combined wealth ratio for total foundation aid, defined pursuant to subparagraph two of paragraph c of subdivision three of this section, computed to three decimal places without rounding. The scaled per pupil ratio shall not exceed nine-tenths (0.9) or be less than zero.

(iii) The due minimum increase shall be equal to the product of the foundation aid base and the due minimum percent. For the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen school year, the due minimum percent shall equal: (a) for a city school district of a city having a popu-lacion of one million or more, two and ninety-three hundredths percent (0.0293); (b) for a city school district of a city having a population in excess of one hundred twenty-five thousand and less than one million inhabitants, two and one-hundred and sixty-five thousandths percent (0.02165), and (c) for all other public school districts, other than a special act school district as defined in subdivision eight of section four thousand one of this chapter, eligible for foundation aid, one percent (0.01).
2. The community schools increase shall be, for all eligible school districts, equal to the product of the scaled per pupil amount multiplied by the base year public school district enrollment as computed pursuant to subparagraph two of paragraph n of subdivision one of this section, but shall not be less than one-hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000).

(i) (A) A school district shall be eligible for the community schools increase if (1) the school district contains at least one school designated as failing or persistently failing by the commissioner pursuant to paragraphs (a) or (b) of subdivision one of section two hundred eleven-f of this chapter as of January first, two thousand seventeen or (2) the school district has both a combined wealth ratio for total foundation aid less than one and two-tenths (1.2) and has a qualifying English language learner population level.

(B) For purposes of this subdivision, a qualifying English language learner population level shall mean those school districts where (1) the quotient arrived at when dividing the English language learner count by the base year public school district enrollment as computed pursuant to subparagraph two of paragraph n of subdivision one of this section exceeds five percent (0.05) and (2) the positive difference, if any, of the English language learner count less the amount equal to "2011-12 ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS" in the computer listing produced by the commissioner in support of the executive budget request for the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen school year entitled "BT171-8" is greater than both (a) one hundred pupils and (b) the product of one-tenth (0.10) multiplied by the amount equal to "2011-12 ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS" in the computer listing produced by the commissioner in support of the executive budget request for the two thousand seventeen-two thousand eighteen school year and entitled "BT17-18".

(i) The community schools scaled per pupil amount shall be equal to the product of eighty-eight dollars and three cents ($88.03) multiplied by the difference of subtracting from one the product of the combined wealth ratio for total foundation aid multiplied by sixty-four hundredths (0.64), provided that such product shall not exceed nine-tenths (0.9) or be less than zero.

b. For the purposes of calculating aid pursuant to this subdivision, aid for the city school district of the city of New York shall be calculated on a citywide basis.

[a. Foundation formula aid. Foundation formula aid shall equal the remainder when the expected minimum local contribution is subtracted from the product of the foundation amount, the regional cost index, and the pupil need index, or: (foundation amount x regional cost index x pupil need index) - expected minimum local contribution.

(1) The foundation amount shall reflect the average per pupil cost of general education instruction in successful school districts, as determined by a statistical analysis of the costs of special education and general education in successful school districts, provided that the foundation amount shall be adjusted annually to reflect the percentage increase in the consumer price index as computed pursuant to section two thousand twenty-two of this chapter, provided that for the two thousand eight--two thousand nine school year, for the purpose of such adjustment, the percentage increase in the consumer price index shall be deemed to be two and nine-tenths percent (0.029), and provided further that the foundation amount for the two thousand seven--two thousand eight school year shall be five thousand two hundred fifty-eight dollars, and provided further that for the two thousand seven-two thousand eight through two thousand sixteen-two thousand seventeen school years, the foundation amount shall be further adjusted by the phase-in foundation percent established pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision.

(2) The regional cost index shall reflect an analysis of labor market costs based on median salaries in professional occupations that require similar credentials to those of positions in the education field, but not including those occupations in the education field, provided that the regional cost indices for the two thousand seven-two thousand eight school year and thereafter shall be as follows:

(3) The pupil need index shall equal the sum of one plus the extraordinary needs percent, provided, however, that the pupil need index shall not be less than one nor more than two. The extraordinary needs percent shall be calculated pursuant to paragraph w of subdivision one of this section.

(4) The expected minimum local contribution shall equal the lesser of (i) the product of (A) the quotient arrived at when the selected actual valuation is divided by total wealth foundation pupil units, multiplied by (B) the product of the local tax factor, multiplied by the income wealth index, or (ii) the product of (A) the product of the foundation amount, the regional cost index, and the pupil need index, multiplied by (B) the positive difference, if any, of one minus the state sharing ratio for total foundation aid. a. State aid adjustments. All errors or omissions in the apportionment shall be corrected by the commissioner. Whenever a school district has been apportioned less money than that to which it is entitled, the commissioner may allot to such district the balance to which it is enti-

that to which it is entitled, the commissioner may, by an order, direct such moneys to be paid back to the state to be credited to the general payments due to such school district and payable in the month of June in

(i) the school year in which such notification was received and (ii) the two succeeding school years, provided further that there shall be no interest penalty assessed against such district or collected by the fund balance at the close of the preceding school year less the product of the district's total general fund expenditures for the preceding school year multiplied by five percent, or (ii) one-third of such excess payments. The amount to be recovered in the second year shall equal the lesser of the remaining amount of such excess payments to be recovered or one-third of such excess payments, and the remaining amount of such excess payments shall be recovered in the third year. Provided further that, notwithstanding any other provisions of this subdivision, any pending payment of moneys due to such district as a prior year adjustment payable pursuant to paragraph c of this subdivision for aid claims that had been previously paid as current year aid payments in excess of the amount to which the district is entitled and for which recovery of excess payments is to be made pursuant to this paragraph, shall be reduced at the time of actual payment by any remaining unrecovered balance of such excess payments, and the remaining scheduled deductions of such excess payments pursuant to this paragraph shall be reduced by the commissioner to reflect the amount so recovered. [The commissioner shall certify no payment to a school district based on a claim submitted later than three years after the close of the school year in which such payment was first to be made. For claims for which payment is first to be made in the nineteen hundred ninety-six--ninety-seven school year, the commissioner shall certify no payment to a school district based on a claim submitted later than two years after the close of such school year.] For claims for which payment is first to be made [in the nineteen hundred ninety-seven--ninety-eight] prior to the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen school year [and thereafter], the commissioner shall certify no payment to a school district based on a claim submitted later than one year after the close of such school year. For claims for which payment is first to be made in the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen school year and thereafter, the commissioner shall certify no payment to a school district based on a claim submitted later than the first of November of such school year. Provided, however, no payments shall be barred or reduced where such payment is required as a result of a final audit of the state. grant a waiver from the provisions of this section for any school district if it is in the best educational interests of the district pursuant to guidelines developed by the commissioner and approved by the director of the budget.] Further provided that for any apportionments provided pursuant to sections seven hundred one, seven hundred eleven, seven hundred fifty-one, seven hundred fifty-three, nineteen hundred fifty, thirty-six hundred two, thirty-six hundred two-b, thirty-six hundred two-c, thirty-six hundred two-e and forty-four hundred five of this chapter for the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen and two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen school years, the commis-

PART G

Section 1. Subparagraph 4 of paragraph h of subdivision 2 of section 355 of the education law, as amended by section 1 of part D of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:
(4) The trustees shall not impose a differential tuition charge based upon need or income. Except as hereinafter provided, all students enrolled in programs leading to like degrees at state-operated institutions of the state university shall be charged a uniform rate of tuition except for differential tuition rates based on state residency. Provided, however, that the trustees may authorize the presidents of the colleges of technology and the colleges of agriculture and technology to set differing rates of tuition for each of the colleges for students enrolled in degree-granting programs leading to an associate degree and non-degree granting programs so long as such tuition rate does not exceed the tuition rate charged to students who are enrolled in like degree programs or degree-granting undergraduate programs leading to a baccalaureate degree at other state-operated institutions of the state university of New York. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subparagraph, the trustees may authorize the setting of a separate category of tuition rate, that shall be greater than the tuition rate for resident students and less than the tuition rate for non-resident students, only for students enrolled in distance learning courses who are not residents of the state. Except as otherwise authorized in this subparagraph, the trustees shall not adopt changes affecting tuition charges prior to the enactment of the annual budget, provided however that:

(i) Commencing with the two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve academic year and ending in the two thousand fifteen--two thousand sixteen academic year the state university of New York board of trustees shall be empowered to increase the resident undergraduate rate of tuition by not more than three hundred dollars over the resident undergraduate rate of tuition adopted by the board of trustees in the prior academic year, provided however that commencing with the two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve academic year [and each year thereafter] and ending in the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen academic year if the annual resident undergraduate rate of tuition would exceed five 1 thousand dollars, then a tuition credit for each eligible student, as determined and calculated by the New York state higher education services corporation pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a of this title, shall be applied toward the tuition charged for each semester, quarter or term of study. Tuition for each semester, quarter or term of study shall not be due for any student eligible to receive such tuition credit until the tuition credit is calculated and applied against the tuition charged for the corresponding semester, quarter or term.

(ii) Commencing with the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen academic year and ending in the two thousand twenty-one--two thousand ten academic year the state university of New York board of trustees shall be empowered to increase the resident undergraduate rate of tuition by not more than two hundred fifty dollars over the resident undergraduate rate of tuition adopted by the board of trustees in the prior academic year, provided, however that if the annual resident undergraduate rate of tuition would exceed five thousand dollars, then a tuition credit for each eligible student, as determined and calculated by the New York state higher education services corporation pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a of this title, shall be applied toward the tuition charged for each semester, quarter or term of study. Tuition for each semester, quarter or term of study shall not be due for any student eligible to receive such tuition credit until the tuition credit is calculated and applied against the tuition charged for the corresponding semester, quarter or term. Provided, further that the revenue resulting from an increase in the rate of tuition shall be allocated to each campus pursuant to a plan approved by the board of trustees to support investments in faculty, instruction, initiatives to improve student success and on-time completion and a tuition credit for each eligible student.

(iii) On or before November thirtieth, two thousand [eleven] seventeen, the trustees shall approve and submit to the chairs of the assembly ways and means committee and the senate finance committee and to the director of the budget a master tuition plan setting forth the tuition rates that the trustees propose for resident undergraduate students for the five year period commencing with the two thousand [eleven] seventeen--two thousand [twelve] eighteen academic year and ending in the two thousand [fifteen] twenty-one--two thousand [sixteen] twenty-two academic year, and shall submit any proposed amendments to such plan by November thirtieth of each subsequent year thereafter through November thirtieth, two thousand [fifteen] twenty-one, and provided further, that with the approval of the board of trustees, each university center may increase non-resident undergraduate tuition rates each year by not more than ten percent over the tuition rates of the prior academic year for a six year period commencing with the two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve academic year and ending in the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen academic year.

(iv) Beginning in state fiscal year two thousand twelve-twenty thousand thirteen and ending in state fiscal year two thousand fifteen-twenty sixteen, the state shall appropriate and make available general fund operating support, including fringe benefits, for the state university in an amount not less than the amount appropriated and made available in the prior state fiscal year; provided, however, that if the governor declares a fiscal emergency, and communicates such emergency to the temporary president of the senate and speaker of the assembly, state support for operating expenses at the state university and city university may be reduced in a manner proportionate to one another, and the aforementioned provisions shall not apply.

(iv) (v) For the state university fiscal years commencing two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve and ending two thousand fifteen--two thousand sixteen, each university center may set aside a portion of its tuition revenues derived from tuition increases to provide increased financial aid for New York state resident undergraduate students whose net taxable income is eighty thousand dollars or more subject to the approval of a NY-SUNY 2020 proposal by the governor and the chancellor of the state university of New York. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as to authorize that students whose net taxable income is eighty thousand dollars or more are eligible for tuition assistance program awards pursuant to section six hundred sixty-seven of this chapter.

§ 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 7 of section 6206 of the education law, as amended by section 2 of part D of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The board of trustees shall establish positions, departments, divisions and faculties; appoint and in accordance with the provisions of law fix salaries of instructional and non-instructional employees therein; establish and conduct courses and curricula; prescribe conditions of student admission, attendance and discharge; and shall have the power to determine in its discretion whether tuition shall be charged and to regulate tuition charges, and other instructional and non-instructional fees and other fees and charges at the educational units of the city university. The trustees shall review any proposed community college tuition increase and the justification for such increase. The justification provided by the community college for such increase shall include a detailed analysis of ongoing operating costs, capital, debt service expenditures, and all revenues. The trustees shall not impose a differential tuition charge based upon need or income. All students enrolled in programs leading to like degrees at the senior colleges shall be charged a uniform rate of tuition, except for differential tuition rates based on state residency. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, the trustees may authorize the setting of a separate category of tuition rate, that shall be greater than the tuition rate for resident students and less than the tuition rate for non-resident students, only for students enrolled in distance learning courses who are not residents of the state; provided, however, that:

(i) Commencing with the two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve academic year and ending in the two thousand fifteen--two thousand sixteen academic year, the city university of New York board of trustees shall be empowered to increase the resident undergraduate rate of tuition by not more than three hundred dollars over the resident undergraduate rate of tuition adopted by the board of trustees in the prior academic year, provided however that commencing with the two thousand eleven--two thousand twelve academic year and [each year thereafter] ending with the two thousand sixteen--two thousand seventeen academic year if the annual resident sixteen--two thousand seventeen academic year if the annual resident sixteen--two thousand seventeen academic year if the annual resident sixteen--two thousand seventeen academic year if the annual resident undergraduate rate of tuition would exceed five thousand dollars, then a tuition credit for each eligible student, as determined and calculated by the New York state higher education services corporation pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a of this chapter, shall be applied toward the tuition charged for each semester, quarter or term of study. Tuition for each semester, quarter or term of study shall not be due for any student eligible to receive such tuition credit until the tuition credit is calculated and applied against the tuition charged for the corresponding semester, quarter or term.

(ii) Commencing with the two thousand seventeen--two thousand eighteen academic year and ending in the two thousand twenty-one--two thousand twenty-two academic year the city university of New York board of trustees shall be empowered to increase the resident undergraduate rate of tuition by not more than two hundred fifty dollars over the resident undergraduate rate of tuition adopted by the board of trustees in the prior academic year, provided however that if the annual resident undergraduate rate of tuition would exceed five thousand dollars, then a tuition credit for each eligible student, as determined and calculated by the New York state higher education services corporation pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a of this title, shall be applied toward the tuition charged for each semester, quarter or term of study. Tuition for each semester, quarter or term of study shall not be due for any student eligible to receive such tuition credit until the tuition credit is calculated and applied against the tuition charged for the corresponding semester, quarter or term. Provided, further that the revenue resulting from an increase in the rate of tuition shall be allocated to each campus pursuant to a plan approved by the board of trustees to support investments in faculty, instruction, initiatives to improve student success and on-time completion and a tuition credit for each eligible student.

(iii) On or before November thirtieth, two thousand eleven, the trustees shall approve and submit to the chairs of the assembly ways and means committee and the senate finance committee and to the director of the budget a master tuition plan setting forth the tuition rates that the trustees propose for resident undergraduate students for the five year period commencing with the two thousand [eleven] seventeen--two thousand [twelve] eighteen academic year and ending in the two thousand [fifteen] twenty-one--two thousand [sixteen] twenty-two academic year, and shall submit any proposed amendments to such plan by November thirtieth of each subsequent year thereafter through November thirtieth, two thousand [fifteen] twenty-one.

[(iii)] (iv) Beginning in state fiscal year two thousand twelve--two thousand thirteen and ending in state fiscal year two thousand fifteen-two thousand sixteen, the state shall appropriate and make available state support for operating expenses, including fringe benefits, for the city university in an amount not less than the amount appropriated and made available in the prior state fiscal year; provided, however, that if the governor declares a fiscal emergency, and communicates such emergency to the temporary president of the senate and speaker of the assembly, state support for operating expenses of the state university and city university may be reduced in a manner proportionate to one another, and the aforementioned provisions shall not apply.

§ 3. Section 359 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:

6. The state university trustees shall annually report on how the revenue generated has been invested in faculty, instruction, initiatives

The court shall order any such juvenile to report within seven calendar days to the probation department for purposes of assessment. The juvenile may, at his or her discretion or at the discretion of their parent or other person legally responsible for the care of the juvenile, be accompanied by counsel during the

2. Any juvenile undergoing services shall execute appropriate and necessary consent forms, where applicable, to ensure that the probation department may communicate with any service provider and receive progress reports with respect to services offered and/or delivered including, but not limited to, diagnosis, treatment, prognosis, test results, juvenile attendance and information regarding juvenile compliance or noncompliance with program service requirements, if any.

3. Nothing shall preclude the probation department and juvenile from entering into a voluntary written/formal case plan as to terms and conditions to be met, including, but not limited to, reporting to the probation department and other probation department contacts, undergoing alcohol, substance abuse, or mental health testing, participating in specific services, adhering to service program requirements, and school attendance, where applicable. The youth part shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings in relation to juvenile offenders, except as provided in section 180.75 of this chapter.

§ 722.20 Proceedings in a youth part of the superior court.

1. When a juvenile offender is arraigned before a youth part, the provisions of this section shall apply. If the youth part is not in session, the defendant shall be brought before the most accessible magistrate designated by the appellate division of the supreme court to act as a youth part for the purpose of making a determination whether such juvenile shall be detained. If the defendant is ordered to be detained, he or she shall be brought before the next session of the youth part. If the defendant is not detained, he or she shall be ordered to appear at the next session of the youth part.
2. If the defendant waives a hearing upon the felony complaint, the court must order that the defendant be held for the action of the grand jury with respect to the charge or charges contained in the felony complaint.

3. If there be a hearing, then at the conclusion of the hearing, the court must dispose of the felony complaint as follows:

   (a) If there is a reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed a crime for which a person under the age of seventeen, or commencing January first, two thousand twenty, a person under the age of eighteen is criminally responsible, the court must order that the defendant be held for the action of a grand jury; or

   (b) If there is not reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed a crime for which a person under the age of seventeen, or commencing January first, two thousand twenty, a person under the age of eighteen is criminally responsible but there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant is a "juvenile delinquent" as defined in subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act, the court must specify the act or acts it found reasonable cause to believe the defendant did and direct that the action be removed to the family court in accordance with the provisions of article seven hundred twenty-five of this title; or

   (c) If there is not reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed any criminal act, the court must dismiss the felony complaint and discharge the defendant from custody if he or she is in custody, or if he or she is at liberty on bail, it must exonerate the bail.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision three of this section, a youth part shall, (a) with the consent of the district attorney, order removal of an action against a juvenile offender accused of robbery in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 160.10 of the penal law and a juvenile offender accused of committing a violent felony offense as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law at age sixteen, or after January first, two thousand twenty, at age sixteen or seventeen, for which a youth age fifteen or younger is not criminally responsible, to the family court pursuant to the provisions of article seven hundred twenty-five of this title if, after consideration of the factors set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court determines that to do so would be in the interests of justice. Provided, however, that the court shall find that such removal is not in the interests of justice if the youth played a primary role in commission of the crime or aggravating circumstances, including but not limited to the youth's use of a weapon, are present.

(b) at the request of the district attorney, order removal of an action against a juvenile offender, other than an action subject to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, to the family court pursuant to the provisions of article seven hundred twenty-five of this title if, upon consideration of the criteria set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, it is determined that to do so would be in the interests of justice. Where, however, the felony complaint charges the juvenile offender charged with murder in the second degree as defined in section 125.25 of the penal law; rape in the first degree, as defined in subdivision one of section 130.35 of the penal law; criminal sexual act in the first degree, as defined in subdivision one of section 130.50 of the penal law; course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 130.75 of the penal law; predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of the penal law where the underlying crime is rape in the first degree, as defined in subdivision one of section 130.35 of the penal law or criminal sexual act in the first degree, as defined in subdivision one of section 130.50 of the penal law; or an armed felony as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision forty-one of section 1.20 of this chapter, a determination that such action be removed to the family court shall, in addition, be based upon a finding of one or more of the following factors: (i) mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was committed; (ii) where the defendant was not the sole participant in the crime, the defendant's participation was relatively minor although not so minor as to constitute a defense to the prosecution; or (iii) possible deficiencies in the proof of the crime.

(c) In making its determination pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision the court shall, to the extent applicable, examine individually and collectively, the following:

(i) the seriousness and circumstances of the offense;

(ii) the extent of harm caused by the offense;

(iii) the evidence of guilt, whether admissible or inadmissible at trial;

(iv) the history, character and condition of the defendant;

(v) the purpose and effect of imposing upon the defendant a sentence authorized for the offense;

(vi) the impact of a removal of the case to the family court on the safety or welfare of the community;

(vii) the impact of a removal of the case to the family court upon the confidence of the public in the criminal justice system;

(viii) where the court deems it appropriate, the attitude of the complainant or victim with respect to the motion; and (ix) any other relevant fact indicating that a judgment of conviction in the criminal court would serve no useful purpose.

(d) For the purpose of making a determination whether to remove the case to family court pursuant to this subdivision, any evidence which is not legally privileged may be introduced. If the defendant testifies, his or her testimony may not be introduced against him or her in any future proceeding, except to impeach his or her testimony at such future proceeding as inconsistent prior testimony.

(e) This section shall not be construed to limit the powers of the grand jury.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two, three, or four of this section, if a currently undetermined felony complaint against a juvenile offender is pending in the youth part, and the defendant has not waived a hearing pursuant to subdivision two of this section and a hearing pursuant to subdivision three has not commenced, the defendant may move in the youth part, to remove the action to family court. The procedural rules of subdivisions one and two of section 210.45 of this chapter are applicable to a motion pursuant to this subdivision. Upon such motion, the superior court shall proceed and determine the motion as provided in section 210.43 of this chapter; provided, however, that the exception provisions of paragraph (b) of subdivision one of such section 210.43 shall not apply when there is not reasonable cause to believe that the juvenile offender committed one or more of the crimes enumerated in such paragraph, and in such event the provisions of paragraph (a) of such paragraph shall apply.

§ 2. The opening paragraph and subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 725.05

The only way in which a criminal action can be commenced in a superior court, other than a criminal action against a juvenile offender, is by the filing thereby with a grand jury of an indictment against a defendant who has never been held by a local criminal court for the action of such grand jury with respect to any charge contained in such indictment. Otherwise, a criminal action can be commenced only in a local criminal court, by the filing therewith of a local criminal court accusatory instrument, namely:

§ 6. The section heading and subdivision 5 of section 100.10 of the criminal procedure law are amended to read as follows:

Local criminal court and youth part of the superior court accusatory instruments; definitions thereof.

5. A "felony complaint" is a verified written accusation by a person, filed with a local criminal court, or youth part of the superior court, charging one or more other persons with the commission of one or more felonies. It serves as a basis for the commencement of a criminal action, but not as a basis for prosecution thereof.

§ 7. The section heading of section 100.40 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

Local criminal court and youth part of the superior court accusatory instruments; sufficiency on face.

§ 8. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 100.60 to read as follows:

§ 100.60 Youth part of the superior court accusatory instruments; in what courts filed.

Any youth part of the superior court accusatory instrument may be filed with the youth part of the superior court of a particular county when an offense charged therein was allegedly committed in such county or that part thereof over which such court has jurisdiction.

§ 9. The article heading of article 110 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

in general.

1. After a criminal action has been commenced in a local criminal court or youth part of the superior court by the filing of an accusatory instrument therewith, a defendant who has not been arraigned in the action and has not come under the control of the court may under certain circumstances be compelled or required to appear for arraignment upon such accusatory instrument by:

(a) The issuance and execution of a warrant of arrest, as provided in article one hundred twenty; or

(b) The issuance and service upon him of a summons, as provided in article one hundred thirty; or

(c) Procedures provided in articles five hundred sixty, five hundred seventy, five hundred eighty, five hundred ninety and six hundred for securing attendance of defendants in criminal actions who are not at liberty within the state.

2. Although no criminal action against a person has been commenced in any court, he may under certain circumstances be compelled or required to appear in a local criminal court or youth part of a superior court for arraignment upon an accusatory instrument to be filed therewith at or before the time of his appearance by:
(a) An arrest made without a warrant, as provided in article one hundred forty; or

§ 11. Section 110.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 843 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:

§ 110.20 Local criminal court or youth part of the superior court accusatory instruments; notice thereof to district attorney.

When a criminal action in which a crime is charged is commenced in a local criminal court, or youth part of the superior court other than the criminal court of the city of New York, a copy of the accusatory instrument shall be promptly transmitted to the appropriate district attorney upon or prior to the arraignment of the defendant on the accusatory instrument. If a police officer or a peace officer is the complainant or the filer of a simplified information, or has arrested the defendant or brought him before the local criminal court or youth part of the superior court on behalf of an arresting person pursuant to subdivision one of section 140.20, such officer or his agency shall transmit the copy of the accusatory instrument to the appropriate district attorney. 14 purpose of obtaining a warrant of arrest are determined, generally, by 15 the provisions of section 100.55 or 100.60 of this title. If, however, a 16 particular accusatory instrument may pursuant to said section 100.55 be 17 filed with a particular town court and such town court is not available 18 at the time such instrument is sought to be filed and a warrant 19 obtained, such accusatory instrument may be filed with the town court of 20 any adjoining town of the same county. If such instrument may be filed 21 pursuant to said section 100.55 with a particular village court and such 22 village court is not available at the time, it may be filed with the 23 town court of the town embracing such village, or if such town court is

§ 16. Subdivisions 1 and 6 of section 120.90 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 492 of the laws of 2016, section 6 as amended by chapter 424 of the laws of 1998, are amended and a new subdivision 5-a is added to read as follows:

1. Upon arresting a defendant for any offense pursuant to a warrant of arrest in the county in which the warrant is returnable or in any adjoining county, or upon so arresting him or her for a felony in any other county, a police officer, if he or she be one to whom the warrant is addressed, must without unnecessary delay bring the defendant before the local criminal court or youth part of the superior court in which such warrant is returnable, provided that, where a local criminal court or youth part of the superior court in the county in which the warrant is returnable hereunder is operating an off-hours arraignment part local criminal court or youth part of the superior court.

5-a. Whenever a police officer is required, pursuant to this section, to bring an arrested defendant before a youth part of a superior court in which a warrant of arrest is returnable, and if such court is not available at the time, such officer must bring such defendant before the most accessible magistrate designated by the appellate division of the supreme court in the applicable department to act as a youth part.

6. Before bringing a defendant arrested pursuant to a warrant before the local criminal court or youth part of a superior court in which such warrant is returnable, a police officer must without unnecessary delay perform all fingerprinting and other preliminary police duties required in the particular case. In any case in which the defendant is not brought by a police officer before such court but, following his arrest in another county for an offense specified in subdivision one of section 160.10, is released by a local criminal court of such other county on his own recognizance or on bail for his appearance on a specified date before the local criminal court before which the warrant is returnable, the latter court must, upon arraignment of the defendant before it, direct that he be fingerprinted by the appropriate officer or agency, and that he appear at an appropriate designated time and place for such purpose.

§ 17. Subdivision 1 of section 130.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 446 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

The sole function of a summons is to achieve a defendant's court appearance in a criminal action for the purpose of arraignment upon the accusatory instrument by which such action was commenced.

§ 18. Section 130.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 506 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

§ 130.30 Summons; when issuable.

A local criminal court or youth part of the superior court may issue a summons in any case in which, pursuant to section 120.20, it is authorized to issue a warrant of arrest based upon an information, a prosecutor's information, a felony complaint or a misdemeanor complaint. If such information, prosecutor's information, felony complaint or misdemeanor complaint is not sufficient on its face as prescribed in section 100.40, and if the court is satisfied that on the basis of the available facts or evidence it would be impossible to draw and file an authorized accusatory instrument that is sufficient on its face, the court must dismiss the accusatory instrument. A superior court may issue a summons in any case in which, pursuant to section 210.10, it is authorized to issue a warrant of arrest based upon an indictment.

If the officer determines that it is necessary to question a juvenile offender or a child under eighteen years of age who fits within the definition of a juvenile offender as defined in section 30.00 of the penal law, the officer must take the juvenile to a facility designated by the chief administrator of the courts as a suitable place for the questioning of children or, upon the consent of a parent or other person legally responsible for the care of the juvenile, to the juvenile's residence and there question him or her for a reasonable period of time. A juveif present, have been advised:

(a) of the juvenile's right to remain silent;

and photographed as therein provided. In order to execute the required post-arrest functions, such arresting peace officer may perform such functions himself or he may enlist the aid of a police officer for the performance thereof in the manner provided in subdivision one of section 140.20.

§ 22. Section 140.27 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3-a to read as follows:

3-a. If the arrest is for a person under the age of seventeen or, commencing January first, two thousand twenty, a person under the age of that it is necessary to question a juvenile offender or a child under eighteen years of age who fits within the definition of a juvenile offender as defined in section 30.00 of the penal law the officer must take the juvenile to a facility designated by the chief administrator of the courts as a suitable place for the questioning of children or, upon the consent of a parent or other person legally responsible for the care of the juvenile, to the juvenile's residence and there question him or her for a reasonable period of time. A juvenile shall not be questioned pursuant to this section unless the juvenile and a person required to be notified pursuant to this subdivision, if present, have been advised:

(a) of the juvenile's right to remain silent;
(b) that the statements made by the juvenile may be used in a court of law;
(c) of the juvenile's right to have an attorney present at such questioning; and
(d) of the juvenile's right to have an attorney provided for him or her without charge if he or she is indigent.

In determining the suitability of questioning and determining the reasonable period of time for questioning such a juvenile offender, the juvenile's age, the presence or absence of his or her parents or other persons legally responsible for his or her care and notification pursuant to this subdivision shall be included among relevant considerations.

§ 24. Subdivision 5 of section 140.40 of the criminal procedure law, penal law the officer must take the juvenile to a facility designated by the chief administrator of the courts as a suitable place for the questioning of children or, upon the consent of a parent or other person legally responsible for the care of the juvenile, to the juvenile's residence and there question him or her for a reasonable period of time.

A juvenile shall not be questioned pursuant to this section unless the juvenile and a person required to be notified pursuant to this subdivision, if present, have been advised:

(a) of the juvenile's right to remain silent;
(b) that the statements made by the juvenile may be used in a court of law;
(c) of the juvenile's right to have an attorney present at such questioning; and
(d) of the juvenile's right to have an attorney provided for him or her without charge if he or she is indigent.

(iii) Where the indictment does not charge a crime specified in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the district attorney may recommend removal of the action to the family court. Upon making such recommendation the district attorney shall submit a subscribed memorandum setting forth: (1) a recommendation that the interests of justice would best be served by removal of the action to the family court; and (2) if the indictment charges a thirteen year old with the crime of murder in the second degree, or a fourteen [or], fifteen or sixteen year old, or commencing January first, two thousand twenty, seventeen year old with the crimes of rape in the first degree as defined in subdivision one of section 130.35 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in subdivision one of section 130.50 of the penal law, or an armed felony as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision forty-one of section 1.20 of this chapter specific factors, one or more of which reasonably supports the recommendation, showing, (i) mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was committed, or (ii) where the defendant was not the sole participant in the crime, that the defendant's participation was relatively minor although not so minor as to constitute a defense to the prosecution, or (iii) possible deficiencies in proof of the crime, or (iv) where the juvenile offender has no previous adjudications of having committed a designated felony act, as defined in subdivision eight of section 301.2 of the family court act, regardless of the age of the offender at the time of commission of the act, that the criminal act was not part of a pattern of criminal behavior and, in view of the history of the offender, is not likely to be repeated.

§ 32. Subdivision 2 of section 410.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 652 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

2. Warrant. (a) Where the probation officer has requested that a probation warrant be issued, the court shall, within seventy-two hours of its receipt of the request, issue or deny the warrant or take any other lawful action including issuance of a notice to appear pursuant to subdivision one of this section. If at any time during the period of a sentence of probation or of conditional discharge the court has reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant has violated a condition of the sentence, the court may issue a warrant to a police officer or to an appropriate peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay; provided, however, if the court in which the warrant is returnable is a superior court, and such court is not available, and the warrant is addressed to a police officer or appropriate probation officer certified as a peace officer, such executing officer may unless otherwise specified under paragraph (b) of this subdivision, bring the defendant to the local correctional facility of the county in which such court sits, to be detained there until not later than the commencement of the next session of such court occurring on the next business day; or if the court in which the warrant is returnable is a local criminal court, and such court is not available, and the warrant is addressed to a police officer or appropriate probation officer certified as a peace officer, such executing officer must without unnecessary delay bring the defendant before an alternate local criminal court, as provided in subdivision five of section 120.90 of this chapter. A court which issues such a warrant may attach thereto a summary of the basis for the warrant. In any case where a defendant arrested upon the warrant is brought before a local criminal court other than the court in which the warrant is returnable, such local criminal court shall consider such summary before issuing a securing order with respect to the defendant.

(b) If the court in which the warrant is returnable is a superior court, and such court is not available, and the warrant is addressed to a police officer or appropriate probation officer certified as a peace officer, such executing officer shall, where a defendant is sixteen years of age or younger who allegedly commits an offense or a violation of his or her probation or conditional discharge imposed for an offense on or after January first, two thousand nineteen, or where a defendant is seventeen years of age or younger who allegedly commits an offense or a violation of his or her probation or conditional discharge imposed for an offense on or after January first, two thousand twenty, bring the defendant to a juvenile detention facility, to be detained there until not later than the commencement of the next session of such court occurring on the next business day.

§ 410.60 Appearance before court.

(a) A person who has been taken into custody pursuant to section 410.40 or [section] 410.50 of this article for violation of a condition of a sentence of probation or a sentence of conditional discharge must forthwith be brought before the court that imposed the sentence. Where a violation of probation petition and report has been filed and the person has not been taken into custody nor has a warrant been issued, an initial court appearance shall occur within ten business days of the court's issuance of a notice to appear. If the court has reasonable cause to believe that such person has violated a condition of the sentence, it may commit him or her to the custody of the sheriff or fix bail or release such person on his or her own recognizance for future appearance at a hearing to be held in accordance with section 410.70 of this article. If the court does not have reasonable cause to believe that such person has violated a condition of the sentence, it must direct that he or she be released.

(b) A juvenile offender who has been taken into custody pursuant to section 410.40 or 410.50 of this article for violation of a condition of a sentence of probation or a sentence of conditional discharge must forthwith be brought before the court that imposed the sentence. Where a violation of probation petition and report has been filed and the person has not been taken into custody nor has a warrant been issued, an initial court appearance shall occur within ten business days of the
cause to believe that such person has violated a condition of the
appearance at a hearing to be held in accordance with section 410.70 of this article. Provided, however, nothing herein shall authorize a juvenile to be detained for a violation of a condition that would not constitute a crime if committed by an adult unless the court determines (i) that the juvenile poses a specific imminent threat to public safety and states the reasons for the finding on the record or (ii) the juvenile is on probation for an act that would constitute a violent felony as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law if committed by an adult and the use of graduated sanctions has been exhausted without success.

If the court does not have reasonable cause to believe that such person has violated a condition of the sentence, it must direct that the juvenile be released.

as amended by chapter 17 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

5. Revocation; modification; continuation. (a) At the conclusion of the hearing the court may revoke, continue or modify the sentence of probation or conditional discharge. Where the court revokes the sentence, it must impose sentence as specified in subdivisions three and four of section 60.01 of the penal law. Where the court continues or modifies the sentence, it must vacate the declaration of delinquency and direct that the defendant be released. If the alleged violation is sustained and the court continues or modifies the sentence, it may extend the sentence up to the period of interruption specified in subdivision two of section 65.15 of the penal law, but any time spent in custody in any correctional institution or juvenile detention facility pursuant to section 410.40 or 410.60 of this article shall be credited against the term of the sentence. Provided further, where the alleged violation is sustained and the court continues or modifies the sentence, the court may also extend the remaining period of probation up to the maximum term authorized by section 65.00 of the penal law. Provided, however, a defendant shall receive credit for the time during which he or she was supervised under the original probation sentence prior to any declaration of delinquency and for any time spent in custody pursuant to this article for an alleged violation of probation.
(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, nothing in this section shall authorize the placement of a juvenile for a violation of a condition that would not constitute a crime if committed by an adult unless the court determines (i) that the juvenile poses a specific imminent threat to public safety and states the reasons for the finding on the record or (ii) the juvenile is on probation for an act that would constitute a violent felony as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law if committed by an adult and the use of graduated sanctions has been exhausted without success.

§ 35. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 410.90-a to read as follows:

the custody of the sheriff the court must direct that the principal be taken to and lodged in a place certified by the [state division for youth] office of children and family services as a juvenile detention facility for the reception of children. Where such a direction is made the sheriff shall deliver the principal in accordance therewith and such person shall although lodged and cared for in a juvenile detention facility continue to be deemed to be in the custody of the sheriff. No principal under the age [of sixteen] specified to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be detained in any prison, jail, lockup, or other place used for adults convicted of a crime or under arrest and charged with the commission of a crime without the approval of the [state division for youth] office of children and family services in the case of each principal and the statement of its reasons therefor. The sheriff shall not be liable for any acts done to or by such principal resulting from negligence in the detention of and care for such principal, when the principal is not in the actual custody of the sheriff.

section [and the minimum period of imprisonment shall be as provided in subdivision three of this section]. Except as provided herein, a sentence of imprisonment for any other felony committed by a juvenile offender shall be a determinate sentence. When such a sentence is imposed, the court shall impose a term of imprisonment in whole or half years in accordance with the provisions of subdivision three of this section and a period of post-release supervision in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two-b of section 70.45 of this article. (iii) For a class B violent felony as defined by section 70.02 of this article, where the defendant was fourteen or fifteen years old at the time of such offense the determinate term shall be fixed by the court, and shall be at least one year but shall not exceed seven years;

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subdivision, where the court commits a defendant who is not yet eighteen years of age to the custody of the department of corrections and community supervision in accordance with this section and no medical consent has been obtained prior to said commitment, the commitment order shall be deemed to grant the capacity to consent to routine medical, dental and mental health services and treatment to the person so committed.

(d) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a parent or legal guardian of an inmate who is not yet eighteen years of age from making a motion on notice to the department of corrections and community supervision pursuant to article twenty-two of the civil practice law and rules and section one hundred forty of the correction law, objecting to routine medical, dental or mental health services and treatment being provided to such inmate under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

from the parent or legal guardian, where no consent is necessary or where the defendant is authorized by law to consent on his or her own

Placement of any person who may not be confined to a county jail pursuant to this subdivision shall be determined by the office of children and family services.

§ 48. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 160.59 to read as follows:

§ 160.59 Sealing of certain convictions.

1. Definitions: As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
(a) "Eligible offense" shall mean any crime defined in the laws of this state other than a sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, an offense defined in article two hundred sixty-three of the penal law, a felony offense defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the penal law, a violent felony offense defined in section 70.02 of the penal law, a class A felony offense defined in the penal law, a felony offense defined in article one hundred five of the penal law where the underlying offense is not an eligible offense, an attempt to commit an offense that is not an eligible offense if the attempt is a felony, or an offense for which registration as a sex offender is required pursuant to article six-C of the correction law.

(b) "Sentencing judge" shall mean the judge who pronounced sentence upon the conviction under consideration, or if that judge is no longer sitting in a court in the jurisdiction in which the conviction was obtained, any other judge who is sitting in the criminal court where the judgment of conviction was entered.

2. (a) A defendant who has been convicted of up to two eligible offenses but not more than one felony offense may apply to the court in which he or she was convicted of the most serious offense to have such conviction sealed. If all offenses are offenses with the same classification, the application shall be made to the court in which the defendant was last convicted.

(b) An application shall contain (i) a copy of a certificate of disposition or other similar documentation for any offense for which the defendant has been convicted, or an explanation of why such certificate or other documentation is not available; (ii) a sworn statement of the defendant as to whether he or she has filed, or then intends to file, any application for sealing of any other eligible offense; (iii) a copy of any other such application that has been filed; (iv) a sworn statement as to the conviction or convictions for which relief is being sought; and (v) a sworn statement of the reason or reasons why the court should, in its discretion, grant such sealing, along with any supporting documentation.

(c) A copy of any application for such sealing shall be served upon the district attorney of the county in which the conviction, or, if more than one, the convictions, was or were obtained. The district attorney shall notify the court within forty-five days if he or she objects to the application for sealing.

(d) When such application is filed with the court, it shall be assigned to the sentencing judge unless more than one application is filed in which case the application shall be assigned to the county court or the supreme court of the county in which the criminal court is located, who shall request and receive from the division of criminal justice services a fingerprint based criminal history record of the defendant, including any sealed or suppressed records. The division of criminal justice services also shall include a criminal history report, if any, from the federal bureau of investigation regarding any criminal history information that occurred in other jurisdictions. The division is hereby authorized to receive such information from the federal bureau of investigation for this purpose, and to make such information available to the district attorney and the defendant.

3. The sentencing judge, or county or supreme court shall summarily deny the defendant's application when:

(a) the defendant is required to register as a sex offender pursuant to article six-c of the correction law; or
(b) the defendant has previously obtained sealing of the maximum number of convictions allowable under section 160.58 of the criminal procedure law; or

(c) the defendant has previously obtained sealing of the maximum number of convictions allowable under subdivision four of this section; or

(d) the time period specified in subdivision five of this section has not yet been satisfied; or

(e) the defendant has an undisposed arrest or charge pending; or

(f) the defendant was convicted of any crime after the date of the entry of judgment of the last conviction for which sealing is sought; or

(g) the defendant has failed to provide the court with the required sworn statement of the reasons why the court should grant the relief requested; or

(h) the defendant has been convicted of two or more felonies or more than two crimes.

4. Provided that the application is not summarily denied for the reasons set forth in subdivision three of this section, a defendant who stands convicted of up to two eligible offenses, may obtain sealing of no more than two eligible offenses but not more than one felony offense.

5. Any eligible offense may be sealed only after at least ten years have passed since the imposition of the sentence on the defendant's latest conviction or, if the defendant was sentenced to a period of incarceration, including a period of incarceration imposed in conjunction with a sentence of probation, the defendant's latest release from incarceration. In calculating the ten year period under this subdivision, any period of time the defendant spent incarcerated after the conviction for which the application for sealing is sought, shall be excluded and such ten year period shall be extended by a period or periods equal to the time served under such incarceration.

6. Upon determining that the application is not subject to mandatory denial pursuant to subdivision three of this section and that the application is opposed by the district attorney, the sentencing judge or county or supreme court shall conduct a hearing on the application in order to consider any evidence offered by either party that would aid the sentencing judge in his or her decision whether to seal the records of the defendant's convictions. No hearing is required if the district attorney does not oppose the application, however the court may hold a hearing at its discretion.

7. In considering any such application, the sentencing judge or county or supreme court shall consider any relevant factors, including but not limited to:

(a) the amount of time that has elapsed since the defendant's last conviction;

(b) the circumstances and seriousness of the offense for which the defendant is seeking relief, including whether the arrest charge was not an eligible offense;

(c) the circumstances and seriousness of any other offenses for which the defendant stands convicted;

(d) the character of the defendant, including any measures that the defendant has taken toward rehabilitation, such as participating in treatment programs, work, or schooling, and participating in community service or other volunteer programs;

(e) any statements made by the victim of the offense for which the defendant is seeking relief;
(f) the impact of sealing the defendant's record upon his or her rehabilitation and upon his or her successful and productive reentry and reintegration into society; and

(g) the impact of sealing the defendant's record on public safety and upon the public's confidence in and respect for the law.

8. When a sentencing judge or county or supreme court orders sealing pursuant to this section, all official records and papers relating to the arrests, prosecutions, and convictions, including all duplicates and copies thereof, on file with the division of criminal justice services or any court shall be sealed and not made available to any person or public or private agency except as provided for in subdivision nine of this section; provided, however, the division shall retain any fingerprints, palmprints and photographs, or digital images of the same. The clerk of such court shall immediately notify the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services regarding the records that shall be sealed pursuant to this section. The clerk also shall notify any court in which the defendant has stated, pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section, that he or she has filed or intends to file an application for sealing of any other eligible offense.

9. Records sealed pursuant to this section shall be made available to:

(a) the defendant or the defendant's designated agent;

(b) qualified agencies, as defined in subdivision nine of section eight hundred thirty-five of the executive law, and federal and state law enforcement agencies, when acting within the scope of their law enforcement duties; or issuance of licenses to possess guns, when the person has made application for such a license; or

(e) the criminal justice information services division of the federal bureau of investigation, for the purposes of responding to queries to the national instant criminal background check system regarding attempts to purchase or otherwise take possession of firearms, as defined in 18 USC 921 (a) (3).

10. A conviction which is sealed pursuant to this section is included within the definition of a conviction for the purposes of any criminal proceeding in which the fact of a prior conviction would enhance a penalty or is an element of the offense charged.

11. No defendant shall be required or permitted to waive eligibility for sealing pursuant to this section as part of a plea of guilty, sentence or any agreement related to a conviction for an eligible offense and any such waiver shall be deemed void and wholly enforceable.

(b) Where the conviction is had in a local criminal court and the eligible youth had not prior to commencement of trial or entry of a plea of guilty been convicted of a crime or found a youthful offender, the court must find he is a youthful offender[.]; and

(c) There shall be a presumption to grant youthful offender status to an eligible youth who has not previously been convicted and sentenced for a felony, unless the district attorney upon motion with not less than seven days' notice to such person or his or her attorney demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that the interests of justice requires otherwise.

(a) such events appear to involve only allegations that the child committed acts that would constitute no more than a violation if committed by an adult; or

(b) such events appear to involve only allegations that the child committed acts that would constitute more than a violation but no more than a misdemeanor if committed by an adult.
(i) the alleged acts did not result in any physical injury to another person;

(ii) the child does not have any prior adjudications for an act that would constitute a felony if committed by an adult;

(iii) the child has no more than one prior adjudication for an act that would constitute a misdemeanor if committed by an adult and that act also did not result in any physical injury as defined in subdivision nine of section 10.00 of the penal law to another person; and

(iv) the child was assessed at a low risk on the applicable detention risk assessment instrument approved by the office of children and family services unless the agency determines that detention is necessary because the respondent otherwise poses an imminent risk to public safety and states the reasons for such determination in the child's record.

4. If the agency for any reason does not release a child under this section, such child shall be brought before the appropriate family court, or when such family court is not in session, to the most accessible magistrate, if any, designated by the appellate division of the supreme court in the applicable department; provided, however, that if such family court is not in session and if a magistrate is not available, such youth shall be brought before such family court within seventy-two hours or the next day the court is in session, whichever is sooner. Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the adjustment of suitable cases pursuant to section 308.1.

§ 66. The section heading and subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 9, 12 and 13 of section 308.1 of the family court act, the section heading and subdivisubdivision 2 as amended by section 3 of part V of chapter 55 of the laws of 2012, are amended to read as follows:

[Rules of court for preliminary] Preliminary procedure; adjustment of cases. 1. [Rules of court shall authorize and determine the circumcstances under which the] The probation service may confer with any person seeking to have a juvenile delinquency petition filed, the potential respondent and other interested persons concerning the advisability of requesting that a petition be filed in accordance with this section.

2. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions three [and], four, and thirteen of this section, the probation service may[, in accordance with rules of court,] attempt to adjust [suitable cases] a case before a petition is filed if the probation service determines that the case is suitable for adjustment based on the assessed level of risk that the child will commit another act that would constitute a crime as determined by a validated risk assessment instrument and the extent of any physical injury to the victim.

(b) If a child is assessed at a low level of risk and the events in the case appear to involve only allegations that the child committed acts that would constitute a violation or a misdemeanor if committed by an adult, the probation service must diligently attempt to adjust the case. Such attempts may include the use of a juvenile review board comprised of appropriate community members to work with the child and his or her family on developing recommended adjustment activities. The probation service may stop attempting to adjust such a case if it determines that there is no substantial likelihood that the child will benefit from attempts at adjustment in the time remaining for adjustment or the time for adjustment has expired.
(c) The inability of the respondent or his or her family to make restitution shall not be a factor in a decision to adjust a case or in a recommendation to the presentment agency pursuant to subdivision six of this section.

(d) The probation service may make an application to the court for a temporary order of protection as part of the adjustment of a case in accordance with section 304.2 of this part.

(e) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the probation service or the court from directing a respondent to obtain employment and to make restitution from the earnings from such employment. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the probation service or the court from directing an eligible person to complete an education reform program in accordance with section four hundred fifty-eight-l of the social services law.

3. The probation service shall not attempt to adjust a case that commenced in family court in which the child has allegedly committed a designated felony act that involves allegations that the child caused physical injury to a person unless [it] the probation service has received the written approval of the court.

9. Efforts at adjustment [pursuant to rules of court] under this section may not extend for a period of more than two months [without], or, for a period of more than four months if the probation service determines that adjustment beyond the first two months is warranted because documented barriers to adjustment exist or changes need to be made to the child's services plan, except upon leave of the court, which may extend the adjustment period for an additional two months.

12. The probation service shall certify to the division of criminal justice services and to the appropriate police department or law enforcement agency whenever it adjusts a case in which the potential respondent's fingerprints were taken pursuant to section 306.1 of this part in any manner other than the filing of a petition for juvenile delinquency for an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony, provided, however, in the case of a child [eleven or] twelve years of age, such certification shall be made only if the act would constitute a class A or B felony, or, in the case of a child eleven years of age, such certification shall be made only if the act would constitute a class A-1 felony.

13. The [provisions of this section] probation service shall not [apply] attempt to adjust a case where the petition is an order of removal to the family court pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of the criminal procedure law unless it has received the written approval of the court.

§ 67. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 3 of section 311.1 of the family court act, as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

(c) the fact that the respondent is a person [under sixteen years of] of the necessary age to be a juvenile delinquent at the time of the alleged act or acts;

(a-1) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the court shall not direct detention if:

(i) the events underlying the initial appearance appear to involve only allegations that the child committed acts that would constitute no more than a violation if committed by an adult; or such events appear to involve only allegations that the child committed acts that would constitute more than a violation but no more than a misdemeanor if committed by an adult if:

(1) the alleged acts did not result in any physical injury as defined in subdivision nine of section 10.00 of the penal law to another person;

(2) the respondent does not have any prior adjudications for an act that would constitute a felony if committed by an adult;

(3) the respondent has no more than one prior adjudication for an act that would constitute a misdemeanor if committed by an adult and that act did not result in any physical harm to another person; and

(4) the respondent was assessed at a low risk on the applicable detention risk assessment instrument approved by the office of children and family services unless the court determines that detention is necessary because the respondent otherwise poses an imminent risk to public safety and states the reasons for such determination in the court order.

§ 69. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 5 of section 322.2 of the family court act, paragraph (a) as amended by chapter 37 of the laws of 2016 and paragraph (b) as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, are amended to read as follows:

(a) If the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that the respondent committed a felony, it shall order the respondent committed to the custody of the commissioner of mental health or the commissioner of the office for persons with developmental disabilities for an initial period not to exceed one year from the date of such order. Such period may be extended annually upon further application to the court by the commissioner having custody or his or her designee. Such application must be made not more than sixty days prior to the expiration of such period on forms that have been prescribed by the chief administrator of the courts. At that time, the commissioner must give written notice of the application to the respondent, the counsel representing the respondent and the mental hygiene legal service if the respondent is at a residential facility. Upon receipt of such application, the court must conduct a hearing to determine the issue of capacity. If, at the conclusion of a hearing conducted pursuant to this subdivision, the court finds that the respondent is no longer incapacitated, he or she shall be returned to the family court for further proceedings pursuant to this article. If the court is satisfied that the respondent continues to be incapacitated, the court shall authorize continued custody of the respondent by the commissioner for a period not to exceed one year. Such extensions shall not continue beyond a reasonable period of time necessary to determine whether the respondent will attain the capacity to proceed to a fact finding hearing in the foreseeable future but in no event shall continue beyond the respondent's eighteenth birthday or, if the respondent was at least sixteen years of age when the act was committed, beyond the respondent's twenty-first birthday.

(b) If a respondent is in the custody of the commissioner upon the respondent's eighteenth birthday, or if the respondent was at least sixteen years of age when the act resulting in the respondent's placement was committed, beyond the respondent's twenty-first birthday, the commissioner shall notify the clerk of the court that the respondent was in his custody on such date and the court shall dismiss the petition.

§ 70. Subdivisions 1 and 5 of section 325.1 of the family court act, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 398 of the laws of 1983, subdivision 5 as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, are amended to read as follows:
1. At the initial appearance, if the respondent denies a charge contained in the petition and the court determines in accordance with the requirements of section 320.5 of this part that [he] the respondent shall be detained for more than three days pending a fact-finding hearing, the court shall schedule a probable-cause hearing to determine the issues specified in section 325.3 of this part.

5. Where the petition consists of an order of removal pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of the criminal procedure law, unless the removal was pursuant to subdivision three of section 725.05 of such law and the respondent was not afforded a probable cause hearing pursuant to subdivision three of section [180.75] 722.20 of such law [for a reason other than his waiver thereof pursuant to subdivision two of section 180.75 of such law], the petition shall be deemed to be based upon a determination that probable cause exists to believe the respondent is a juvenile delinquent and the respondent shall not be entitled to any further inquiry on the subject of whether probable cause exists. After the filing of any such petition the court must, however, exercise independent, de novo discretion with respect to release or detention as set forth in section 320.5 of this part.

§ 71. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 352.2 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 880 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

(a) In determining an appropriate order the court shall consider the needs and best interests of the respondent as well as the need for protection of the community. If the respondent has committed a designated felony act the court shall determine the appropriate disposition in [accord] accordance with section 353.5 of this part. In all other cases the court shall order the least restrictive available alternative enumerated in subdivision one of this section which is consistent with the needs and best interests of the respondent and the need for protection of the community; provided, however, that the court shall not direct the placement of a respondent with a commissioner of social services or the office of children and family services if:
(i) the respondent only committed acts that would constitute no more than a violation if committed by an adult; or (ii) the respondent only committed acts that would constitute more than a violation but no more than a misdemeanor if committed by an adult if:
(1) the acts did not result in any physical injury as defined in subdivision nine of section 10.00 of the penal law to another person;
(2) the respondent does not have any prior adjudications for an act
that would constitute a felony if committed by an adult;
(3) the respondent has no more than one prior adjudication for an act
act did not result in any physical harm to another person; and
(4) the respondent was assessed at a low risk on the applicable pre-dispositional risk assessment instrument approved by the office of children and family services unless the court determines that such a placement is necessary because the respondent otherwise poses an imminent risk to public safety and states the reasons for such determination in the court order.

§ 72. The opening paragraph of subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) and paragraph (d) of subdivision 4 of section 353.5 of the family court act, as amended by section 6 of subpart A of part G of chapter 57 of the laws of 2012, are amended to read as follows:

§ 73. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 4 of section 353.5 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 398 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

(d) Upon the expiration of the initial period of placement, or any extension thereof, the placement may be extended in accordance with section 355.3 on a petition of any party or the [division for youth] office of children and family services after a dispositional hearing, for an additional period not to exceed twelve months, but no initial placement or extension of placement under this section may continue beyond the respondent's twenty-first birthday, or, for an act that was committed when the respondent was sixteen years of age or older, the respondent's twenty-third birthday.

§ 74. Subdivisions 1, 2, 6 and 7 of section 354.1 of the family court act, subdivision 1 as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, subdivicase of a person twelve years of age, such notification shall be provided only if the act upon which the adjudication is based would sentence and the office determines, in its discretion, on a case-by-case basis that the youth should be permitted to remain with the office for the additional short period of time necessary to enable them to complete their sentence. In making such a determination, the factors the office may consider include, but are not limited to, the age of the youth, the amount of time remaining on the youth's sentence of imprisonment, the level of the youth's participation in the program, the youth's educational and vocational progress, the opportunities available to the youth through the office and through the department, and the length of the youth's post-release supervision sentence. pursuant to a commitment to the [director of the division for youth] office of children and family services, the officer so delivering such

(iii) where appropriate, whether reasonable efforts were made prior to the date of the court hearing that resulted in the detention order, to

(v) determine whether alternatives to detention are appropriate to avoid remand of the youth to detention including whether the youth and his or her family should be referred to an available family support center; and

[(v)] (vi) determine whether an assessment of the youth for substance use disorder by an office of alcoholism and substance abuse services certified provider is necessary when a person seeking to file a petition alleges in such petition that the youth is suffering from a substance use disorder which could make the youth a danger to himself or herself or others. Provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the designated lead agency shall not be required to pay for all or any portion of the costs of such assessment or for any substance use disorder or detoxification services, except in cases where medical assistance for needy persons may be used to pay for all or any portion of the costs of such assessment or services. The office of alcoholism and substance abuse services shall make a list of its certified providers available to the designated lead agency.

(i) providing, at the first contact, information on the availability of or a referral to services in the geographic area where the youth and his or her family are located that may be of benefit in avoiding the need to file a petition under this article; including the availability, for up to twenty-one days, of a residential respite program, if the youth and his or her parent or other person legally responsible for his or her care agree, and the availability of other non-residential crisis intervention programs such as a family support center, family crisis counseling or alternative dispute resolution programs or an educational program as defined in section four hundred fifty-eight-l of the social services law.

(f) Efforts to prevent the filing of a petition pursuant to this section may extend until the designated lead agency determines that there is no substantial likelihood that the youth and his or her family will benefit from further attempts. Efforts at diversion pursuant to this section may continue after the filing of a petition where the designated lead agency determines that the youth and his or her family will benefit from further attempts to prevent placement of the youth [from entering foster care] in accordance with section seven hundred fifty-six of this article.

§ 90. Section 739 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, subdivision (a) as amended by section 10 of part G of chapter 58 of the laws of 2010, subdivision (c) as added by chapter 145 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

§ 739. Release or [detention] referral after filing of petition and prior to order of disposition. [(a)] After the filing of a petition under section seven hundred thirty-two of this part, the court in its discretion may release the respondent [or direct his or her detention]. If the respondent may be a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law, the court may direct the respondent to an available short-term safe house [as an alternative to detention. However, the court shall not direct detention unless it finds and states the facts and reasons for so finding that unless the respondent is detained there is a substantial probability that the respondent will not appear in court on the return date and all available alternatives to detention have been exhausted.

(b) Unless the respondent waives a determination that probable cause exists to believe that he is a person in need of supervision, no detention under this section may last more than three days (i) unless the court finds, pursuant to the evidentiary standards applicable to a hearing on a felony complaint in a criminal court, that such probable cause exists, or (ii) unless special circumstances exist, in which cases such detention may be extended not more than an additional three days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

(c) Upon a finding of facts and reasons which support a detention order pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, the court shall also determine and state in any order directing detention:

(i) whether continuation of the respondent in the respondent's home would be contrary to the best interests of the respondent based upon, and limited to, the facts and circumstance available to the court at the time of the court's determination in accordance with this section; and

(ii) where appropriate, whether reasonable efforts were made prior to the date of the court order directing detention in accordance with this section, to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the respondent from his or her home or, if the respondent had been removed from his or her home prior to the court appearance pursuant to this section, where appropriate, whether reasonable efforts were made to make it possible for the respondent to safely return home].
§ 91. Section 741-a of the family court act, as amended by section 3 of part B of chapter 327 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 741-a. Notice and right to be heard. The foster parent caring for [the child] a sexually exploited child placed in accordance with section seven hundred fifty-six of this article or any pre-adoptive parent or relative providing care for the respondent shall be provided with notice of any permanency hearing held pursuant to this article by the social services official. Such foster parent, pre-adoptive parent or relative shall have the right to be heard at any such hearing; provided, however, no such foster parent, pre-adoptive parent or relative shall be construed to be a party to the hearing solely on the basis of such notice and right to be heard. The failure of the foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative caring for the child to appear at a permanency hearing shall constitute a waiver of the right to be heard and such failure to appear shall not cause a delay of the permanency hearing nor shall such failure to appear be a ground for the invalidation of any order issued by the court pursuant to this section.

§ 92. Section 747 of the family court act is REPEALED.

§ 93. Section 748 of the family court act is REPEALED.

§ 94. Subdivision (b) of section 749 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 806 of the laws of 1973, is amended to read as follows:

(b) On its own motion, the court may adjourn the proceedings on conclusion of a fact-finding hearing or during a dispositional hearing to enable it to make inquiry into the surroundings, conditions and capacities of the respondent. An [adjournment on the court's motion may not be for a period of more than ten days if the respondent is detained, in which case not more than a total of two such adjournments may be granted in the absence of special circumstances. If the respondent is not detained, an adjournment may be for a reasonable time, but the total number of adjourned days may not exceed two months.

§ 95. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 754 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 7 of the laws of 1999, subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) as amended by section 20 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The order shall state the court's reasons for the particular disposition. If the court places the child in accordance with section seven hundred fifty-six of this part, the court in its order shall determine: (i) whether continuation in the child's home would be contrary to the best interest of the child and where appropriate, that reasonable efforts were made prior to the date of the dispositional hearing held pursuant to this article to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from his or her home and, if the child was removed from his or her home prior to the date of such hearing, that such removal was in the child's best interest and, where appropriate, reasonable efforts were made to make it possible for the child to return safely home. If the court determines that reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home were not made but that the lack of such efforts was appropriate under the circumstances, the court order shall include such a finding; and (ii) in the case of a child who has attained the age of fourteen, the services needed, if any, to assist the child to make the transition from foster care to independent living. [Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to modify the standards for directing detention set forth in section seven hundred thirty-nine of this article.] § 756. Placement. (a) (i) For purposes of section seven hundred fifty-four, the court may place the child in its own home or in the custody of a suitable relative or other suitable private person [or a commissioner of social services], subject to the orders of the court.

(ii) [Where the child is placed] If the court finds that the respondent is a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law, the court may place the child with the commissioner of the local social services district[, the court] and may direct the commissioner to place the child with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies, including[, if the court finds that the respondent is a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law,] an available long-term safe house. Unless the dispositional order provides otherwise, the court so directing shall include one of the following alternatives to apply in the event that the commissioner is unable to so place the child:

(1) the commissioner shall apply to the court for an order to stay, modify, set aside, or vacate such directive pursuant to the provisions of section seven hundred sixty-two or seven hundred sixty-three; or

(2) the commissioner shall return the child to the family court for a new dispositional hearing and order.
(b) Placements under this section may be for an initial period of twelve months. The court may extend a placement pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-six-a. In its discretion, the court may recommend restitution or require services for public good pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-eight-a in conjunction with an order of placement. For the purposes of calculating the initial period of placement, such placement shall be deemed to have commenced sixty days after the date the child was removed from his or her home in accordance with the provisions of this article. [If the respondent has been in detention pending disposition, the initial period of placement ordered under this section shall be credited with and diminished by the amount of time spent by the respondent in detention prior to the commencement of the placement unless the court finds that all or part of such credit would not serve the best interests of the respondent.]

(c) A placement pursuant to this section with the commissioner of social services shall not be directed in any detention facility, but the court may direct detention pending transfer to a placement authorized and ordered under this section for no more than than fifteen days after such order of placement is made. Such direction shall be subject to extension pursuant to subdivision three of section three hundred ninety-eight of the social services law, upon written documentation to the office of children and family services that the youth is in need of specialized treatment or placement and the diligent efforts by the commissioner of social services to locate an appropriate placement.]

§ 97. Section 758-a of the family court act, as amended by chapter 73 of the laws of 1979, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 4 of the laws of 1987, paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 575 of the laws of 2007, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 309 of the laws of 1996, and subdivision 3 as separately amended by chapter 568 of the laws of 1979, is amended to read as follows:

§ 758-a. Restitution. 1. In cases involving acts of [infants] children over [ten] twelve and less than [sixteen] eighteen years of age, the court may

(a) recommend as a condition of placement, or order as a condition of probation or suspended judgment, restitution in an amount representing a fair and reasonable cost to replace the property or repair the damage caused by the [infant] child, not, however, to exceed one thousand dollars. [In the case of a placement, the court may recommend that the infant pay out of his or her own funds or earnings the amount of replacement or damage, either in a lump sum or in periodic payments in amounts set by the agency with which he is placed, and in the case of probation or suspended judgment, the] The court may require that the [infant] child pay out of his or her own funds or earnings the amount of replacement or damage, either in a lump sum or in periodic payments in amounts set by the court; and/or

(b) order as a condition of placement, probation, or suspended judgment, services for the public good including in the case of a crime involving willful, malicious, or unlawful damage or destruction to real or personal property maintained as a cemetery plot, grave, burial place, or other place of interment of human remains, services for the maintenance and repair thereof, taking into consideration the age and physical condition of the [infant] child.

2. [If the court recommends restitution or requires services for the public good in conjunction with an order of placement pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-six, the placement shall be made only to an authorized agency which has adopted rules and regulations for the supervision of such a program, which rules and regulations shall be subject to the approval of the state department of social services. Such rules and regulations shall include, but not be limited to provisions (i) assuring that the conditions of work, including wages, meet the standards therefor prescribed pursuant to the labor law; (ii) affording coverage to the child under the workers' compensation law as an employee of such agency, department or institution; (iii) assuring that the entity receiving such services shall not utilize the same to replace its regular employees; and (iv) providing for reports to the court not less frequently than every six months, unless the order provides otherwise.

3.] If the court requires restitution or services for the public good [as a condition of probation or suspended judgment], it shall provide that an agency or person supervise the restitution or services and that such agency or person report to the court not less frequently than every six months, unless the order provides otherwise. Upon the written notice sent by a school district to the court and the appropriate probation department or agency which submits probation recommendations or reports to the court, the court may provide that such school district shall supervise the performance of services for the public good.

[4.] 3. The court, upon receipt of the reports provided for in subdivision two [or three] of this section may, on its own motion or the motion of any party or the agency, hold a hearing to determine whether the [placement] condition should be altered or modified.

follows:

§ 774. Action on petition for transfer. On receiving a petition under section seven hundred seventy-three, the court may proceed under sections seven hundred thirty-seven, seven hundred thirty-eight or seven hundred thirty-nine with respect to the issuance of a summons or warrant and sections seven hundred twenty-seven and seven hundred twenty-nine govern questions of detention and failure to comply with a promise to appear]. Due notice of the petition and a copy of the petition shall also be served personally or by mail upon the office of the locality chargeable for the support of the person involved and upon the person involved and his or her parents and other persons.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, when determining the highest need social services districts pursuant to this subdivision, the office may consider factors that may include, but are not necessarily limited to:
   (a) the total amount of available funding and the amount of funding required for family support centers to meet the objectives outlined in section four hundred fifty-eight-m of this title;
   (b) relevant, available statistics regarding each district, which may include, but not necessarily be limited to:

3. As to delinquent children [and persons in need of supervision]:

(a) Investigate complaints as to alleged delinquency of a child.
(b) Bring such case of alleged delinquency when necessary before the family court.

(c) Receive within fifteen days from the order of placement as a public charge any delinquent child committed or placed [or person in need of supervision placed] in his or her care by the family court provided, however, that the commissioner of the social services district with whom the child is placed may apply to the state commissioner or his or her designee for approval of an additional fifteen days, upon written documentation to the office of children and family services that the youth is in need of specialized treatment or placement and the diligent efforts by the commissioner of social services to locate an appropriate placement.

[3-a. As to delinquent children:

(a)] (d) (1) Conditionally release any juvenile delinquent placed with the district to aftercare whenever the district determines conditional release to be consistent with the needs and best interests of such juvenile delinquent, that suitable care and supervision can be provided, and that there is a reasonable probability that such juvenile delinquent can be conditionally released without endangering public safety; provided, however, that such conditional release shall be made in accordance with the regulations of the office of children and family services, and provided further that no juvenile delinquent while absent from a facility or program without the consent of the director of such facility or program shall be conditionally released by the district solely by reason of the absence.

(2) It shall be a condition of such release that a juvenile delinquent so released shall continue to be the responsibility of the social services district for the period provided in the order of placement.
(3) The social services district may provide clothing, services and other necessities for any conditionally released juvenile delinquent, as may be required, including medical care and services not provided to such juvenile delinquent as medical assistance for needy persons pursuant to title eleven of article five of this chapter.

(4) The social services district, pursuant to the regulations of the office of children and family services, may cause a juvenile delinquent to be returned to a facility operated and maintained by the district, or an authorized agency under contract with the district, at any time within the period of placement, where there is a violation of the conditions of release or a change of circumstances.

(5) Juvenile delinquents conditionally released by a social services district may be provided for as follows:

(i) If, in the opinion of the social services district, there is no suitable parent, relative or guardian to whom a juvenile delinquent can be conditionally released, and suitable care cannot otherwise be secured, the district may conditionally release such juvenile delinquent to the care of any other suitable person; provided that where such suitable person has no legal relationship with the juvenile, the district shall advise such person of the procedures for obtaining custody or guardianship of the juvenile.

(ii) If a conditionally released juvenile delinquent is subject to article sixty-five of the education law or elects to participate in an educational program leading to a high school diploma, he or she shall be enrolled in a school or educational program leading to a high school diploma following release, or, if such release occurs during the summer recess, upon the commencement of the next school term. If a conditionally released juvenile delinquent is not subject to article sixty-five of the education law, and does not elect to participate in an educational program leading to a high school diploma, steps shall be taken, to the extent possible, to facilitate his or her gainful employment or enrollment in a vocational program following release.

[(b)] (e) When a juvenile delinquent placed with the social services district is absent from placement without consent, such absence shall interrupt the calculation of time for his or her placement. Such interruption shall continue until such juvenile delinquent returns to the facility or authorized agency in which he or she was placed. Provided, however, that any time spent by a juvenile delinquent in custody from the date of absence to the date placement resumes shall be credited against the time of such placement provided that such custody:

(1) was due to an arrest or surrender based upon the absence; or
(2) arose from an arrest or surrender on another charge which did not culminate in a conviction, adjudication or adjustment.

[(c)] (f) In addition to the other requirements of this section, no juvenile delinquent placed with a social services district operating an approved juvenile justice services close to home initiative pursuant to section four hundred four of this chapter pursuant to a restrictive placement under the family court act shall be released except pursuant to section 353.5 of the family court act.

11. In the case of a child who is adjudicated [a person in need of supervision or] a juvenile delinquent and is placed by the family court with the [division for youth] office of children and family services and who is placed by [the division for youth] such office with an authorized agency pursuant to court order, the social services official shall make expenditures in accordance with the regulations of the department for the care and maintenance of such child during the term of such placement subject to state reimbursement pursuant to section one hundred fifty-three-k of this [title, or article nineteen-G of the executive law in applicable cases] article.

12. A social services official shall be permitted to place persons adjudicated [in need of supervision or] delinquent[, and alleged persons to be in need of supervision] in detention pending transfer to a placement, in the same foster care facilities as are providing care to destitute, neglected, abused or abandoned children. Such foster care facilities shall not provide care to a youth in the care of a social services official as a convicted juvenile offender.

§ 98-c. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 409-a of the social services law, as amended by chapter 87 of the laws of 1993, subparagraph (i) as amended by chapter 342 of the laws of 2010, and subparagraph (ii) as amended by section 22 of part C of chapter 83 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A social services official shall provide preventive services to a child and his or her family, in accordance with the family's service plan as required by section four hundred nine-e of this [chapter] article and the social services district's child welfare services plan submitted and approved pursuant to section four hundred nine-d of this [chapter] article, upon a finding by such official that [(i)] the child will be placed, returned to or continued in foster care unless such services are provided and that it is reasonable to believe that by providing such services the child will be able to remain with or be returned to his or her family, and for a former foster care youth under the age of twenty-one who was previously placed in the care and custody or custody and guardianship of the local commissioner of social services or other officer, board or department authorized to receive children as public charges where it is reasonable to believe that by providing such services the former foster care youth will avoid a return to foster care (or (ii) the child is the subject of a petition under article seven of the family court act, or has been determined by the assessment service established pursuant to section two hundred forty-three-a of the executive law, or by the probation service where no such assessment service has been designated, to be at risk of being the subject of such a petition, and the social services official determines that the child is at risk of placement into foster care]. Such finding shall be entered in the child's uniform case record established and maintained pursuant to section four hundred nine-f of this [chapter] article. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to assist social services officials in making determinations of eligibility for mandated preventive services pursuant to this [subparagraph] paragraph.

§ 99. Subdivision 1, the opening paragraph of subdivision 2 and subparagraphs (i) and (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 529-b of the executive law, as added by section 3 of subpart B of part Q of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

1. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, eligible expenditures by an eligible municipality for services to divert youth at risk of, alleged to be, or adjudicated as juvenile delinquents [or persons alleged or adjudicated to be in need of supervision], or youth alleged to be or convicted as juvenile offenders from placement in detention or in residential care shall be subject to state reimbursement under the supervision and treatment services for juveniles program for up to sixty-two percent of the municipality's expenditures, subject to available appropriations and exclusive of any federal funds made available for such purposes, not to exceed the municipality's distribution under the supervision and treatment services for juveniles program.

(b) The state funds appropriated for the supervision and treatment services for juveniles program shall be distributed to eligible municipalities by the office of children and family services based on a plan developed by the office which may consider historical information regarding the number of youth seen at probation intake for an alleged act of delinquency, the number of alleged persons in need of supervision receiving diversion services under section seven hundred thirty-five of the family court act, the number of youth remanded to detention, the number of juvenile delinquents placed with the office, the number of juvenile delinquents [and persons in need of supervision] placed in residential care with the municipality, the municipality's reduction in the use of detention and residential placements, and other factors as determined by the office. Such plan developed by the office shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget. The office is authorized, in its discretion, to make advance distributions to a municipality in anticipation of state reimbursement.

As used in this section, the term "municipality" shall mean a county, or a city having a population of one million or more, and "supervision and treatment services for juveniles" shall mean community-based services or programs designed to safely maintain youth in the community pending a family court disposition or conviction in criminal court and services or programs provided to youth adjudicated as juvenile delinquents [or persons in need of supervision,] or youth alleged to be juvenile offenders to prevent residential placement of such youth or a return to placement where such youth have been released to the community from residential placement or programs provided to youth adjudicated persons in need of supervision to maintain such youth in their homes.

Supervision and treatment services for juveniles may include but are not limited to services or programs that:

2) a description of how the services and programs proposed for funding will reduce the number of youth from the municipality who are detained and residentially or otherwise placed; how such services and programs are family-focused; and whether such services and programs are capable of being replicated across multiple sites;

§ 100. The opening paragraph and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 and subdivisions 4, 5, 6 and 7 of section 530 of the executive law, the opening paragraph of subdivision 2 and subdivision 4 as amended by section 4 of subpart B of part Q of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by section 1 of part M of chapter 57 of the laws of 2012, subdivision 5 as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, subparagraphs 1, 2 and 4 of paragraph (a) and paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 as amended by section 5 of subpart B of part Q of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 880 of the laws of 1976, and subdivision 7 as amended by section 6 of subpart B of part Q of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of state law to the contrary, data necessary for completion of a detention risk assessment instrument may be shared among law enforcement, probation, courts, detention administrators, detention providers, and the attorney for the child upon retention or appointment; solely for the purpose of accurate completion of such risk assessment instrument, and a copy of the completed detention risk assessment instrument shall be made available to the applicable detention provider, the attorney for the child and the court.

4. (a) The municipality must notify the office of children and family services of state aid received under other state aid formulas by each detention facility for which the municipality is seeking reimbursement pursuant to this section, including but not limited to, aid for education, probation and mental health services.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision eight of this section: (i) In computing reimbursement to the municipality pursuant to this section, the office shall insure that the aggregate of state aid under all state aid formulas shall not exceed fifty percent of the cost of care, maintenance and supervision provided to detainees eligible for state reimbursement under subdivision two of this section, exclusive of federal aid for such purposes not to exceed the amount of the municipality's distribution under the juvenile detention services program.
