section 170.30 of this chapter or paragraph (g) of subdivision one of section 210.20 of this chapter must be granted where the people are not ready for trial within:

(a) six months of the commencement of a criminal action wherein a defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a felony;

[2. Except as provided in subdivision three, where a defendant has been committed to the custody of the sheriff in a criminal action he must be released on bail or on his own recognizance, upon such conditions as may be just and reasonable, if the people are not ready for trial in that criminal action within:

(a) ninety days from the commencement of his commitment to the custody of the sheriff in a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a felony;

(b) thirty days from the commencement of his commitment to the custody of the sheriff in a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a misdemeanor punishable by a sentence of imprisonment of more than three months and none of

(d) five days from the commencement of his commitment to the custody of the sheriff in a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a violation and none of which is a crime.

2. The defendant, subject to the provisions of subdivisions three and four of this section, may waive his or her right to a speedy trial pursuant to this section at any time prior to trial.

2-a. Such waiver must be in writing with the consent of the defendant personally and signed by the defendant. If the defendant is being held in custody for any reason at the time he or she makes a waiver pursuant to this section, the waiver shall be made in person, in open court, in the presence of the court, and with the approval of the court. In every case, such written waiver must make reference to a specific matter for which the defendant is charged.

2-b. The waiver period, except for exceptional circumstances approved by the court or for defendants engaged in a judicial diversion program for certain felony offenders pursuant to article two hundred sixteen of this chapter, shall not exceed:
(a) three months where a defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a felony;

(b) forty-five days where a defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a misdemeanor punishable by a sentence of imprisonment of more than three months and none of which is a felony;

(d) fifteen days where the defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a violation and none of which is a crime.

2-c. Absent extraordinary circumstances, no more than two waivers may be executed pursuant to this section for a single case. If the court finds extraordinary circumstances warranting more than two waivers pursuant to this section, the court must state upon the record the extraordinary circumstances before granting additional waivers pursuant to this section.

2-d. A waiver executed pursuant to this section shall not preclude the court from excluding the periods described in subdivision four of this section when computing the time within which the people must be ready for trial.

3. Whenever pursuant to this section a prosecutor states or otherwise provides notice that the people are ready for trial, the court may make inquiry on the record as to their actual readiness. If, after conducting its inquiry, the court determines that the people are not ready to proceed to trial, the prosecutor's statement or notice of readiness shall not be valid for purposes of this section.

4. (a) Subdivision one does not apply to a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of an offense defined in sections 125.10, 125.15, 125.20, 125.25, 125.26 and 125.27 of the penal law.

(b) A motion made pursuant to subdivision one of this section upon expiration of the specified period may be denied where the people are not ready for trial if the people were ready for trial prior to the expiration of the specified period and their present unreadiness is due to some exceptional fact or circumstance, including, but not limited to, the sudden unavailability of evidence material to the people's case, when the district attorney has exercised due diligence to obtain such evidence and there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence will become available in a reasonable period.

(c) A motion made pursuant to subdivision two shall not:

(i) apply to any defendant who is serving a term of imprisonment for another offense;

(ii) require the release from custody of any defendant who is also being held in custody pending trial of another criminal charge as to which the applicable period has not yet elapsed;

(iii) prevent the redetention of or otherwise apply to any defendant who, after being released from custody pursuant to this section or otherwise, is charged with another crime or violates the conditions on which he has been released, by failing to appear at a judicial proceeding at which his presence is required or otherwise.

(c) Any motion made pursuant to subdivision one of this section must be filed at least twenty days before commencement of the trial, but for good cause may be made thereafter. The motion papers must include sworn allegations of fact specifying the time periods that should be charged against the people and the legal basis to charge those time periods to the people. The court may summarily deny the motion if the motion papers do not contain sworn allegations of fact or the legal basis to charge those time periods to the people. The court may reserve decision on any motion made pursuant to subdivision.

[4.] 5. In computing the time within which the people must be ready for trial pursuant to subdivisions one and two of this section, the following periods must be excluded:

(a) a reasonable period of delay resulting from other proceedings concerning the defendant, including but not limited to: proceedings for the determination of competency and the period during which defendant is incompetent to stand trial; demand to produce; request for a bill of particulars; pre-trial motions; appeals; trial of other charges; and the period during which such matters are under consideration by the court; or

(b) the period of delay resulting from a continuance granted by the court at the request of, or with the consent of, the defendant or his or her counsel. The court [must] may grant such a continuance only if it is satisfied that postponement is in the interest of justice, taking into account the public interest in the prompt dispositions of criminal charges. A defendant without counsel must not be deemed to have consented to a continuance unless he or she has been advised by the court of his or her rights under these rules and the effect of his or her consent, which must be done on the record in open court if the defendant is in custody; or
(c) (i) the period of delay resulting from the absence or unavailability of the defendant. A defendant must be considered absent whenever his or her location is unknown and he or she is attempting to avoid apprehension or prosecution, or his or her location cannot be determined by due diligence. A defendant must be considered unavailable whenever his or her location is known but his or her presence for trial cannot be obtained by due diligence; or

(ii) where the defendant has either escaped from custody or has failed to appear when required after having previously been released on bail or on his or her own recognizance, and provided the defendant is not in custody on another matter, the period extending from the day the court issues a bench warrant pursuant to section 530.70 of this chapter because of the defendant's failure to appear in court when required, to the day the defendant subsequently appears in the court pursuant to a bench warrant or voluntarily or otherwise; or

(d) a reasonable period of delay when the defendant is joined for trial with a co-defendant as to whom the time for trial pursuant to this section has not run and good cause is not shown for granting a severance; or

(e) the period of delay resulting from detention of the defendant in another jurisdiction provided the district attorney is aware of such detention and has been diligent and has made reasonable efforts to obtain the presence of the defendant for trial; or

(f) the period during which the defendant is without counsel through no fault of the court; except when the defendant is proceeding as his or her own attorney with the permission of the court; or

(g) other periods of delay occasioned by exceptional circumstances, including but not limited to, the period of delay resulting from a continuance granted at the request of a district attorney if: (i) the continuance is granted because of the unavailability of evidence material to the people's case, when the district attorney has exercised due diligence to obtain such evidence and there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence will become available in a reasonable period; or (ii) the continuance is granted to allow the district attorney additional time to prepare the people's case and additional time is justiified by the exceptional circumstances of the case. Any such exclusion when a statement of unreadiness has followed a statement of readiness made by the people must be accompanied by supporting facts and approved by the court. The court shall inquire on the record as to the reasons for the people's unreadiness; or

(h) the period during which an action has been adjourned in contemplation of dismissal pursuant to sections 170.55, 170.56 and 215.10 of this chapter[.]; or

(i) [The] the period prior to the defendant's actual appearance for

(j) the period during which a family offense is before a family court until such time as an accusatory instrument or indictment is filed against the defendant alleging a crime constituting a family offense, as such term is defined in section 530.11 of this chapter.

[5.] 6. For purposes of this section, (a) where the defendant is to be tried following the withdrawal of the plea of guilty or is to be retried following a mistrial, an order for a new trial or an appeal or collateral attack, the criminal action and the commitment to the custody of the sheriff, if any, must be deemed to have commenced on the date the withdrawal of the plea of guilty or the date the order occasioning a retrial becomes final;

(c) where a criminal action is commenced by the filing of a felony complaint, and thereafter, in the course of the same criminal action either the felony complaint is replaced with or converted to an information, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint pursuant to article 180 or a prosecutor's information is filed pursuant to section 190.70, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision one must be the period applicable to the charges in the new accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in subdivision four, already elapsed from the date of the filing of the felony complaint to the date of the filing of the new accusatory instrument exceeds six months, the period applicable to the charges in the felony complaint must remain applicable and continue as if the new accusatory instrument had not been filed;

(d) where a criminal action is commenced by the filing of a felony complaint, and thereafter, in the course of the same criminal action either the felony complaint is replaced with or converted to an information, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint pursuant to article 180 or a prosecutor's information is filed pursuant to section 190.70, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision two must be the period applicable to the charges in the new accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in subdivision four, already elapsed from the date of the filing of the felony complaint to the date of the filing of the new accusatory instrument exceeds ninety days, the period applicable to the charges in the felony complaint must remain applicable and continue as if the new accusatory instrument had not been filed.

(e) where a count of an indictment is reduced to charge only a misdemeanor or petty offense and a reduced indictment or a prosecutor's information is filed pursuant to subdivisions one-a and six of section 210.20, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision one of this section must be the period applicable to the charges in the new accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in subdivision four of this section, already elapsed from the date of the filing of the indictment to the date of the filing of the new accusatory instrument exceeds six months, the period applicable to the charges in the indictment must remain applicable and continue as if the new accusatory instrument had not been filed;

(f) where a count of an indictment is reduced to charge only a misdemeanor or petty offense and a reduced indictment or a prosecutor's information is filed pursuant to subdivisions one-a and six of section 210.20, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision two of this section must be the period applicable to the charges in the new accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in subdivision four of this section, already elapsed from the date of the filing of the indictment to the date of the filing of the new accusatory instrument exceeds ninety days, the period applicable to the charges in the indictment must remain applicable and continue as if the new accusatory instrument had not been filed.

[6.] 7. The procedural rules prescribed in subdivisions one through seven of section 210.45 of this chapter with respect to a motion to dismiss an indictment are also applicable to a motion made pursuant to subdivision two of this section.

6. The period from the filing of a motion pursuant to this section until entry of an order disposing of such motion shall not, by reason of such motion, be considered a period of delay for purposes of subdivision [four] five of section 30.30 of this chapter, nor shall such period, by reason of such motion, be excluded in computing the time within which the people must be ready for trial pursuant to such section 30.30.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

PART B

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new paragraph (w) to read as follows:

(w) (i) Ensure that each state-paid judge or justice assigned to a trial court of the unified court system shall certify monthly, in a statement attesting to the truth of the facts therein, that on each workday of the preceding month, he or she performed judicial duties at an assigned court location for the full daily period of at least eight hours established by the chief administrator for the disposition of court business, or performed authorized duties in an authorized court-related activity at an assigned location, or was on authorized leave.

(ii) The comptroller shall conduct a periodic review and audit of submitted judicial certifications in order to ensure that the state is responsibly authorizing state dollars for judicial salaries and the operation of state trial courts. The comptroller's review and audit shall evaluate the accuracy of the judicial certifications and the effectiveness of the certification system as a whole.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

PART C

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds and declares that there is a present need to revise New York's procedures regulating release of persons charged with criminal offenses pending trial, set forth in title P of the criminal procedure law, so that fewer presumed-innocent people are held behind bars pretrial. The bill breaks the link between paying money and earning freedom in cases involving misdemeanors and non-violent felonies, so that defendants are either released on their own recognizance or, failing that, released under non-monetary conditions. The bill also revises the existing process of remanding individuals in jail before trial, so that pretrial detention is used in limited cases involving high risk of flight or a current risk to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or persons, and comports with Supreme Court jurisprudence regarding required substantive and procedural due process before detention.
§ 2. Subdivisions 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of section 500.10 of the criminal procedure law are amended and a new subdivision 3-a is added to read as follows:

1. "Principal" means a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, or a person adjudged a material witness therein, or any other person so involved therein that [he] the principal may by law be compelled to appear before a court for the purpose of having such court exercise control over [his] the principal's person to secure [his] the principal's future attendance at the action or proceeding when required, and who in fact either is before the court for such purpose or has been before it and been subjected to such control.

2. "Release on own recognizance." A court releases a principal on [his] the principal's own recognizance when, having acquired control over [his] the principal's person, it permits [him] the principal to be at liberty during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding involved upon condition that [he] the principal will appear thereat whenever [his] the principal's attendance may be required and will at all times render [himself] the principal amenable to the orders and processes of the court.

3-a. "Release under non-monetary conditions". A court releases a principal under non-monetary conditions when, having acquired control over a person, it permits the person to be at liberty during the pendency of the criminal action under conditions set by the court, which shall be the least restrictive that will reasonably assure the principal's appearance in court. Such conditions may include, among others, that the principal shall be in contact with a pretrial services agency serving principals in that county; that the principal shall abide by specified restrictions on association or travel; that the principal shall refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device or other dangerous weapon; that the person be placed in pretrial supervision with a pretrial services agency serving principals in that county; that the person be monitored with an approved electronic monitoring device.

4. "Commit to the custody of the sheriff." A court commits a principal to the custody of the sheriff when, having acquired control over his person, it orders that he be confined in the custody of the sheriff [during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding involved] pending payment of bail that is fixed, or pending the outcome of a hearing as to whether the individual shall be ordered into pretrial detention.

5. "Securing order" means an order of a court [committing a principal to the custody of the sheriff, or fixing bail, or releasing him on his own recognizance] that either releases a principal under personal recognizance, releases the principal under non-monetary conditions, or fixes bail, all with the direction that the principal return to court for future court appearances and to be at all times amendable to the orders and processes of the court.

6. ["Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a principal on his own recognizance or fixing bail] "Pretrial detention." A court may commit a principal to pretrial detention if, after a hearing and making such findings as specified in article five hundred forty-five of this title, a judge so orders detention.

7. ["Application for recognizance or bail" means an application by a principal that the court, instead of committing him to or retaining him in the custody of the sheriff, either release him on his own recognizance or fix bail.
"Post bail" means to deposit bail in the amount and form fixed by the court, with the court or with some other authorized public servant or agency.

"Bail" means cash bail [or], a bail bond or money paid with a credit card.

§ 3. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 459 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.10 Securing order; when required; alternatives available; standard to be applied.

When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the control of a court, such court [must] shall, by a securing order[, either release him on his own recognizance, fix bail or commit him to the custody of the sheriff.]:

1. In cases where the most serious charge facing the defendant in the case before the court or a pending case is a misdemeanor or a felony other than that enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law, release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record. A principal shall not be required to pay for any part of the cost of release under non-monetary conditions, except that a principal may be required to pay for all or a portion of the cost of 1 electronic monitoring unless the principal is indigent and cannot pay 2 all or a portion of the cost of such monitoring; 3 2. In cases where the most serious charge facing the defendant in the 4 case before the court or a pending case is a felony enumerated in 5 section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in 6 the penal law, release the principal pending trial on the principal's 7 personal recognizance, or release the principal under non-monetary 8 conditions, or fix bail, selecting the least restrictive alternative 9 that will reasonably assure the principal's court appearance when 10 required. The court will support its choice of alternative on the 11 record.
12 3. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the prosecutor indicates 13 that it intends to move for pretrial detention as set out in article 14 five hundred forty-five of this title, the court shall commit the 15 defendant to the custody of the sheriff.
16 4. When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the 17 course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future 18 court attendance still is or may be required and [he] the principal is 19 still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued.
20 When the court revokes or otherwise terminates a securing order which 21 committed the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall 22 give written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or termi-23 nation of the securing order.
24 § 4. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read 25 as follows:
26 § 510.20 [Application for recognizance or bail; making and determination 27 thereof in general] Application for a change in securing 28 order based on a material change of circumstances.
1. Upon any occasion when a court has issued a securing order with respect to a principal, [or at any time when a principal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result of a previously issued securing order, he] the defendant or the people may make an application for [recognizance or bail] a different securing order due to a material change of circumstances:

(a) in cases for which the most serious charge before the court or in a pending case is a misdemeanor or felony other than that enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law for a different non-monetary securing order; or

(b) in cases for which the most serious charge is a felony enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law for a different securing order.

2. Upon such application, the principal or the people must be accorded an opportunity to be heard and to contend that [an order of recognizance or bail] a different securing order must or should issue[, that the court should release him on his own recognizance rather than fix bail, and that if bail is fixed it should be in a suggested amount and form] because, due to a material change in circumstances, the current order is either too restrictive or not restrictive enough to reasonably ensure a defendant's appearance in court.

§ 510.25 Rehearing on bail after five days in custody after bail is fixed.

In addition to any other available motion or procedure available under this part, a principal for whom bail was fixed and who is still in custody five days after bail was fixed shall be brought before the court the next business day for a rehearing on the securing order. The court shall examine the principal's financial circumstances and order a new securing order. If the court chooses to fix bail, it shall do so at an amount that will both reasonably assure the defendant's appearance in court and that the defendant is reasonably able to pay.

§ 6. Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (v) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, subparagraph (vi) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered by chapter 447 of the laws of 1977, subparagraph (vii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as added and subparagraphs (viii) and (ix) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered by section 1 of part D of chapter 491 of the laws of 2012, and subdivision 3 as added by chapter 788 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

[1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article five hundred thirty and other provisions of law relating to specific kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a) that in some circumstances such an application must as a matter of law be granted, (b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and the principal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, and (c) that in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of judicial discretion.

2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an application is determined on the basis of the following factors and criteria:
(a) With respect to any principal, the court must impose the least restrictive kind and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to secure the principal's court attendance when required. In determining that matter, the court must, on the basis of available information, consider and take into account:

[(i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental condition;

(ii) His employment and financial resources; and

(iii) His family ties and the length of his residence if any in the community; and

(iv) His] 1. information about the principal that is relevant to court appearance, including, but not limited to, the principal's activities, history and community ties;

2. if the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;

3. the principal's criminal record if any; [and

(v)] 4. His record of previous adjudication as a juvenile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any; [and

(vi) His] 5. the principal's previous record if any in responding to court appearances when required or with respect to flight to avoid criminal prosecution; [and

(vii)] 6. if monetary bail is permitted, according to the restrictions set forth in section 510.10 of this title, the principal's financial circumstances;

7. Where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes against a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the following factors:

[(A)] (i) any violation by the principal of an order of protection issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is currently in effect; and

[viii]] 8. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the weight of the evidence against [him] the principal in the pending criminal action and any other factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; or, in the case of an application for [bail or recognizance] securing order pending appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; and

[(ix)] 9. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the sentence which may be or has been imposed upon conviction[.]

(b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require, a denial of the application, regardless of any determination made with respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a).

3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the principal, if he is a defendant charged with the commission of a felony, that the release is conditional and that the court may revoke the order of release and commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of section 530.60 of this chapter if he commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon such order.]; and

10. if the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require, a denial of the application, regardless of any determination made with respect to the factors specified in this paragraph.

§ 510.40 [Application for recognizance or bail; determination thereof, form of securing order and execution thereof] Notification to principal by court of conditions of release and penalties for violations of release.

1. [An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a securing order which either:

(a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his own recognizance; or

(b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or

(c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains him in, the custody of the sheriff.

2.] Upon ordering that a principal be released on [his] the principal's own recognizance, or released under non-monetary conditions, or, if bail has been fixed, upon the posting of bail and successful examination that the bail complies with the order the court must direct [him] the principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved whenever [his] the principal's attendance may be required and to [render himself] be at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the court. If the principal is a defendant, the court shall also direct the defendant not to commit a crime while at liberty upon the court's securing order. If such principal is in the custody of the sheriff or at liberty upon bail at the time of the order, the court must direct that [he] the principal be discharged from such custody [or, as the case may be, that his bail be exonerated].

[3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail, and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to determine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and, if he is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing the sheriff to discharge him therefrom. If the bail fixed is not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff.]

2. If the principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the court shall, in the document authorizing the principal's release, notify the principal of:

(a) any of the conditions under which the principal is subject, in addition to the directions in subdivision one of this section, in a manner sufficiently clear and specific to serve as a guide for the principal's conduct; and

(b) the consequences for violation of those conditions, which could include revoking of the securing order, setting of a more restrictive securing order, or, after the hearing prescribed in article five hundred forty-five of this title, pretrial detention.
§ 8. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 510.45 to read as follows: § 510.45 Pretrial service agencies.
The office of court administration shall certify a pretrial services agency or agencies in each county to monitor principals released under conditions of non-monetary release.

§ 9. Section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows: § 510.50 Enforcement of securing order.
When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the sheriff to produce him or her at such time and place. If the principal is at liberty on [his] the principal's own recognizance or non-monetary conditions or on bail, [his] the principal's attendance may be achieved or compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved.

§ 10. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 520.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 784 of the laws of 1972, is amended to read as follows:
(b) The court [may] shall direct that the bail be posted in any one of [two] three or more of the forms specified in subdivision one, designated in the alternative, and may designate different amounts varying with the forms[;], except that one of the forms shall be either an unsecured or partially secured surety bond, as selected by the court.
§ 11. The article heading of article 530 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

[ORDERS OF RECOGNIZANCE OR BAIL WITH RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS—WHEN AND BY WHAT COURTS AUTHORIZED] SECURING ORDERS WITH

RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS—WHEN AND BY WHAT COURTS AUTHORIZED

§ 530.10 Order of recognizance or bail; in general.

Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a court, upon application of a defendant charged with or convicted of an offense, is [required or authorized to order bail or recognizance] to issue a securing order for the release or prospective release of such defendant during the pendency of either:

1. A criminal action based upon such charge; or

2. An appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction or a sentence or from an order of an intermediate appellate court affirming or modifying a judgment of conviction or a sentence.

§ 13. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 186 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is returnable pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In making such order, the local criminal court shall consider the [bail recommendation] securing order, if any, made by the supreme or family court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant. Unless the petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in addition to scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding such alleged family offense or violation allegation, shall make such matter returnable in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the next day such court is in session.

§ 14. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 388 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

(a) revoke [an order of recognizance or bail] a securing order and commit the defendant to custody; or § 15. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 137 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this article, the court, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of protection in conjunction with any securing order [committing the defendant to the custody of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal]. In addition to any other conditions, such an order may require that the defendant:

§ 16. Subdivisions 9 and 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 9 as amended by section 81 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 498 of the laws of 1993, the opening paragraph of subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 597 of the laws of 1998, paragraph (a) of subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 222 of the laws of 1994, paragraph (d) of subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 644 of the laws of 1996, are amended to read as follows:

9. If no warrant, order or temporary order of protection has been issued by the court, and an act alleged to be a family offense as defined in section 530.11 of this [chapter] article is the basis of the arrest, the magistrate shall permit the complainant to file a petition, information or accusatory instrument and for reasonable cause shown, shall thereupon hold such respondent or defendant, [admit to, fix or accept bail,] establish a securing order or parole him or her for hearing before the family court or appropriate criminal court as the complainant shall choose in accordance with the provisions of section 530.11 of this [chapter] article.

11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by compotent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such order, the court may:

(a) revoke [an order of recognizance or revoke an order of bail or order forfeiture of such bail] a securing order and commit the defendant to custody; or

(b) restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal and commit the defendant to custody; or

(c) revoke a conditional discharge in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose probation supervision or impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction; or

(d) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction. In addition, if the act which constitutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with and tried for that crime or violation.

§ 17. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 531 of the laws of 1975, subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 218 of the laws of 1979, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.20 [Order of recognizance or bail;] Securing order by local criminal court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must [or may order recognizance or bail] issue a securing order as follows:
1. [When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified informa-2 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense 3 or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recogn-4 nize or bail.] In cases where the most serious charge facing the defendant in the case before the court or a pending case is a misdemea-6 nor or a felony other than that enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law, release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record. The principal shall not be required to pay for any part of the cost of release under non-monetary conditions, except that a principal may be required to pay for all or a portion of the cost of electronic monitoring unless the principal is indigent and cannot pay all or a portion of the cost of such monitoring.

2. [When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as otherwise provided in this subdivision:

(a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recognizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony, or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions;

(b)] In cases where the most serious charge facing the defendant in the case before the court or a pending case is a felony enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law, release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, or release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or fix bail, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court appearance when required. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

3. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that they intend to move for pretrial detention as set forth in article five hundred forty-five of this title, the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff.

4. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the defendant is facing a charge of a class A felony, or it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions within the meaning of subdivision one of section 70.08 or 70.10 of the penal law; the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff for the county or superior court to make a determination about a securing order within three days.

5. No local criminal court may order [recognizance or bail] a securing order with respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and until:

   (i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after knowledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived his right to do so; and

   (ii) The court [has], and counsel for the defense, have been furnished with a report of the division of criminal justice services concerning the defendant's criminal record, if any, or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's prior arrest and conviction record, if any. If neither report is available, the court, with the consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this requirement; provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not limited to a substantial impairment in the ability of such division or police department to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it unnecessary. [When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, if the defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.]

§ 18. The section heading, subdivision 1 and subdivision 2 of section 530.30 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, are amended to read as follows:

[Order of recognizance or bail; by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court] Securing order by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court.

1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon application of a defendant, may order [recognizance or bail] a securing order when such local criminal court:

(a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to [paragraph (a) of] subdivision [two] four of section 530.20; or (b) Has denied an application for recognizance or bail; or (c) Has fixed bail which is excessive; or (d) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably ensure court attendance.

In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such local criminal court and release the defendant on [his own] recognizance or under release with conditions, or fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form, whichever is the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure defendant's appearance in court. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one, when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a superior court judge may not order recognizance or bail unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such judge has been furnished with a report as described in [subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of] subdivision [two] five of section 530.20.

§ 19. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, and subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.40 [Order of recognizance or bail;] Securing order by superior court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or bail as follows:

1. [When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.

2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order.] In cases where the most serious charge facing the defendant in the case before the court or a pending case is a misdemeanor or a felony other than that enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law, release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.
The principal shall not be required to pay for any part of the cost of release under non-monetary conditions, except that a principal may be required to pay for all or a portion of the cost of electronic monitoring unless the principal is indigent and cannot pay all or a portion of the cost of such monitoring.

2. In cases where the most serious charge facing the defendant in the case before the court or a pending case is a felony enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law, release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, or release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or fix bail, selecting the least restrictive alternative
that will reasonably assure the principal's court appearance when
record.

3. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that they intend to move for pretrial detention as set out in article five hundred forty-five of this title, the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one and two, a superior court may not issue a securing order, or permit a defendant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after the defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any class B or class C felony defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age. In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the custody of the sheriff.

[4.] 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one and two, a superior court may not issue a securing order when the defendant is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court and counsel for the defense have been furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

§ 20. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action as a result of a prior securing order and the court revokes such order and then either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater amount or in a more burdensome form than was previously fixed and remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, a judge designated in subdivision two, upon application of the defendant following conviction of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age, and before sentencing, may issue a securing order and either release defendant on his own recognizance, or fix bail, or fix bail in a lesser amount or] issues a more restrictive securing order in a less [burdensome] restrictive form than fixed by the court in which the conviction was entered.

§ 21. Section 530.60 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 565 of the laws of 2011, subdivision 2 as added by chapter 788 of the laws of 1981 and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 794 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.60 [Order of recognizance or bail; revocation thereof] Securing order; modification thereof upon court's own action.

[1.] Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant is at liberty as a result of [an order of recognizance or bail] a securing order issued pursuant to this chapter, and the court considers it necessary to review such order, it may, and by a bench warrant if necessary, require the defendant to appear before the court.
Upon such appearance, the court, for good cause shown, may revoke [the order of recognizance or bail. If the defendant is entitled to recognizance or bail as a matter of right, the court must issue another such order. If he or she is not, the court may either issue such an order or commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff. Where the defendant is committed to the custody of the sheriff and is held on a felony complaint, a new period as provided in section 180.80 of this chapter shall commence to run from the time of the defendant's commitment under this subdivision] and modify the securing order, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure court appearance. If the most serious charge facing the defendant in the case before the court or a pending case is a misdemeanor or felony other than that enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony defined in the penal law, the court must release the defendant on personal recognizance or set release with non-monetary conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the people may move at any time for consideration of pretrial detention under article five hundred forty-five of this title if the defendant's alleged actions render the defendant eligible under for a hearing under that section.

[2. (a) Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant charged with the commission of a felony is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance or bail issued pursuant to this article it shall be grounds for revoking such order that the court finds reasonable cause to believe the defendant committed one or more specified class A or violent felony offenses or intimidated a victim or witness in violation of sections 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law while at liberty. Before revoking an order of recognizance or bail pursuant to this subdivision, the court must hold a hearing and shall receive any relevant, admissible evidence not legally privileged. The defendant may cross-examine witnesses and may present relevant, admissible evidence on his own behalf. Such hearing may be consolidated with, and conducted at the same time as, a felony hearing conducted pursuant to article one hundred eighty of this chapter. A transcript of testimony taken before the grand jury upon presentation of the subsequent offense shall be admissible as evidence during the hearing. The district attor-
(a) The people may move to introduce grand jury testimony of a witness in lieu of that witness' appearance at the hearing.

(b) Revocation of an order of recognizance or bail and commitment pursuant to this subdivision shall be for the following periods, either:

(i) For a period not to exceed ninety days exclusive of any periods of adjournment requested by the defendant; or

(ii) Until the charges contained within the accusatory instrument have been reduced or dismissed such that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a felony; or

(iii) Until reduction or dismissal of the charges contained within the accusatory instrument charging the subsequent offense such that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or violent felony offense.

Upon expiration of any of the three periods specified within this paragraph, whichever is shortest, the court may grant or deny release upon an order of bail or recognizance in accordance with the provisions of this article. Upon conviction to an offense the provisions of article five hundred thirty of this chapter shall apply.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision a defendant, against whom a felony complaint has been filed which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or violent felony offense committed while he was at liberty as specified therein, may be committed to the custody of the sheriff pending a revocation hearing for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours. An additional period not to exceed seventy-two hours may be granted by the court upon application of the district attorney upon a showing of good cause or where the failure to commence the hearing was due to the defendant's request or occurred with his consent. Such good cause must consist of some compelling fact or circumstance which precluded conducting the hearing within the initial prescribed period.]

§ 530.65 Violation of a condition of release, remedies available.

When a principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the court, upon motion by the people, may revoke and modify the securing order due to violations of those release conditions. In determining whether to revoke and modify the securing order, the court must consider the nature, the willfulness, and the seriousness of the violation and may only set a more restrictive condition or conditions or release if it finds that such conditions are necessary to reasonably assure the defendant's appearance in court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the people may move at any time for consideration of pretrial detention under article five hundred forty-five of this title if the defendant's alleged actions render the defendant eligible under for a hearing under that section.

ARTICLE 545--PRETRIAL DETENTION

Section 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered.

545.10 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing.

545.20 Pretrial detention hearing.

545.30 Order for pretrial detention.

545.40 Reopening of pretrial hearing.

545.50 Length of detention for defendant held under a pretrial detention order.

§ 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered.
A county or superior court may order, before trial, the detention of a defendant if the people seek detention of the defendant under section 545.20 of this article, and, after a hearing pursuant to section 545.30 of this article, the court finds clear and convincing evidence that the defendant poses a high risk of flight before trial, or that defendant poses a current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or persons, and that no conditions or combination of conditions in the community will suffice to contain the aforesaid risk or threat.

§ 545.20 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing.

1. The people may make a motion with the court at any time seeking the pretrial detention of a defendant:

(a) charged with offenses involving domestic violence, or crimes involving serious violence or a class A felony defined in the penal law;

(b) charged with offenses involving witness intimidation under section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law;

(c) charged with committing a new crime while in the community on recognizance, or non-monetary-conditions, or bail; or

(d) who willfully failed to appear in court.

2. Upon such motion by the people, the defendant shall be committed to the custody of the sheriff. If the person is at liberty, a warrant shall issue and the defendant brought into custody of the sheriff.

§ 545.30 Pretrial detention hearing.

1. A hearing shall be held within five working days from the people's motion. At the hearing, the defendant shall have the right to be represented by counsel, and, if financially unable to obtain counsel, to have counsel assigned. The defendant shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present witnesses, to cross-examine witnesses who appear at the hearing, and to present information by proffer or otherwise. The rules concerning the admissibility of evidence in criminal trials do not apply to the presentation and consideration of information during the hearing.

2. Discovery shall be afforded in accordance with pretrial hearings, as set out in criminal procedure law section 240.44.

3. In hearings in cases for which there is no indictment, the people shall establish probable cause that the eligible defendant committed the charged offense. The people must establish by clear and convincing evidence that defendant poses a high risk of flight or a current threat of physical danger to a reasonably identifiable person or persons and that no conditions or combination of conditions in the community will suffice to contain the aforesaid risk or threat. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, which the defendant may overcome by a preponderance of the evidence, that no conditions or combination of conditions in the community will suffice to contain a current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or persons if the court finds probable cause that the defendant:

(a) committed a crime for which the defendant would be subject to a term of life imprisonment;

(b) committed a crime involving domestic violence or a crime involving serious violence or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law while the defendant was in the community on recognizance, or non-monetary conditions, or bail while charged with a crime enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law or a class A felony offense;

(c) threatened, injured, intimidated, or attempted to threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective witness or juror in an criminal investigation or judicial proceeding; or
(d) committed a crime involving domestic violence or a crime involving serious violence or a class A felony offense defined in the penal law while armed with a firearm.

4. In determining whether the defendant presents a high risk of flight or a current threat of physical danger to a reasonably identifiable person or persons and whether no conditions or combinations of conditions in the community will suffice to contain such risk or threat, the court may take into account the following information:

(a) the nature and circumstances of the charged offense;

(b) the weight of the evidence against the defendant, except that the court may consider the admissibility of any evidence sought to be excluded;

(c) the defendant's current and prior history of failure to appear in court whether such failures to appear were willful;

(d) the nature and the credibility of the threat to the physical danger of a reasonably identifiable person or persons, if applicable; and

(e) whether, at the time of the current offense or arrest, the defendant was on probation, parole, or on release pending trial, sentencing or completion of a sentence in this state or other jurisdictions.

§ 545.40 Order for pretrial detention.

In a pretrial detention order issued pursuant to section 545.10 of this article, the court shall:

1. include written findings of fact and a written statement of the reasons for the detention; and

2. direct that the eligible defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel.

§ 545.50 Reopening of pretrial hearing.
A pretrial detention hearing may be opened, before or after issuance of a pretrial detention order by the court, by motion of the people or the defendant, at any time before trial, if the court finds either a change of circumstances or that information exists that was not known to the people or to the defendant at the time of the hearing, that has a material bearing on the issue of whether defendant presents a high risk of failure to appear or a current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or persons and whether no conditions or combination of conditions will suffice to contain such risk or threat.

1. If a pretrial detention order is issued, a defendant shall not remain detained in jail for more than one hundred eighty days after the return of the indictment, if applicable, until the start of trial. In cases where no indictment is required, the one hundred eighty days shall run from the pretrial detention order.

2. (a) The time within which the trial of the case commences may be extended for one or more additional periods not to exceed twenty days each on the basis of a motion submitted by the people and approved by the court. The additional period or periods of detention may be granted only on the basis of good cause shown, and shall be granted only for the additional time required to prepare for the trial of the person. Good cause may include, but not be limited to, the unavailability of an essential witness, the necessity for forensic analysis of evidence, the ability to conduct a joint trial with a co-defendant or co-defendants, severance of co-defendants which permits only one trial to commence within the time period, complex or major investigations, scheduling conflicts which arise shortly before the trial date, the inability to proceed to trial because of action taken by or at the behest of the defendant, the breakdown of a plea agreement on or immediately before the trial date, and allowing reasonable time to prepare for a trial after the circumstances giving rise to a tolling or extension of the one hundred eighty day period no longer exists.

(b) In computing the one hundred eighty days from indictment, if applicable, or the date of pretrial order, to commencement of trial, the following periods shall be excluded:

(i) any period from the filing of the notice of appeal to the issuance of the mandate in an interlocutory appeal;

(ii) any period attributable to any examination to determine the defendant's sanity or lack thereof or his or her mental or physical competency to stand trial;

(iii) any period attributable to the inability of the defendant to participate in the defendant's defense because of mental incompetency or physical incapacity; and

(iv) any period in which the defendant is otherwise unavailable for trial.

3. If a trial has not commenced within one hundred eighty days from indictment, if applicable, or pretrial detention order, as calculated above, and the defendant remains in custody, the defendant shall be released on recognizance or under non-monetary conditions of release pending trial on the underlying charge, unless:

(a) the trial is in progress,

(b) the trial has been delayed by the timely filing of motions, excluding motions for continuances;

(c) the trial has been delayed at the request of the defendant; or 1 (d) upon motion of the people, the court finds that a substantial and 2 unjustifiable risk to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable 3 person would result from the defendant's release from custody, and that 4 no appropriate conditions for the defendant's release would reasonably 5 address that risk, and also finds that the failure to commence trial in 6 accordance with the time requirements set forth in this section was not 7 due to unreasonable delay by the people. If the court makes such a find-8 ing, the court may set an additional period of time in which the defend-9 ant's trial must commence.

§ 24. Subsection (b) of section 6805 of the insurance law, as added by chapter 181 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

(b) A charitable bail organization shall:

(1) only deposit money as bail in the amount of [two] five thousand dollars or less for a defendant charged with one or more [misdemeanors] offenses as defined in subdivision one of section 10.00 of the penal law, provided, however, that such organization shall not execute as surety any bond for any defendant;

(2) only deposit money as bail on behalf of a person who is financially unable to post bail, which may constitute a portion or the whole amount of such bail; and

(3) [only deposit money as bail in one county in this state. Provided, however, that a charitable bail organization whose principal place of business is located within a city of a million or more may deposit money as bail in the five counties comprising such city; and (4)] not charge a premium or receive compensation for acting as a charitable bail organization.

§ 25. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 258 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

(a) If at any time during the defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant has violated a release condition or has failed to appear before the court as requested, the court shall direct the defendant to appear or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who requires treatment for opioid abuse or dependence be deemed to have violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. The provisions of [subdivision one of] section 530.60 of this chapter relating to [revocation of recognizance or bail] issuance of securing orders shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision.

§ 26. Subdivision 3 of section 620.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

3. A material witness order must be executed as follows:

(a) If the bail is posted and approved by the court, the witness must[, as provided in subdivision three of section 510.40,] be released and be permitted to remain at liberty; provided that, where the bail is posted by a person other than the witness himself, he may not be so released except upon his signed written consent thereto;
(b) If the bail is not posted, or if though posted it is not approved by the court, the witness must[, as provided in subdivision three of section 510.40,] be committed to the custody of the sheriff.

§ 27. This act shall take effect November 1, 2019.

witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that pertain to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion. This paragraph does not alter or in any way affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in section 250.10 of this title. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence this information is unavailable for disclosure within the time period specified in this subdivision, that period shall be stayed without need for a motion pursuant to this article; except that the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not later than sixty calendar days before a scheduled trial date, unless an order for further delay upon a showing of good cause is obtained. When the prosecution's expert witness is being called in response to disclosure of an expert witness by the defendant, the court may alter a scheduled trial date, if necessary, to allow the prosecution thirty calendar days to make the disclosure and the defendant thirty calendar days to prepare and respond to the new materials.

2. The prosecutor shall make a prompt diligent, good faith effort to ascertain the existence of [demanded] property subject to disclosure under this section and to cause such property to be made available for discovery where it exists but is not within the prosecutor's possession, custody or control; provided, that the prosecutor shall not be required to obtain by subpoena duces tecum demanded material which the defendant may thereby obtain.

3. Upon motion of a party in an individual case, the court may alter the time periods for discovery imposed by this article upon a showing of good cause.

§ 240.21 Discovery; disclosure of police reports and prior statements of prospective witnesses.

1. Except to the extent protected by court order or right to redaction pursuant to this article, within thirty days of arraignment on an indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, infor-shall disclose to the defendant the following property, provided it is in the possession of the prosecutor:

(a) Any report of a factual nature relating to the criminal action or proceeding against the defendant and prepared by the prosecutor;

(b) Any report relating to the criminal action or proceeding against the defendant prepared by, or at the direction of, a police officer, as to the criminal action or proceeding against the defendant;

(c) Any report, other than those described by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, relating to the criminal action or proceeding against the defendant, which was prepared by a law enforcement officer, provided such report is in the actual possession of the prosecutor; and made by a witness whom the prosecutor intends to call at a pre-trial hearing or at trial and which relates to the subject matter of that witness' prospective testimony.

2. The prosecutor shall make a prompt diligent, good faith effort to ascertain the existence of property subject to disclosure under this section and to cause such property to be made available for discovery where it exists but is not within the prosecutor's possession, custody or control; provided, that the prosecutor shall not be required to obtain by subpoena duces tecum demanded material which the defendant may thereby obtain.

3. Upon motion of a party in an individual case, the court may alter the time periods for discovery imposed by this article upon a showing of good cause.

412 of the laws of 1979, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 558 of the § 240.30 Discovery; [upon demand of] automatic disclosure to the prosecutor.

1. Except to the extent protected by court order or right to redaction pursuant to this article, [upon a demand to produce by the prosecutor,] within fifteen days of disclosure by the prosecutor pursuant to section 240.20 of this article, and prior to trial, a defendant against whom an indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information charging a misdemeanor is pending shall disclose and make available to the prosecution for inspection, photographing, copying or testing, subject to constitutional limitations:

(a) any written report or document, or portion thereof, concerning a physical or mental examination, or scientific test, experiment, or comparisons, made by or at the request or direction of, the defendant, if the defendant intends to introduce such report or document at trial, or if the defendant has filed a notice of intent to proffer psychiatric evidence and such report or document relates thereto, or if such report or document was made by a person, other than defendant, whom defendant intends to call as a witness at trial; [and]

(b) any photograph, drawing, tape or other electronic recording which the defendant intends to introduce at trial[.]

(c) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, made by all persons other than the defendant whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses at trial or a pre-trial hearing; except that disclosure of such statements made by a person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness for the sole purpose of impeaching a prosecution witness is not required until after the prosecution witness has testified;

If in the exercise of reasonable diligence counsel for the defendant has not formed an intention within the time period specified in this section that an item under this subdivision will be introduced at trial or a pre-trial hearing, that period shall be stayed without need for a motion; but the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and subject to the continuing duty to disclose;

(f) All reports and documents concerning physical or mental examinations, or scientific tests or experiments or comparisons, which the defendant intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing, or which were made by a person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing;

(g) Intended expert opinion evidence, including the name, business address, and current curriculum vitae, whom the defendant intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that pertain to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion. This paragraph does not alter or in any way affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in section 250.10 of this title. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence this information is unavailable for disclosure within the time period specified in this subdivision, that period shall be stayed without need for a motion; except that the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not later than thirty calendar days before a scheduled trial date, unless an order is obtained.
2. The defense shall make a diligent good faith effort to make such property available for discovery where it exists but the property is not within its possession, custody or control, provided, that the defendant shall not be required to obtain by subpoena duces tecum demanded material that the prosecutor may thereby obtain.

§ 240.35 Discovery; refusal [of demand] to disclose.

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 240.20, 240.21, and 240.30 of this article, the prosecutor or the defendant, as the case may be, may refuse to disclose any information which [he] that party reasonably believes is not discoverable [by a demand to produce], pursuant to [section 240.20 or section 240.30 as the case may be,] this article or for which [he] the party reasonably believes a protective order or a right to redaction would be warranted. Such refusal shall be made in a writing, which shall set forth the grounds of such belief as fully as possible, consistent with the objective of the refusal. The writing shall be served upon the [demanding] other party and a copy shall be filed with the court. Such refusal shall be made within the time by which disclosure is required, but may be made after that time, as the court may determine is required in the interest of justice.

§ 6. Section 240.40 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 412 of the laws of 1979, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 19 of the laws of 2012, the opening paragraph of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 317 of the laws of 1983, and the closing paragraph of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 481 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

§ 240.40 Discovery; upon court order.
1. Upon [motion] application of a defendant against whom an indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information charging a misdemeanor is pending, the court in which such accusatory instrument is pending:

(a) must order discovery as to any material not disclosed [upon a demand] pursuant to section 240.20, if it finds that the prosecutor's refusal to disclose such material is not justified; (b) must, unless it is satisfied that the [people have] prosecutor has shown good cause why such an order should not be issued, order discovery or issue any other order authorized by subdivision one of section 240.70 as to any material not disclosed [upon demand] pursuant to section 240.20 where the prosecutor has failed to serve a timely written refusal pursuant to section 240.35; (c) may order discovery with respect to any other property, which the people intend to introduce at the trial, upon a showing by the defendant that discovery with respect to such property is material to the preparation of his or her defense, and that the request is reasonable; and (d) where property in the people's possession, custody, or control that consists of a deoxyribonucleic acid ("DNA") profile obtained from probative biological material gathered in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the defendant and the defendant establishes that such profile complies with federal bureau of investigation or state requirements, whichever are applicable and as such requirements are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking a keyboard search or similar comparison, and that the data meets state DNA index system or national DNA index system criteria as such criteria are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking such a keyboard search or similar comparison, the court may order an entity that has access to the combined DNA index system or its successor system to compare such DNA profile against DNA databanks by keyboard searches, or a similar method that does not involve uploading, upon notice to both parties and the entity required to perform the search, upon a showing by the defendant that such a comparison is material to the presentation of his or her defense and that the request is reasonable. For purposes of this paragraph, a "keyboard search" shall mean a search of a DNA profile against the databank in which the profile that is searched is not uploaded to or maintained in the databank. Upon granting the motion pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court shall, upon motion of the people showing such to be material to the preparation of their case and that the request is reasonable, condition its order of discovery by further directing discovery by the people of property, of the same kind or character as that authorized to be inspected by the defendant, which he or she intends to introduce at the trial. The prosecutor may redact any such property and the court may review that redaction, as set forth in this article.

2. Upon motion of the prosecutor, and subject to constitutional limitation, the court in which an indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information charging a misdemeanor is pending: (a) must order discovery as to any property not disclosed [upon a demand] pursuant to section 240.30, if it finds that the defendant's refusal to disclose such material is not justified; and (b) may order the defendant to provide non-testimonial evidence. Such order may, among other things, require the defendant to:

(i) Appear in a line-up;

(ii) Speak for identification by a witness or a potential witness;

(iii) Be fingerprinted;

(iv) Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;
(v) Permit the taking of samples of blood, hair or other materials from his or her body in a manner not involving an unreasonable intrusion thereof or a risk of serious physical injury thereto;

(vi) Provide specimens of his or her handwriting;

(vii) Submit to a reasonable physical or medical inspection of his or her body.

This subdivision shall not be construed to limit, expand, or otherwise affect the issuance of a similar court order, as may be authorized by law, before the filing of an accusatory instrument consistent with such rights as the defendant may derive from the constitution of this state or of the United States. This section shall not be construed to limit or otherwise affect the administration of a chemical test where otherwise authorized pursuant to section one thousand one hundred ninety-four-a of the vehicle and traffic law.

3. An order pursuant to this section may be denied, limited or conditioned as provided in section 240.50 of this article.

Such notification by the prosecutor shall be made [immediately prior to the commencement of jury selection, except that the court may, in its discretion, order such notification and make its determination as to the admissibility for impeachment] chapter 804 of the laws 1984, is amended to read as follows:

§ 240.45 Discovery; upon trial, of prior statements and criminal history of witnesses.

1. [After the jury has been sworn and before the prosecutor's opening address, or in the case of a single judge trial after commencement and protective order or right to redaction, make available to the defendant fifteen days prior to the commencement of jury selection:

witness's testimony;
(b) A record of judgment of conviction of a witness the people intend to call at trial if the record of conviction is known by the prosecutor to exist;

(c) The existence of any pending criminal action against a witness the people intend to call at trial, if the pending criminal action is known by the prosecutor to exist.

The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subdivision shall not be construed to require the prosecutor to fingerprint a witness or otherwise cause the division of criminal justice services or other law enforcement agency or court to issue a report concerning a witness.

(b) a record of judgment of conviction of a witness, other than the defendant, the defendant intends to call at trial if the record of conviction is known by the defendant to exist;

(c) the existence of any pending criminal action against a witness, other than the defendant, the defendant intends to call at trial, if the pending criminal action is known by the defendant to exist.

§ 240.50 Discovery; protective orders.
1. The court in which the criminal action is pending may, upon motion of either party, or of any affected person, or upon determination of a motion of either party for an order of discovery, or upon its own initiative, issue a protective order denying, limiting, conditioning, delaying or regulating discovery pursuant to this article for good cause, including constitutional limitations, danger to the integrity of physical evidence or a substantial risk of physical harm, intimidation, economic reprisal, bribery or unjustified annoyance or embarrassment to any person or an adverse effect upon the legitimate needs of law enforcement, including the protection of the confidentiality of informants, or danger to any person stemming from factors such as a defendant's gang affiliation, prior history of interfering with witnesses, or threats or intimidating actions directed at potential witnesses, or any other factor or set of factors which outweighs the usefulness of the discovery.

2. An order limiting, conditioning, delaying or regulating discovery may, among other things, require that any material copied or derived therefrom be maintained in the exclusive possession of the attorney for the discovering party and be used for the exclusive purpose of preparing for the defense or prosecution of the criminal action.

3. A motion for a protective order shall suspend discovery of the particular matter in dispute.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the personal residence address of a police officer or correction officer shall not be required to be disclosed except pursuant to an order issued by a court following a finding of good cause.

5. (a) A party that has unsuccessfully sought, or unsuccessfully opposed the granting of, a protective order under this section relating to the name, address, contact information or statements of a person may obtain expedited review of that ruling by an individual justice of the intermediate appellate court to which an appeal from a judgment of conviction in the case would be taken.

(b) Such review shall be sought within two business days of the adverse or partially adverse ruling, by order to show cause filed with the intermediate appellate court. The order to show cause shall in addition be timely served on the lower court and on the opposing party, and shall be accompanied by a sworn affirmation stating in good faith (i) that the ruling affects substantial interests, and (ii) that diligent efforts to reach an accommodation of the underlying discovery dispute with opposing counsel failed or that no accommodation was feasible; except that service on the opposing party, and a statement regarding efforts to reach an accommodation, are unnecessary where the opposing party was not made aware of the application for a protective order and good cause exists for omitting service of the order to show cause on the opposing party. The lower court's order subject to review shall be stayed until the appellate justice renders a decision.

(c) The assignment of the individual appellate justice, and the mode of and procedure for the review, are determined by rules of the individual appellate courts. The appellate justice may consider any relevant and reliable information bearing on the issue, and may dispense with written briefs other than supporting and opposing materials previously submitted to the lower court. The appellate justice may dispense with the issuance of a written opinion in rendering his or her decision, and when practicable shall render decision expeditiously. Such review and decision shall not affect the right of a defendant, in a subsequent appeal from a judgment of conviction, to claim as error the ruling reviewed.

6. Any protective order issued under this article is a mandate of the court for purposes of the offense of criminal contempt in subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal law.

1. Any property, material, report or statement required to be disclosed under this article may be redacted by the prosecutor to eliminate information, the disclosure of which could interfere with an ongoing investigation or case.

(a) Upon application of the defendant, such redaction may be reviewed by the court and disclosure may be ordered, unless the prosecutor demonstrates that disclosure of the redacted information could interfere with an ongoing investigation or case or demonstrates the need for any other protective order. Upon application by either party, the court may review any such redaction in an ex parte, in camera, proceeding. In assessing whether the prosecutor demonstrates that disclosure of the redacted information could interfere with an ongoing investigation or case, the court may consider:

(i) The pending charges against defendant;

(ii) Defendant's character, reputation;

(iii) Defendant's criminal record, if any;

(iv) Defendant's record of previous adjudication as a juvenile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any;

(B) the defendant's history of use or possession of a firearm;

(vi) The weight of the evidence against the defendant in the pending criminal action and any other factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction;

(vii) The sentence which may be or has been imposed upon conviction;

(viii) Witness' desire to have identity remain confidential;

(ix) Witness' role in the proceeding;

(x) Public safety;

(xi) Defendant's affiliation with any gangs or organizations and whether the gang or organization has any history of interfering with witnesses or intimidating witnesses;

(xii) Any history of defendant, or those affiliated with defendant, interfering with witnesses or intimidating witnesses; and (xiii) Defendant's constitutional right under both the federal and state constitution to present a defense.

(b) Any report that is redacted pursuant to this subdivision shall so indicate, unless the court orders otherwise, in the interest of justice for good cause shown, including the protection of witnesses or maintaining the confidentiality of an ongoing investigation.
(c) Any property, material, report or statement required to be disclosed under this article may be redacted by the prosecutor to eliminate the name, address, or any other information that serves to identify with particularity a person supplying information relating to the criminal action or proceeding against the defendant.

2. Nothing in this section shall be construed to create, limit, expand or in any way affect any authority that the court otherwise may have to order pre-trial disclosure of the identity or address of a witness.

3. Upon motion of a party in an individual case, the court may alter the time periods for discovery imposed by this article upon a showing of good cause.

In conjunction with the filing or consideration of a motion to vacate a judgment pursuant to section 440.10 of this article by a defendant convicted after a trial, in cases where the court has ordered an evidentiary hearing upon such motion, the court may order that the people produce or make available for inspection property, as defined in subdivision [three] two of section 240.10 of this part, in its possession, custody, or control that was secured in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the defendant upon credible allegations by the defendant and a finding by the court that such property, if obtained, would be probative to the determination of defendant's actual innocence, and that the request is reasonable. The court shall deny or limit such a request upon a finding that such a request, if granted, would threaten the integrity or chain of custody of property or the integrity of the processes or functions of a laboratory conducting DNA testing, pose a risk of harm, intimidation, embarrassment, reprisal, or other substantially negative consequences to any person, undermine the proper functions of law enforcement including the confidentiality of informants, or on the basis of any other factor identified by the court in the inter-of the penal law while at liberty. Before revoking an order of recognizance or bail pursuant to this subdivision, the court must hold a hearing and shall receive any relevant, admissible evidence not legally privileged. The defendant may cross-examine witnesses and may present relevant, admissible evidence on his own behalf. Such hearing may be consolidated with, and conducted at the same time as, a felony hearing conducted pursuant to article one hundred eighty of this chapter. A transcript of testimony taken before the grand jury upon presentation of the subsequent offense shall be admissible as evidence during the hearing. The district attorney may move to introduce grand jury testimony of a witness in lieu of that witness' appearance at the hearing.

PART E

Section 1. Subdivisions 4-a, 4-b, 9 and 10 of section 1310 of the civil practice law and rules are REPEALED.

§ 2. Subdivision 8 of section 1310 of the civil practice law and rules, as added by chapter 669 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:
8. "Defendant" means a person against whom a forfeiture action is commenced [and includes a "criminal defendant" and a "non-criminal defendant"].

§ 3. Subdivision 3-a of section 1311 of the civil practice law and rules is REPEALED.

§ 4. Subdivisions 1, 3, 4, 4-a and 8 of section 1311 of the civil practice law and rules, subdivisions 1, 3, 4 and 8 as added by chapter 669 of the laws of 1984, the opening paragraph of subdivision 1 as amended and subparagraph (v) of paragraph (b) and paragraphs (d) and (e) of subdivision 3 and subdivision 4-a as added by chapter 655 of the laws of 1990, are amended to read as follows:

1. A civil action may be commenced by the appropriate claiming authority against a [criminal] defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime or the real property instrumentality of a crime or to recover a money judgment in an amount equivalent in value to the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime. [A civil action may be commenced against a non-criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime provided, however, that a judgment of forfeiture predicated upon clause (A) of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three hereof shall be limited to the amount of the proceeds of the crime.] Any action under this article must be commenced within five years of the commission of the crime and shall be civil, remedial, and in personam in nature and shall not be deemed to be a penalty or criminal forfeiture for any purpose. Except as otherwise specially provided by statute, the proceedings under this article shall be governed by this chapter. An action under this article is not a criminal proceeding and may not be deemed to be a previous prosecution under article forty of the criminal procedure law.

(a) Actions relating to post-conviction forfeiture crimes. An action relating to a post-conviction forfeiture crime must be grounded upon a conviction of a felony defined in subdivision five of section one thousand three hundred ten of this article, or upon criminal activity arising from a common scheme or plan of which such a conviction is a part, or upon a count of an indictment or information alleging a felony which was dismissed at the time of a plea of guilty to a felony in satisfaction of such count.] A court may not grant forfeiture until such conviction has occurred. However, an action may be commenced, and a court may grant a provisional remedy provided under this article, prior to such conviction having occurred. Any property seized pursuant to this subdivision shall be returned to the defendant if the criminal action does not terminate in the defendant's conviction for a crime. An action under this paragraph must be dismissed at any time after sixty days of the commencement of the action unless the conviction upon which the action is grounded has occurred, or an indictment or information upon which the asserted conviction is to be based is pending in a superior court. An action under this paragraph shall be stayed during the pendency of a criminal action which is related to it; provided, however, that such stay shall not prevent the granting or continuance of any provisional remedy provided under this article or any other provisions of law.
[(b) Actions relating to pre-conviction forfeiture crimes. An action relating to a pre-conviction forfeiture crime need not be grounded upon conviction of a pre-conviction forfeiture crime, provided, however, that if the action is not grounded upon such a conviction, it shall be necessary in the action for the claiming authority to prove the commission of a pre-conviction forfeiture crime by clear and convincing evidence. An action under this paragraph shall be stayed during the pendency of a criminal action which is related to it; provided, that upon motion of a defendant in the forfeiture action or the claiming authority, a court may, in the interest of justice and for good cause, and with the consent of all parties, order that the forfeiture action proceed despite the pending criminal action; and provided that such stay shall not prevent the granting or continuance of any provisional remedy provided under this article or any other provision of law.]

3. In a forfeiture action pursuant to this article the following burdens of proof shall apply:

(a) In a forfeiture action [commenced by a claiming authority against a criminal defendant, except for those facts referred to in paragraph (b) of subdivision nine of section one thousand three hundred ten and paragraph (b) of subdivision one of this section which must be proven by clear and convincing evidence,] the burden shall be upon the claiming authority to prove by a preponderance of the evidence the facts necessary to establish a claim for forfeiture.

(b) [In a forfeiture action commenced by a claiming authority against a non-criminal defendant:]

(i) in an action relating to a pre-conviction forfeiture crime, the burden shall be upon the claiming authority to prove by clear and convincing evidence the commission of the crime by a person, provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to prove the identity of such person.

(ii) if the action relates to the proceeds of a crime, except as provided in subparagraph (i) hereof, the burden shall be upon the claiming authority to prove by a preponderance of the evidence the facts necessary to establish a claim for forfeiture and that the non-criminal defendant either (A) knew or should have known that the proceeds were obtained through the commission of a crime, or (B) fraudulently obtained his or her interest in the proceeds to avoid forfeiture.

(iii) if the action relates to the substituted proceeds of a crime, except as provided in subparagraph (i) hereof, the burden shall be upon the claiming authority to prove by a preponderance of the evidence the facts necessary to establish a claim for forfeiture and that the noncriminal defendant either (A) knew that the property sold or exchanged to obtain an interest in the substituted proceeds was obtained through the commission of a crime, or (B) fraudulently obtained his or her interest in the substituted proceeds to avoid forfeiture.

(iv) if the action relates to an instrumentality of a crime, except as provided for in subparagraph (i) hereof, the burden shall be upon the claiming authority to prove by a preponderance of the evidence the facts necessary to establish a claim for forfeiture and that the non-criminal defendant either (A) knew that the instrumentality was or would be used in the commission of a crime or (B) knowingly obtained his or her interest in the instrumentality to avoid forfeiture.

(v) if the action relates to a real property instrumentality of a crime, the burden shall be upon the claiming authority to prove those facts referred to in subdivision four-b of section thirteen hundred ten of this article by clear and convincing evidence. The claiming authority shall also prove by a clear and convincing evidence that the non-criminal defendant knew that such property was or would be used for the commission of specified felony offenses, and either (A) knowingly and unlawfully benefitted from such conduct or (B) voluntarily agreed to the use of such property for the commission of such offenses by consent freely given. For purposes of this subparagraph, a non-criminal defendant knowingly and unlawfully benefits from the commission of a specified felony offense when he derives in exchange for permitting the use or occupancy of such real property by a person or persons committing such specified offense a substantial benefit that would otherwise not accrue as a result of the lawful use or occupancy of such real property. "Benefit" means benefit as defined in subdivision seventeen of section 10.00 of the penal law.

(c) In a forfeiture action commenced by a claiming authority against a non-criminal defendant the following rebuttable presumptions shall apply:

(i) a non-criminal defendant who did not pay fair consideration for the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime or the instrumentality of a crime shall be presumed to know that such property was the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime.

(ii) a non-criminal defendant who obtains an interest in the proceeds of a crime, substituted proceeds of a crime or an instrumentality of a crime with knowledge of an order of provisional remedy relating to said property issued pursuant to this article, shall be presumed to know that such property was the proceeds of a crime, substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime.
(iii) in an action relating to a post-conviction forfeiture crime, a non-criminal defendant who the claiming authority proves by clear and convincing evidence has criminal liability under section 20.00 of the penal law for the crime of conviction or for criminal activity arising from a common scheme or plan of which such crime is a part and who possesses an interest in the proceeds, the substituted proceeds, or an instrumentality of such criminal activity is presumed to know that such property was the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime.

(iv) a non-criminal defendant who participated in or was aware of a scheme to conceal or disguise the manner in which said non-criminal obtained his or her interest in the proceeds of a crime, substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime is presumed to know that such property was the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime.

[(e)] (c) The presumption set forth pursuant to paragraph [(d)] (b) of this subdivision shall be rebutted by credible and reliable evidence which tends to show that such currency or negotiable instrument payable to the bearer is not the proceeds of a [preconviction forfeiture] crime. In an action tried before a jury, the jury shall be so instructed. Any sworn testimony of a defendant offered to rebut the presumption and any other evidence which is obtained as a result of such testimony, shall be inadmissible in any subsequent proceeding relating to the forfeiture action, or in any other civil or criminal action, except in a prosecution for a violation of article two hundred ten of the penal law. In an action tried before a jury, at the commencement of the trial, or at such other time as the court reasonably directs, the claiming authority shall provide notice to the court and to the defendant of its intent to request that the court charge such presumption.

4. The court in which a forfeiture action is pending may dismiss said action in the interests of justice upon its own motion or upon an application as provided for herein.

(a) At any time during the pendency of a forfeiture action, the claiming authority who instituted the action, or a defendant may (i) apply for an order dismissing the complaint and terminating the forfeiture action in the interest of justice, or (ii) may apply for an order limiting the forfeiture to an amount equivalent in value to the value of property constituting the proceeds or substituted proceeds of a crime in the interest of justice.

(b) Such application for the relief provided in paragraph (a) hereof must be made in writing and upon notice to all parties. The court may, in its discretion, direct that notice be given to any other person having an interest in the property.
(c) An application for the relief provided for in paragraph (a) hereof must be brought exclusively in the superior court in which the forfeiture action is pending.

(d) The court may grant the relief provided in paragraph (a) hereof if it finds that such relief is warranted by the existence of some compelling factor, consideration or circumstance demonstrating that forfeiture of the property [of] or any part thereof, would not serve the ends of justice. Among the factors, considerations and circumstances the court may consider, among others, are:

(i) the seriousness and circumstances of the crime to which the property is connected relative to the impact of forfeiture of property upon the person who committed the crime; or

(ii) the adverse impact of a forfeiture of property upon innocent persons; or

(iii) [the appropriateness of a judgment of forfeiture in an action relating to pre-conviction forfeiture crime where] the likelihood that the criminal proceeding based on the crime to which the property is allegedly connected [results] will result in an acquittal of the criminal defendant or a dismissal of the accusatory instrument on the merits; or

(iv) in the case of an action relating to an instrumentality, whether the value of the instrumentality substantially exceeds the value of the property constituting the proceeds or substituted proceeds of a crime.

(e) The court must issue a written decision stating the basis for an order issued pursuant to this subdivision.

4-a. (a) The court in which a forfeiture action relating to real property is pending may, upon its own motion or upon the motion of the claiming authority which instituted the action, the defendant, or any other person who has a lawful property interest in such property, enter an order:
(i) appointing an administrator pursuant to section seven hundred seventy-eight of the real property actions and proceedings law when the owner of a dwelling is a defendant in such action, and when persons who are not defendants in such action lawfully occupy one or more units within such dwelling, in order to maintain and preserve the property on behalf of such persons or any other person or entity who has a lawful property interest in such property, or in order to remedy any other condition which is dangerous to life, health or safety; or (ii) otherwise limiting, modifying or dismissing the forfeiture action in order to preserve or protect the lawful property interest of [any non-criminal defendant or] any other person who is not a [criminal] defendant, or the lawful property interest of a defendant which is not subject to forfeiture; or (iii) where such action involves interest in a residential leasehold or a statutory tenancy, directing that upon entry of a judgment of forfeiture, the lease or statutory tenancy will be modified as a matter of law to terminate only the interest of the defendant or defendants, and to continue the occupancy or tenancy of any other person or persons who lawfully reside in such demised premises, with such rights as such parties would otherwise have had if the defendant's interest had not been forfeited pursuant to this article.
(b) For purposes of this subdivision the term "owner" has the same meaning as prescribed for that term in section seven hundred eighty-one of the real property actions and proceedings law and the term "dwelling" shall mean any building or structure or portion thereof which is principally occupied in whole or part as the home, residence or sleeping place of one or more human beings.

8. The total amount that may be recovered by the claiming authority against all [criminal] defendants in a forfeiture action or actions involving the same crime shall not exceed the value of the proceeds of the crime or substituted proceeds of the crime, whichever amount is greater, and, in addition, the value of any forfeited instrumentality used in the crime. Any such recovery against [criminal defendants] a defendant for the value of the proceeds of the crime or substituted proceeds of the crime shall be reduced by an amount which equals the value of the same proceeds of the same crime or the same substituted proceeds of the same crime recovered against [all non-criminal] other defendants. Any such recovery for the value of an instrumentality of a crime shall be reduced by an amount which equals the value of the same instrumentality recovered against any [non-criminal] other defendant.

[The total amount that may be recovered against all non-criminal defendants in a forfeiture action or actions involving the same crime shall not exceed the value of the proceeds of the crime or the substituted proceeds of the crime, whichever amount is greater, and, in addition, the value of any forfeited instrumentality used in the crime. Any such recovery against non-criminal defendants for the value of the proceeds of the crime or substituted proceeds of the crime shall be reduced by an amount which equals the value of the proceeds of the crime or substituted proceeds of the crime recovered against all criminal defendants. A judgment against a non-criminal defendant pursuant to clause (A) of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three of this section shall be limited to the amount of the proceeds of the crime. Any recovery for the value of an instrumentality of the crime shall be reduced by an amount equal to the value of the same instrumentality recovered against any criminal defendant.]

§ 5. Subdivision 11 of section 1311 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

(d) Any stipulation, settlement agreement, judgement, order of affidavit required to be given to the state division of criminal justice services pursuant to this subdivision shall include the defendant's name and such other demographic data as required by the state division of criminal justice services.

Within thirty days of the acceptance of the plea or superior court information by the court, the prosecutor shall send to the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services a document containing the name of the defendant, the description and present estimated monetary value of the property, any other demographic data as required by the division of criminal justice services and the date the plea or superior court information was accepted. Any property forfeited by the defendant as a condition to a plea of guilty to an indictment, or a part thereof, or to a superior court information, shall be disposed of in accordance 1 with the provisions of section thirteen hundred forty-nine of the civil 2 practice law and rules.
3 § 7. Subdivision 4 of section 480.10 of the penal law, as added by 4 chapter 655 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows: 5 4. The prosecutor shall promptly file a copy of the special forfeiture 6 information, including the terms thereof, with the state division of 7 criminal justice services and with the local agency responsible for 8 criminal justice planning. Failure to file such information shall not be 9 grounds for any relief under this chapter. The prosecutor shall also 10 report such demographic data as required by the state division of crimi-11 nal justice services when filing a copy of the special forfeiture infor-

PART K

Section 1. This Part enacts into law major components of legislation that remove unnecessary mandatory bars on licensing and employment for people with criminal convictions in the categories enumerated therein and replace them with individualized review processes using the factors set out in article 23-A of the correction law, which addresses the licensing of such individuals. Each component is wholly contained with a Subpart identified as Subparts A through I. Any provision in any section contained within a Subpart, including the effective date of the Subpart, which makes reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Subpart in which it is found.

Section three of this Part sets forth the general effective date of this Part.

therefor from the president of the United States or the governor or other pardoning authority in the jurisdiction where the conviction was had, or shall have received a certificate of relief from disabilities or a certificate of good conduct pursuant to article twenty-three of the correction law to remove the disability under this article because of such conviction]. The term "substantial stockholder," as used in this subdivision, shall be deemed to refer to a person owning or controlling

The appointment of a notary public shall be for a term of four years. An application for an appointment as notary public shall be in form and set forth such matters as the secretary of state shall prescribe. Every person appointed as notary public must, at the time of his or her appointment, be a citizen of the United States and either a resident of the state of New York or have an office or place of business in New York state. A notary public who is a resident of the state and who moves out of the state but still maintains a place of business or an office in New York state does not vacate his or her office as a notary public. A notary public who is a resident of New York state and moves out of the state and who does not retain an office or place of business in this state shall vacate his or her office as a notary public. notary public applies, before the expiration of his or her term, for reappointment with the county clerk or where a person whose term as notary public shall have expired applies within six months thereafter for reappointment as a notary public with the county clerk, such qualificying requirements may be waived by the secretary of state, and further, where an application for reappointment is filed with the county clerk after the expiration of the aforementioned renewal period by a person who failed or was unable to re-apply by reason of his or her induction or enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, such qualifying requirements may also be waived by the secretary of state, provided such application for reappointment is made within a period of one year after the military discharge of the applicant under conditions other than dishonorable. In any case, the appointment or reappointment of any applicant is in the discretion of the secretary of state. The secretary of state may suspend or remove from office, for misconduct, any notary public appointed by him or her but no such removal shall be made unless the person who is sought to be removed shall have been served with a copy of the charges against him or her and have an opportunity of being § 259-t. Release on geriatric parole for inmates who are affected by an age-related debility. 1. (a) The board shall have the power to release on geriatric parole any inmate who is at least fifty-five years of age, serving an indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment who, pursuant to subdivision two of this section, has been certified to be suffering from a chronic or serious condition, disease, syndrome, or infirmity, exacerbated by age, that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished, provided, however, that no inmate serving a sentence imposed upon a conviction for murder in the first degree, aggravated murder or an attempt or conspiracy to commit murder in the first degree or aggravated murder or a sentence of life without parole shall be eligible for such release, and provided further that no inmate shall be eligible for such release unless in the case of an indeterminate sentence he or she has served at least one-half of the minimum period of the sentence and in the case of a determinate sentence he or she has served at least one-half of the term of his or her determinate sentence. Solely for the purpose of determining geriatric parole eligibility pursuant to this section, such one-half of the minimum period of the indeterminate sentence and one-half of the term of the determinate sentence shall not be credited with any time served under the jurisdiction of the department prior to the commencement of such sentence pursuant to the opening paragraph of subdivision one of section 70.30 of the penal law or subdivision two-a of section 70.30 of the penal law, except to the extent authorized by subdivision three of section 70.30 of the penal law.

(b) Such release shall be granted only after the board considers whether, in light of the inmate's condition, there is a reasonable probability that the inmate, if released, will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that such release is not incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of the crime as to undermine respect for the law, and shall be subject to the limits and conditions specified in subdivision four of this section.
In making this determination, the board shall consider: (i) the factors described in subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article; (ii) the nature of the inmate's conditions, diseases, syndromes or infirmities and the level of care; (iii) the amount of time the inmate must serve before becoming eligible for release pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article; (iv) the current age of the inmate and his or her age at the time of the crime; and (v) any other relevant factor.

(c) The board shall afford notice to the sentencing court, the district attorney, the attorney for the inmate and, where necessary pursuant to subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article, the crime victim, that the inmate is being considered for release pursuant to this section and the parties receiving notice shall have thirty days to comment on the release of the inmate. Release on geriatric parole shall not be granted until the expiration of the comment period provided for in this paragraph.

2. (a) The commissioner, on the commissioner's own initiative or at the request of an inmate, or an inmate's spouse, relative or attorney, may, in the exercise of the commissioner's discretion, direct that an investigation be undertaken to determine whether an assessment should be made of an inmate who appears to be suffering from chronic or serious conditions, diseases, syndromes or infirmities, exacerbated by advanced age that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished. Any such medical assessment shall be made by a physician licensed to practice medicine in this state pursuant to section sixty-five hundred twenty-four of the education law. Such physician shall either be employed by the department, shall render professional services at the request of the department, or shall be employed by a hospital or medical facility used by the department for the medical treatment of inmates. The assessment shall be reported to the commissioner by way of the deputy commissioner for health services or the chief medical officer of the facility and shall include but shall not be limited to a description of the conditions, diseases or syndromes suffered by the inmate, a prognosis concerning the likelihood that the inmate will not recover from such conditions, diseases or syndromes, a description of the inmate's physical or cognitive incapacity which shall include a prediction respecting the likely duration of the incapacity, and a statement by the physician of whether the inmate is so debilitated or incapacitated as to be severely restricted in his or her ability to self-ambulate or to perform significant activities of daily living. This assessment also shall include a recommendation of the type and level of services and level of care the inmate would require if granted geriatric parole and a recommendation for the types of settings in which the services and treatment should be given.

(b) The commissioner, or the commissioner's designee, shall review the assessment and may certify that the inmate is suffering from a chronic or serious condition, disease, syndrome or infirmity, exacerbated by age, that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debili-
environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished. If the commissioner does not so certify then the inmate shall not be referred to the board for consideration for release on geriatric parole.
If the commissioner does so certify, then the commissioner shall, within seven working days of receipt of such assessment, refer the inmate to the board for consideration for release on geriatric parole. However, an inmate will not be referred to the board of parole with diseases, conditions, syndromes or infirmities that pre-existed incarceration unless certified by a physician that such diseases, conditions, syndromes or infirmities, have progressed to render the inmate so physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished.

3. Any certification by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee pursuant to this section shall be deemed a judicial function and shall not be reviewable if done in accordance with law.

4. (a) Once an inmate is released on geriatric parole, that releasee will then be supervised by the department pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article.

(b) The board may require as a condition of release on geriatric parole that the releasee agree to remain under the care of a physician while on geriatric parole and in a hospital established pursuant to article twenty-eight of the public health law, nursing home established pursuant to article twenty-eight-a of the public health law, a hospice established pursuant to article forty of the public health law or any other placement, including a residence with family or others, that can provide appropriate medical and other necessary geriatric care as recommended by the medical assessment required by subdivision two of this section. For those who are released pursuant to this subdivision, a discharge plan shall be completed and state that the availability of the placement has been confirmed, and by whom. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when an inmate who qualifies for release under this section is cognitively incapable of signing the requisite documentation to effectuate the discharge plan and, after a diligent search no person has been identified who could otherwise be appointed as the inmate's guardian by a court of competent jurisdiction, then, solely for the purpose of implementing the discharge plan, the facility health services director at the facility where the inmate is currently incarcerated shall be lawfully empowered to act as the inmate's guardian for the purpose of effectuating the discharge.

(c) Where appropriate, the board shall require as a condition of release that geriatric parolees be supervised on intensive caseloads at reduced supervision ratios.

5. A denial of release on geriatric parole shall not preclude the inmate from reapplying for geriatric parole or otherwise affect an inmate's eligibility for any other form of release provided for by law.

6. To the extent that any provision of this section requires disclosure of medical information for the purpose of processing an application or making a decision, regarding release on geriatric parole or for the purpose of appropriately supervising a person released on geriatric parole, and that such disclosure would otherwise be prohibited by article twenty-seven-f of that public health law, the provisions of this section shall be controlling.

7. The commissioner and the chair of the board shall be authorized to promulgate rules and regulations for their respective agencies to implement the provisions of this section.

8. Any decision made by the board pursuant to this section may be appealed pursuant to subdivision four of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article.
9. The chair of the board shall report annually to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly, the chairpersons of the assembly and senate codes committees, the chairperson of the senate crime and corrections committee, and the chairperson of the assembly corrections committee the number of inmates who have applied for geriatric parole under this section; the number who have been granted geriatric parole; the nature of the illness of the applicants, the counties to which they have been released and the nature of the placement pursuant to the discharge plan; the categories of reasons for denial for those who have been denied; the number of releasees on geriatric parole who have been returned to imprisonment in the custody of the department and the reasons for return.

Section 1. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section 66 to read as follows:

§ 66. Term appointments in information technology. 1. The department may authorize a term appointment without examination to a temporary position requiring special expertise or qualifications in information technology within the office of information technology services. Such appointments shall be authorized only in a case where the office of information technology services certifies to the department that because of the type of services to be rendered, or the temporary or occasional character of such services, it would not be practicable to hold an examination of any kind. Such certification shall be a public document pursuant to the public officers law and shall identify the special expertise or qualifications that are required and why they cannot be obtained through an appointment from an eligible list. The department shall review the certification to confirm that the special expertise or qualifications identified by the office of information technology services cannot be obtained through an appointment from an eligible list. The maximum period for such initial term appointment established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed sixty months and, other than as set forth in subdivision two of this section, shall not be extended, and the maximum number of such appointments shall not exceed three hundred. The department shall not approve any temporary positions which are not certified by the office of information technology services to the department in accordance with this section within five years of the date when this section shall have become a law.

2. At least fifteen days prior to making a term appointment pursuant to this section, the appointing authority shall publicly and conspicuously post information about the temporary position and the required qualifications and shall allow any qualified employee to apply for the position. In the event that a permanent competitive employee is qualified for the posted position, the appointment of such employee shall take precedence over the appointment of any term position pursuant to this section. An employee appointed pursuant to this section who has completed two years of continuous service under this section shall be eligible to compete in promotional examinations that are also open to other employees who have permanent civil service appoints and appropriate qualifications. In the event that the department fails to certify a promotional list for an examination in which the appointee has competed within the initially sixty month term appointment, such appointment may be extended by the department, upon certification of the appointing authority, for periods of up to thirty-six months until such time as a promotional list resulting from the examination in which the employee completed, is certified.

3. A temporary position established pursuant to this section may be abolished for reason of economy, consolidation or abolition of functions, curtailment of activities or otherwise. Upon such abolition or at the end of the term of the appointment, the provisions of sections seventy-eight, seventy-nine, eighty and eighty-one of this chapter shall not apply. In the event of a reduction of workforce pursuant to section eighty of this chapter affecting information technology positions, the term appointments pursuant to this section shall be abolished prior to the abolition of permanent competitive class information technology positions at such agency involving comparable skills and responsibilities.

§ 2. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the department of civil service may authorize appointment of term appointees to competitive titles in a manner approved by such department.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed June 30, 2023; provided, however, that any person appointed prior to that date may continue to be employed for a period not to exceed sixty months from the date of appointment.

w. Determine employee rights and enforcement of penalties.

5. The board shall annually prepare and adopt a written statement of investment policy that includes a risk management and oversight program.
This investment policy shall prohibit the board, program, and fund from borrowing for investment purposes. The risk management and oversight program shall be designed to ensure that an effective risk management system is in place to monitor the risk levels of the program and fund portfolio, to ensure that the risks taken are prudent and properly managed, to provide an integrated process for overall risk management, and to assess investment returns as well as risk to determine if the risks taken are adequately compensated compared to applicable performance benchmarks and standards. The board shall consider the statement of investment policy and any changes in the investment policy at a public hearing.

6. a. The board shall engage, after an open bid process, an investment manager or managers to invest the fund and any other assets of the program. Moneys in the fund may be invested or reinvested by the comptroller or may be invested in whole or in part. investment option unless and until the board designates by rule a new investment option as the default.

b. The board may also establish any or all of the following additional investment options:

(i) a conservative principal protection fund;

(ii) a growth fund;

(iii) a secure return fund whose primary objective is the preservation of the safety of principal and the provision of a stable and low-risk rate of return; if the board elects to establish a secure return fund, the board may procure any insurance, annuity, or other product to insure the value of enrollees' accounts and guarantee a rate of return; the cost of such funding mechanism shall be paid out of the fund; under no circumstances shall the board, program, fund, the state, or any participating employer assume any liability for investment or actuarial risk; the board shall determine whether to establish such investment options based upon an analysis of their cost, risk profile, benefit level, feasibility, and ease of implementation; or

(iv) an annuity fund.

c. If the board elects to establish a secure return fund, the board shall them determine whether such option shall replace the life-cycle fund as the default investment option for enrollees who do not elect an investment option. In making such determination, the board shall consider the cost, risk profile, benefit level, and ease of enrollment in the secure return fund. The board may at any time thereafter revisit this question and, based upon an analysis of these criteria, establish either the secure return fund or the life-cycle fund as the default for enrollees who do not elect an investment option.
8. Interest, investment earnings, and investment losses shall be allocated to individual program accounts as established by the board pursuant to this article. An individual's retirement savings benefit under the program shall be an amount equal to the balance in the individual's program account on the date the retirement savings benefit becomes payable. The state shall have no liability for the payment of any benefit to any enrollee in the program.

9. a. Prior to the opening of the program for enrollment, the board shall design and disseminate to all employers an employer information packet and an employee information packet, which shall include background information on the program, appropriate disclosures for employees, and information regarding the vendor internet website described.

b. The board shall provide for the contents of both the employee information packet and the employer information packet. The employee information packet shall be made available in English, Spanish, Haitian Creole, Chinese, Korean, Russian, Arabic, and any other language the comptroller deems necessary.

c. The employee information packet shall include a disclosure form. The disclosure form shall explain, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(i) the benefits and risks associated with making contributions to the program;

(ii) the mechanics of how to make contributions to the program;

(iii) how to opt out of the program;

(iv) how to participate in the program with a level of employee contributions other than three percent;

(v) that they are not required to participate or contribute more than three percent;

(viii) the process for selecting beneficiaries of their retirement savings;

e. Participating employers shall supply the employee information packet to existing employees at least one month prior to the participating employers' launch of the program. Participating employers shall supply the employee information packet to new employees at the time of hiring, and new employees may opt out of participation in the program or elect to participate with a level of employee contributions other than three percent at that time.

10. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the program shall be implemented, and enrollment of employees shall begin, within twenty-four months after the effective date of this section. The provisions of this section shall be in force after the board opens the program for enrollment.

a. Each participating employer may establish a payroll deposit retirement savings arrangement to allow each employee to participate in the program and begin employee enrollment at most nine months after the board opens the program for enrollment.

b. Enrollees shall have the ability to select a contribution level into the fund. This level may be expressed as a percentage of wages or as a dollar amount up to the deductible amount for the enrollee's taxable year under section 219(b)(1)(A) of the internal revenue code. Enrollees may change their contribution level at any time, subject to rules promulgated by the board. If an enrollee fails to select a contribution level using the form described in this article, then he or she shall contribute three percent of his or her wages to the program, provided that such contributions shall not cause the enrollee's total contributions to IRAs for the year to exceed the deductible amount for the enrollee's taxable year under section 219(b)(1)(A) of the internal revenue code. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any participating enrollee, whose employer fails to make employee deductions in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred ninety-three of the labor law, may bring an action, pursuant to section one hundred ninety-eight of the labor law, to recover such monies. Further, any participating employer, who fails to make employee deductions in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred ninety-three of the labor law, shall be subject to the penalties and fines provided for in section one hundred ninety-eight-a of the labor law.

c. Enrollees may select an investment option from the permitted investment options listed in this article. Enrollees may change their investment option at any time, subject to rules promulgated by the board. In the event that an enrollee fails to select an investment option, that enrollee shall be placed in the investment option selected by the board as the default under this article. If the board has not selected a default investment option under this article, then an enrollee who fails to select an investment option shall be placed in the life-cycle fund investment option.

d. Following initial implementation of the program pursuant to this section, at least once every year, participating employers shall designate an open enrollment period during which employees who previously opted out of the program may enroll in the program.
e. An employee who opts out of the program who subsequently wants to participate through the participating employer's payroll deposit retirement savings arrangement may only enroll during the participating employer's designated open enrollment period or if permitted by the participating employer at an earlier time.
f. Employers shall retain the option at all times to set up any type of employer-sponsored retirement plan instead of having a payroll deposit retirement savings arrangement to allow employee participation in the program.
g. An enrollee may terminate his or her participation in the program at any time in a manner prescribed by the board.
h. The board shall, in conjunction with the office of the state comptroller, establish and maintain a secure website wherein enrollees may log in and acquire information regarding contributions and investment and any new coterminous town-village established after July first, two thousand twelve that operates principally as a town or as a village but not as both a town and a village, shall be awarded additional annual aid, starting in the state fiscal year following the state fiscal year in which such reorganization took effect, equal to fifteen percent of the combined amount of real property taxes levied by all of the municiapalities participating in the reorganization in the local fiscal year prior to the local fiscal year in which such reorganization took effect.

In instances of the dissolution of a village located in more than one town, such additional aid shall equal the sum of fifteen percent of the real property taxes levied by such village in the village fiscal year prior to the village fiscal year in which such dissolution took effect plus fifteen percent of the average amount of real property taxes levied by the towns in which the village was located in the town fiscal year prior to the town fiscal year in which such dissolution took effect, and shall be divided among such towns based on the percentage of such village's population that resided in each such town as of the most recent federal decennial census. on each property tax bill for such municipality in substantially the following form: "Your property tax savings this year resulting from the State Citizen Empowerment Tax Credit received as the result of local the citizen empowerment tax credit for each property tax bill shall be calculated by (1) multiplying the amount of the citizen empowerment tax credit used for property tax relief by the amount of property taxes levied on such property by such municipality and (2) dividing the result by the total amount of property taxes levied by such municipality.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

(d) No decision of such board shall be voided or declared invalid because of a failure of any of its board members to comply with this subdivision.

9. The provisions of this [section] article shall be in addition to existing authority and shall not be deemed or constructed as a limitation, diminution or derogation of any statutory authority authorizing municipal cooperation.

authorized to adopt a local law to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts, and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence or other purposes; provided further, that all charges and expenses incurred under this article for zoning and planning may be a charge upon the taxable property of that part of the county.

4. Such county local law shall provide that a board of appeals may determine and vary the application of the provisions in said local law in harmony with the law's general purpose and intent, and in accordance with general or specific rules therein, provided that for:

(a) Orders, requirements, decisions, interpretations, determinations.

The board of appeals may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, interpretation or determination appealed from and shall make such order, requirement, decision, interpretation or determination as in its opinion ought to have been made in the matter by the administrative official charged with the enforcement of such ordinance or local law and to that end shall have all the powers of the administrative official from whose order, requirement, decision, interpretation or determination the appeal is taken.

(b) Use variances. (1) The board of appeals, on appeal from the decision or determination of the administrative official charged with the enforcement of such ordinance or local law, shall have the power to grant use variances, as defined in this section.

(2) No such use variance shall be granted by the board of appeals without a showing by the applicant that applicable zoning regulations and restrictions have caused unnecessary hardship. In order to prove such unnecessary hardship the applicant shall demonstrate to the board of appeals that for each and every permitted use under the zoning regulations for the particular district where the property is located, (i) the applicant cannot realize a reasonable return, provided that lack of return is substantial as demonstrated by competent financial evidence; (ii) that the alleged hardship relating to the property in question is unique, and does not apply to a substantial portion of the district or neighborhood; (iii) that the requested use variance, if granted, will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood; and (iv) that the alleged hardship has not been self-created.

(3) The board of appeals, in the granting of use variances, shall grant the minimum variance that it shall deem necessary and adequate to address the unnecessary hardship proven by the applicant, and at the same time preserve and protect the character of the neighborhood and the health, safety and welfare of the community.

(c) Area variances. (1) The zoning board of appeals shall have the power, upon an appeal from a decision or determination of the administrative official charged with the enforcement of such ordinance of local law, to grant area variances as defined in this section.

(2) In making its determination, the zoning board of appeals shall take into consideration the benefit to the applicant if the variance is granted, as weighed against the detriment to the health, safety and welfare of the neighborhood or community by such grant. In making such determination the board shall also consider: (i) whether an undesirable change will be produced in the character of the neighborhood or a detriment to nearby properties will be created by the granting of the area variance; (ii) whether the benefit sought by the applicant can be achieved by some method, feasible for the applicant to pursue, other than an area variance; (iii) whether the requested area variance is substantial; (iv) whether the proposed variance will have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood or community; and (v) whether the alleged difficulty was self-created, which consideration shall be relevant to the decision of the board of appeals, but shall not necessarily preclude the granting of the area variance.

(3) The board of appeals, in the granting of area variances, shall grant the minimum variance that it shall deem necessary and adequate and at the same time preserve and protect the character of the neighborhood and the health, safety and welfare of the community.

(d) Imposition of conditions. The board of appeals shall, in the granting of both use variances and area variances, have the authority to impose such reasonable conditions and restrictions as are directly related to and incidental to the proposed use of the property. Such conditions shall be consistent with the spirit and intent of the zoning ordinance or local law, and shall be imposed for the purpose of minimizing any adverse impact such variance may have on the neighborhood or community.

5. In addition to the foregoing, the county legislative body, at the option of the legislative body of a town, village or city of the county, is empowered to adopt by local law a comprehensive plan in so far as the plan relates to any portion of the county addressed in said intermunicipal agreement and also any portion which relates to state highways and county or town roads, county buildings and navigable waterways, irrespective of whether they may be located within the boundaries of any town, city or village or elsewhere within the county. Upon the adoption of any such local law, the legislative body of the county shall file with the county clerk forthwith a certified copy thereof, including copies of all relevant maps and plans. The county planning commission or county entity or department appointed by the county legislative body, may develop and recommend the county comprehensive plan to the county legislative body for its adoption.

6. Whenever a comprehensive plan, or one or more parts thereof, shall have been adopted as hereinbefore provided, no street, square, park or other public way, ground, open space or other public place, public building, structure or public utility (whether publicly or privately owned) shall be constructed or authorized in any portion of the county in respect to which said plan or part thereof has been adopted, until the location, character and extent thereof shall have been submitted to and approved by the county planning commission as conforming to the general intent and purpose of the comprehensive plan. The county planning commission shall make rules relating to such matters, which shall provide for notice to all parties interested, including units of local government which may be affected thereby, and including the office of parks, recreation and historic preservation if the matter submitted relates to any portion of the county within two hundred feet of any state park or parkway. If the matter submitted relates to the territory of any unit of local government which has adopted a plan of development prior to the adoption of the comprehensive plan, such plan shall not be superseded except by a two-thirds vote of the whole number of members of the county planning commission.

§ 5. Section four of this act shall take effect immediately after it is enacted by the legislature with the approval of the governor in accordance with paragraph one of subdivision (b) of section two of article nine of the constitution, and provided that it is re-enacted by the legislature and approved by the governor in the next calendar year in accordance with such paragraph. After such re-enactment by the legislature and approval by the governor of section four of this act in accordance with article nine of the constitution, sections one, two, and three of this act shall take effect immediately after such date; provided, further, that the governor's office shall notify the legislative bill drafting commission upon the occurrence of the enactment of this legislation provided for in this section in order that the commission may maintain an accurate and timely effective data base of the official text of the laws of the state of New York in furtherance of effectuating the provisions of section 44 of the legislative law and section 70-b of the public officers law.

§ 2. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that the applicable effective date of Subparts A and B of this Part shall be as specifically set forth in the last section of such Subparts.

b. The county CEO may invite any school district, board of cooperative educational services, fire district, fire protection district, or special improvement district in the county to join a panel. Upon such invitation, the governing body of such school district, board of cooperative educational services, fire district, fire protection district, or

Such school district, board of cooperative educational services, fire district, fire protection district or other special district shall maintain such representation until the panel either approves a plan or transmits a statement to the secretary of state on the reason the panel did not approve a plan, pursuant to paragraph d of subdivision seven of this section. Upon approval of a plan or a transmission of a statement to the secretary of state that a panel did not approve a plan in any calendar year, the county CEO may, but need not, invite any school district, board of cooperative educational services, fire district, fire protection district or special improvement district in the county to join a panel thereafter convened.

gy and insurance purchasing cooperatives; reducing back office administrative overhead; and better-coordinating services. The secretary of state may provide guidance on the form and structure of such plans.

4. While developing a plan, the county CEO shall regularly consult with, and take recommendations from, the representatives: on the panel; of each collective bargaining unit of the county and the cities, towns, and villages; and of each collective bargaining unit of any participating school district, board of cooperative educational services, fire district, fire protection district, or special improvement district.

5. The county CEO, the county legislative body and a panel shall accept input from the public, civic, business, labor and community leaders on any proposed plan. All such public hearings shall be conducted within the county, and public notice of all such hearings shall be provided at least one week prior in the manner prescribed in subdivision one of section one hundred four of the public officers law. Civic, business, labor, and community leaders, as well as members of the public, shall be permitted to provide public testimony at any such hearings.

6. a. The county CEO shall submit each plan, accompanied by a certification as to the accuracy of the savings contained therein, to the county legislative body at least forty-five days prior to a vote by the panel.

b. The county legislative body shall review and consider each plan submitted in accordance with paragraph a of this subdivision. A majority of the members of such body may issue an advisory report on each plan, making recommendations as deemed necessary. The county CEO may modify a plan based on such recommendations, which shall include an updated certification as to the accuracy of the savings contained therein.

7. a. A panel shall duly consider any plan properly submitted to the panel by the county CEO and may approve such plan by a majority vote of the panel. Each member of a panel may, prior to the panel-wide vote, cause to be removed from a plan any proposed action affecting the unit of government represented by the respective member. Written notice of such removal shall be provided to the county CEO prior to a panel-wide vote on a plan.

b. Plans approved by a panel shall be transmitted to the secretary of state no later than thirty days from the date of approval by a panel accompanied by a certification as to the accuracy of the savings contained therein, and shall be publicly disseminated to residents of the county in a concise, clear, and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meaning.

c. The county CEO shall conduct a public presentation of any approved plan no later than thirty days from the date of approval by a panel. Public notice of such presentation shall be provided at least one week prior in the manner prescribed in subdivision one of section one hundred four of the public officers law.

d. Beginning in two thousand twenty, by January fifteenth following any calendar year during which a panel did not approve a plan and transmit such plan to the secretary of state pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision, such panel shall release to the public and transmit to the secretary of state a statement explaining why the panel did not approve a plan that year, including, for each vote on a plan, the vote taken by each panel member and an explanation by each panel member of their vote.
8. The secretary of state may solicit, and the panels shall provide at her or his request, advice, guidance and recommendations concerning matters related to the operations of local governments and shared services initiatives, including, but not limited to, making recommendations regarding grant proposals incorporating elements of shared services, government dissolutions, government and service consolidations, or property taxes and such other grants where the secretary deems the input of the panels to be in the best interest of the public.

The panel shall advance such advice, guidance or recommendations by a vote of the majority of the members present at such meeting.

§ 2. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

(c) Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, the dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds for state university educational facilities purposes if the principal amount of bonds to be issued when added to the aggregate principal amount of bonds issued by the dormitory authority on and after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight for state university educational facilities will exceed twelve billion [three] nine hundred [forty-three] forty-eight million eight hundred sixty-four thousand dollars $12,948,864,000; provided, however, that bonds issued or to be issued shall be excluded from such limitation if: (1) such bonds are issued to refund state university construction bonds and state university construction notes previously issued by the housing finance agency; or (2) such bonds are issued to refund bonds of the authority or other obligations issued for state university educational facilities purposes and the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding bonds does not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service on the bonds refunded thereby; provided, further that upon certification by the director of the budget that the issuance of refunding bonds or other obligations issued between April first, nineteen hundred ninety-two and March thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-three will generate long term economic benefits to the state, as assessed on a present value basis, such issuance will be deemed to have met the present value test noted above. For purposes of this subdivision, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding bonds and the aggregate debt service of the bonds refunded, shall be calculated by utilizing the true interest cost of the refunding bonds, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding bonds from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding bonds to the purchase price of the refunding bonds, including interest accrued thereon prior to the issuance thereof. The maturity of such bonds, other than bonds issued to refund outstanding bonds, shall not exceed the weighted average economic life, as certified by the state university construction fund, of the facilities in connection with which the bonds are issued, and in any case not later than the earlier of thirty years or the expiration of the term of any lease, sublease or other agreement relating thereto; provided that no note, including renewals thereof, shall mature later than five years after the date of issuance of such note. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal such limit, and the state of New York, the dormitory authority, the state university of New York, and the state university construction fund are prohibited from covenantee or making any other agreements with or for the benefit of bondholders which might in any way affect such right.

§ 43. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 14 of section 1680 of the public authorities law, as amended by section 36 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

(c) Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, (i) the dormitory authority shall not deliver a series of bonds for city university community college facilities, except to refund or to be substituted for or in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university community college facilities pursuant to a resolution of the dormitory authority adopted before July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five or any resolution supplemental thereto, if the principal amount of bonds so to be issued when added to all principal amounts of bonds previously issued by the dormitory authority for city university community college facilities, except to refund or to be substituted in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university community college facilities will exceed the sum of four hundred twenty-five million dollars and (ii) the dormitory authority shall not deliver a series of bonds issued for city university facilities, including community college facilities, pursuant to a resolution of the dormitory authority adopted on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five, except to refund or to be substituted for or in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university facilities and except for bonds issued pursuant to a resolution supplemental to a resolution of the dormitory authority adopted prior to July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five, if the principal amount of bonds so to be issued when added to the principal amount of bonds previously issued pursuant to any such resolution, except bonds issued to refund or to be substituted for or in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university facilities, will exceed [seven] eight billion [nine] three hundred [eighty-one] fourteen million [nine] six hundred [sixty-eight] ninety-one thousand dollars $8,314,691,000. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal such limit, and the state of New York, the dormitory authority, the city university, and the fund are prohibited from covenanted or making any other agreements with or for the benefit of bondholders which might in any way affect such right.

§ 44. Subdivision 10-a of section 1680 of the public authorities law, as amended by section 37 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

10-a. Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, but notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the maximum amount of bonds and notes to be issued after March thirty-first, two thousand two, on behalf of the state, in relation to any locally sponsored community college, shall be nine hundred [fourteen] fifty-three million [five] two hundred [ninety] sixty-five thousand dollars $953,265,000. Such amount shall be exclusive of bonds and notes issued to fund any reserve fund or funds, costs of issuance and to refund any outstanding bonds and notes, issued on behalf of the state, relating to a locally sponsored community college.

§ 45. Subdivision 1 of section 17 of part D of chapter 389 of the laws of 1997, relating to the financing of the correctional facilities improvement fund and the youth facility improvement fund, as amended by section 38 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

1. Subject to the provisions of chapter 59 of the laws of 2000, but notwithstanding the provisions of section 18 of section 1 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1968, the New York state urban development corporation is hereby authorized to issue bonds, notes and other obligations in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed [six] seven hundred [eighty-two] sixty-nine million [nine] six hundred fifteen thousand dollars [($682,915,000)] ($769,615,000), which authorization increases the aggregate principal amount of bonds, notes and other obligations authorized by section 40 of chapter 309 of the laws of 1996, and shall include all bonds, notes and other obligations issued pursuant to chapter 211 of the laws of 1990, as amended or supplemented. The proceeds of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall be paid to the state, for deposit in the youth facilities improvement fund, to pay for all or any portion of the amount or amounts paid by the state from appropriations or reappropriations made to the office of children and family services from the youth facilities improvement fund for capital projects. The aggregate amount of bonds, notes and other obligations authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall exclude bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds, notes or other obligations theretofore issued, the proceeds of which were paid to the state for all or a portion of the amounts expended by the state from appropriations or reappropriations made to the office of children and family services; provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than [six] seven hundred [eighty-two] sixty-nine million [nine] six hundred fifteen thousand dollars [($682,915,000)] ($769,615,000), only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For the purposes hereof, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so refunded or repaid, shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest or proceeds received by the corporation including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof.

§ 46. Paragraph b of subdivision 2 of section 9-a of section 1 of chapter 392 of the laws of 1973, constituting the New York state medical care facilities finance agency act, as amended by section 39 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

b. The agency shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue negotiable bonds and notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such principal amount as, in the opinion of the agency, shall be necessary, after taking into account other moneys which may be available for the purpose, to provide sufficient funds to the facilities development corporation, or any successor agency, for the financing or refinancing of or for the design, construction, acquisition, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of mental health services facilities pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision, the payment of interest on mental health services improvement bonds and mental health services improvement notes issued for such purposes, the establishment of reserves to secure such bonds and notes, the cost or premium of bond insurance or the costs of any financial mechanisms which may be used to reduce the debt service that would be payable by the agency on its mental health services facilities improvement bonds and notes and all other expenditures of the agency incident to and necessary or convenient to providing the facilities development corporation, or any successor agency, with funds for the financing or refinancing of or for any such design, construction, acquisition, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement and for the refunding of mental hygiene improvement bonds issued pursuant to section 47-b of the private housing finance law; provided, however, that the agency shall not issue mental health services facilities improvement bonds and mental health services facilities improvement notes in an aggregate principal amount exceeding eight billion [three] seven hundred [ninety-two] fifty-eight million [eight] seven hundred [fifteen] eleven thousand dollars, excluding mental health services facilities improvement bonds and mental health services facilities improvement notes issued to refund outstanding mental health services facilities improvement bonds and mental health services facilities improvement notes; provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment of mental health services facilities improvement bonds and/or mental health services facilities improvement notes the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding mental health services facilities improvement bonds and mental health facilities improvement notes may be greater than eight billion [three] seven hundred [ninety-two] fifty-eight million [eight] seven hundred [fifteen] eleven thousand dollars $8,758,711,000 only if, except as hereinafter provided with respect to mental health services facilities bonds and mental health services facilities notes issued to refund mental hygiene improvement bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to the provisions of section 47-b of the private housing finance law, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds to be refunded or repaid. For purposes hereof, the present values of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so refunded or repaid, shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest or proceeds received by the authority including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof. Such bonds, other than bonds issued to refund outstanding bonds, shall be scheduled to mature over a term not to exceed the average useful life, as certified by the facilities development corporation, of the projects for which the bonds are issued, and in any case shall not exceed thirty years and the maximum maturity of notes or any renewals thereof shall not exceed five years from the date of the original issue of such notes. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the agency shall have the power and is hereby authorized to issue mental health services facilities improvement bonds and/or mental health services facilities improvement notes to refund outstanding mental hygiene improvement bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to the provisions of section 47-b of the private housing finance law and the amount of bonds issued or outstanding for such purposes shall not be included for purposes of determining the amount of bonds issued pursuant to this section. The director of the budget shall allocate the aggregate principal authorized to be issued by the agency among the office of mental health, office for people with developmental disabilities, and the office of alcoholism and substance abuse services, in consultation with their respective commissioners to finance bondable appropriations previously approved by the legislature.

§ 47. Subdivision 1 of section 1680-r of the public authorities law, as amended by section 41 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for the capital restructuring financing program for health care and related facilities licensed pursuant to the public health law or the mental hygiene law and other state costs associated with such capital projects, the health care facility transformation programs, and the essential health care provider program. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed [two] three billion [seven hundred million] dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of constituting the New York state urban development corporation act, as added by section 42 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

§ 50. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs undertaken by or on behalf of special act school districts, state-supported schools for the blind and deaf, approved private special education schools, non-public schools, 1 community centers, day care facilities, and other state costs associated 2 with such capital projects. The aggregate principal amount of bonds 3 authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed 4 fifty-five million dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more 5 debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and 6 bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes 7 previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the dormitory authority and 8 the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and 9 the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of 10 any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the dormitory 21 on behalf of special act school districts, state-supported schools for 22 the blind and deaf and approved private special education schools, non-

24 costs associated with such capital projects, the director of the budget 25 is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with 26 the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, none of 27 which shall exceed thirty years in duration, upon such terms and condi-28 tions as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority and the 29 urban development corporation agree, so as to annually provide to the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 49. Subdivision (a) of section 28 of part Y of chapter 61 of the laws of 2005, relating to providing for the administration of certain funds and accounts related to the 2005-2006 budget, as amended by section 42-a of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

Such bonds and notes of such authorized issuer shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to such authorized issuer for debt service and related expenses pursuant to any service contract executed pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

§ 50. Subdivision 1 of section 49 of section 1 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1968, constituting the New York state urban development corporation act, as amended by section 42-b of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the dormitory authority and the corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for the state and municipal facilities program and other state costs associated with such capital projects. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed one billion nine hundred [twenty-five] thirty-eight million five hundred thousand dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the dormitory authority and the corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the dormitory authority and the corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

laws of 1968, constituting the New York state urban development corporation act, as amended by section 42-c of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for the nonprofit infrastructure capital projects. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed one hundred twenty million dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

§ 52. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 4 of section 72 of the state finance law, as amended by section 43 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

(b) On or before the beginning of each quarter, the director of the budget may certify to the state comptroller the estimated amount of monies that shall be reserved in the general debt service fund for the payment of debt service and related expenses payable by such fund during each month of the state fiscal year, excluding payments due from the revenue bond tax fund. Such certificate may be periodically updated, as necessary. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the state comptroller shall reserve in the general debt service fund the amount of monies identified on such certificate as necessary for the payment of debt service and related expenses during the current or next succeeding quarter of the state fiscal year. Such monies reserved shall not be available for any other purpose. Such certificate shall be reported to the chairpersons of the Senate Finance Committee and the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. The provisions of this paragraph shall expire June thirtieth, two thousand twenty.

§ 53. The opening paragraph of paragraph (a) and paragraph (g) of subdivision 2 of section 56 of the state finance law, as amended by section 48 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, are amended to read as follows:

Refunding bonds shall be issued only when the comptroller shall have certified that, as a result of the refunding, there will be a debt service savings to the state on a present value basis as a result of the refunding transaction and that either (i) the refunding will benefit state taxpayers over the life of the refunding bonds by achieving an actual debt service savings each year or state fiscal year during the term to maturity of the refunding bonds when debt service on the refunding bonds is expected to be paid from legislative appropriations or (ii) debt service on the refunding bonds shall be payable in annual installments of principal and interest which result in substantially level or declining debt service payments pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section fifty-seven of this article. Such certification by the comptroller shall be conclusive as to matters contained therein after the refunding bonds have been issued.

(g) Any refunding bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be paid in annual installments which shall, so long as any refunding bonds are outstanding, be made in each year or state fiscal year in which installments were due on the bonds to be refunded and shall be in an amount which shall result in annual debt service payments which shall be less in each year or state fiscal year than the annual debt service payments on the bonds to be refunded unless debt service on the refunding bonds is payable in annual installments of principal and interest which will result in substantially level or declining debt service payments pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section fifty-seven of this article.

§ 54. Subdivisions 1, 2 and 6 of section 57 of the state finance law, as amended by section 49 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, are amended to read as follows:

1. Whenever the legislature, after authorization of a bond issue by the people at a general election, as provided by section eleven of article seven of the state constitution, or as provided by section three of article eighteen of the state constitution, shall have authorized, by one or more laws, the creation of a state debt or debts, bonds of the state, to the amount of the debt or debts so authorized, shall be issued and sold by the state comptroller. Any appropriation from the proceeds of the sale of bonds, pursuant to this section, shall be deemed to be an authorization for the creation of a state debt or debts to the extent of such appropriation. The state comptroller may issue and sell a single series of bonds pursuant to one or more such authorizations and for one or more duly authorized works or purposes. As part of the proceedings for each such issuance and sale of bonds, the state comptroller shall designate the works or purposes for which they are issued. It shall not be necessary for him to designate the works or purposes for which the bonds are issued on the face of the bonds. The proceeds from the sale of bonds for more than one work or purpose shall be separately accounted for according to the works or purposes designated for such sale by the comptroller and the proceeds received for each work or purpose shall be expended only for such work or purpose. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as in the judgment of the state comptroller may be sufficient or necessary to effect a sale of the bonds, and such interest shall be payable at least semi-annually, in the case of bonds with a fixed interest rate, and at least annually, in the case of bonds with an interest rate that varies periodically, in the city of New York unless annual payments of principal and interest result in substantially level or declining debt service payments over the life of an issue of bonds pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section or unless accrued interest is contributed to a sinking fund in accordance with subdivision three of section twelve of article seven of the state constitution, in which case interest shall be paid at such times and at such places as shall be determined by the state comptroller prior to issuance of the bonds.

2. Such bonds, or the portion thereof at any time issued, shall be made payable (a) in equal annual principal installments or (b) in annual installments of principal and interest which result in substantially level or declining debt service payments, over the life of the bonds, the first of which annual installments shall be payable not more than one year from the date of issue and the last of which shall be payable at such time as the comptroller may determine but not more than forty years or state fiscal years after the date of issue, not more than fifty years after the date of issue in the case of housing bonds, and not more than twenty-five years in the case of urban renewal bonds. Where bonds are payable pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision, except for the year or state fiscal year of initial issuance if less than a full year of debt service is to become due in that year or state fiscal year, either (i) the greatest aggregate amount of debt service payable in any year or state fiscal year shall not differ from the lowest aggregate amount of debt service payable in any other year or state fiscal year by more than five percent or (ii) the aggregate amount of debt service in each year or state fiscal year shall be less than the aggregate amount of debt service in the immediately preceding year or state fiscal year.
For purposes of this subdivision, debt service shall include all principal, redemption price, sinking fund installments or contributions, and interest scheduled to become due. For purposes of determining whether debt service is level or declining on bonds issued with a variable rate of interest pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision four of this section, the comptroller shall assume a market rate of interest as of the date of issuance. Where the comptroller determines that interest on any bonds shall be compounded and payable at maturity, such bonds shall be payable only in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subdivision unless accrued interest is contributed to a sinking fund in accordance with subdivision three of section twelve of article seven of the state constitution. In no case shall any bonds or portion thereof be issued for a period longer than the probable life of the work or purpose, or part thereof, to which the proceeds of the bonds are to be applied, or in the alternative, the weighted average period of the probable life of the works or purposes to which the proceeds of the bonds are to be applied taking into consideration the respective amounts of bonds issued for each work or purpose, as may be determined under section sixty-one of this article and in accordance with the certificate of the commissioner of general services, and/or the commissioner of transportation, state architect, state commissioner of housing and urban renewal, or other authority, as the case may be, having charge by law of the acquisition, construction, work or improvement for which the debt was authorized. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the state comptroller and shall state the group, or, where the probable lives of two or more separable parts of the work or purposes are different, the groups, specified in such section, for which the amount or amounts, shall be provided by the issuance and sale of bonds. Weighted average period of probable life shall be determined by computing the sum of the products derived from multiplying the dollar value of the portion of the debt contracted for each work or purpose (or class of works or purposes) by the probable life of such work or purpose (or class of works or purposes) and dividing the resulting sum by the dollar value of the entire debt after taking into consideration any original issue discount. Any costs of issuance financed with bond proceeds shall be prorated among the various works or purposes. Such bonds, or the portion thereof at any time sold, shall be of such denominations, subject to the foregoing provisions, as the state comptroller may determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, the comptroller may issue all or a portion of such bonds as serial debt, term debt or a combination thereof, maturing as required by this subdivision, provided that the comptroller shall have provided for the retirement each year or state fiscal year, or otherwise have provided for the payment of, through sinking fund installment payments or otherwise, a portion of such term bonds in an amount meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision or shall have established a sinking fund and provided for contributions thereto as provided in subdivision eight of this section and section twelve of article seven of the state constitution.

6. Except with respect to bonds issued in the manner provided in paragraph (c) of subdivision seven of this section, all bonds of the state of New York which the comptroller of the state of New York is authorized to issue and sell, shall be executed in the name of the state of New York by the manual or facsimile signature of the state comptroller and his seal (or a facsimile thereof) shall be thereunto affixed, imprinted, engraved or otherwise reproduced. In case the state comptroller who shall have signed and sealed any of the bonds shall cease to hold the office of state comptroller before the bonds so signed and sealed shall have been actually countersigned and delivered by the fiscal agent or trustee, such bonds may, nevertheless, be countersigned and delivered as herein provided, and may be issued as if the state comptroller who signed and sealed such bonds had not ceased to hold such office. Any bond of a series may be signed and sealed on behalf of the state of New York by such person as at the actual time of the execution of such bond shall hold the office of comptroller of the state of New York, although at the date of the bonds of such series such person may not have held such office. The coupons to be attached to the coupon bonds of each series shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the state comptroller of the state of New York or by any person who shall have held the office of state comptroller of the state of New York on or after the date of the bonds of such series, notwithstanding that such person may not have been such state comptroller at the date of any such bond or may have ceased to be such state comptroller at the date when any such bond shall be actually countersigned and delivered. The bonds of each series shall be countersigned with the manual signature of an authorized employee of the fiscal agent or trustee of the state of New York. No bond and no coupon thereunto appertaining shall be valid or obligatory for any purpose until such manual countersignature of an authorized employee of the fiscal agent or trustee of the state of New York shall have been duly affixed to such bond.

§ 55. Section 62 of the state finance law, as amended by section 51 of part XXX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

§ 62. Replacement of lost certificates.
